

TARHELIUM

North Carolina Natural Gas

By CHIEF RENFRO

RIP VAN TAR HEEL

Where do you go when you go to sleep? A wide awake subject. Psychologists do not know but they are scientifically sure where you go—just as the theologians are morally certain where Hell is. But to the average sleepometer it is as simple as why breakfast is crowded in before dinner. When a homo goes to sleep he goes where he comes from when he wakes up.

Rip Van Winkle after "Swigging" a keg of Dutch bootleg, went there for a siesta, and when he got back three things had happened: his whiskers were long and white, his joints were stiff and he was a generation behind the times. One time Old Tar Heel went to sleep.

While there thousands of moss-backs grew in riotous profusion, and his backbone softened to such a degree that all North Carolina's chiropractic statesmen were unable to give relief. But when Doctor Cameron Morrison was called in he brought a Tarhelium pulmotor, and then something happened. After a few treatments Old Tar Heel trimmed his beard and straightened up and "came to." He was not twenty years behind the times for the reason that his neighbors had been taking "em a little sleep." Old Dominion had been dozing in the aftermath of a glorious past, and Old Palmetto had had one eye shut.

Since Big Ben went off, however, there has been no sleep—or even a nap. Today Tar Teel has caught up, gone ahead and is sniffing Tarhelium at every snort. The old flint lock has been hung over the door, and he is shooting booms in every direction. His sons are building playgrounds in the mountains, playing the magic music of machinery everywhere, co-operating in the fine art of agriculture, and from Buckwheat to Cypress Knees the little Rips and Winklets are going to schools that are better and longer. Tarhelium is a distinctive North Carolina product, and is one of the greatest resources of Nature that has been given to her in such unlimited and unstinted measure.

Tarhelium is a by-product of Helium. Helium was first discovered on the sun about sixty years ago, and thirty years later it was found to inhabit the earth. Frozen Helium is the frostiest thing in the world, its temperature being 458 degrees below zero. Tarhelium is unlike her maternal ancestors, being more volatile, more penetrating, more pervading, more enervating and more contagious. It's the great wonder-worker of the age, and getting better every day.

The Last Bottle

Up till last week the "Northern Lights" were to be seen in Florida. The great railroads threading North Carolina were operating specials named Orange Blossoms, Everglades, Havalampas, and House-of-Coral-Gables. But robins are not the only birds that go North in the spring. Would it not be the time now, a good time, to put on a few northbound specials: How about the Albemarle Limited, the Pamlico Stopper, the Bayview Beacher, Sand Hill Blossom, Valdecan Vestibule, Tarhelium Mecca, and the Western Highlands De Luxe. Millions of dollars have been saved by saving coal tar. Millions more are ready if North Carolinians are not afraid of using Tarhelium.

Will the earth ever stop spinning? Until it does booms will always be in style. "Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their country"—and it is now on in North Carolina.

HOME OWNING BEST INVESTMENT

Washington, March 24.—Some light is thrown on the perennial question of whether it is cheaper to buy than to rent by some building cost figures compiled by the Alexander Hamilton Institute, says a bulletin of the research bureau of the National Lumber Manufacturers' association. According to these figures a duplex frame house may be built for as low as 27 cents a cubic foot, and the highest grade detached frame house can be built for 44 cents. High class apartments cost 77 cents a cubic foot; cheap ones, 42 cents.

It would appear from these figures that the investment in one's own house of the best quality would be only half as much as the sum on which he would have to pay interest in a high-grade apartment. In other words, it appears that a detached frame house of the best quality may be built for half the cost of an apartment suite. That would leave the home owner with the interest in his pocket on the other half and applicable to amortization of principal.

LAWYERS LECTURED BY JUDGE MEEKINS

Fayetteville, March 23.—A lack of courtesy to witnesses, litigants and the court, "waste of time and poor taste" shown in lachrymose pleas to the jury, the emphasizing of half-truths and inadequate preparation of their cases were some of the failings by which lawyers sometimes hinder the work of the courts and the administration of justice, said Judge Isaac M. Meekins in his charge to the grand jury at the opening of the United States district court here.

Judge Meekins did not intimate that all lawyers exhibit these shortcomings, but that they are encountered all too often. "The basic ground of every court is truth," he said, and the bringing out of only half-truths is a great hindrance to the dispensing of justice. As to the "lachrymose pleas," he said, "every man has a mother, and many of them have helpless children, which is no reason for exemption from punishment when they have committed a crime."

Night Coughing Relieved At Once

Why suffer continually from a persistent, weakening night cough when you can get almost instant relief, and usually break the cough completely in 24 hours by a new method based on the famous Dr. King's New Discovery? Here is the method. You simply take one teaspoonful and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it. It has a double action. It not only soothes and heals irritation, but also removes the phlegm and congestion which are the real cause of the coughing. As a result even the worst cough usually disappears quickly. Dr. King's New Discovery is for coughs, chest colds, bronchitis, spasmodic croup, etc. Fine for children, too—no harmful drugs. Very economical, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. At all good druggists. Ask for

GETS QUICK HELP FOR LUMBAGO

Back at work three days after simple home treatment

"Give me relief! Stop this agony!"—that's all you can think of when you're suffering with any acute pain.

And you can get relief—quickly and completely—with a very simple home treatment.

"I was in bed with lumbago," writes C. L. Normandy of St. Paul, Minnesota. "A friend told me about Sloan's Liniment, and after using it one day, I was able to walk around the house. After three days I was able to go to work, and now I'm as well as ever."

The reason that Sloan's Liniment gives such remarkable relief is that it gets right at the cause of the pain. It stimulates the circulation throughout the place where the pain is, and clears out the germs that are causing it.

Right away you feel relief. The pain stops, and soon you are fit as ever. Get a bottle today and have it on hand. All druggists—35 cents.
