

STATE NEWS BRIEFS

George Holmes, Jr., slayer of O. L. Robertson as he stood in front of a Burlington theater on the evening of January 17, was acquitted of murder by an Alamance county jury at Graham Saturday.

The annual meeting of the North Carolina State Sunday School convention will be held in Concord, April 10, 11 and 12. Among the speakers who will deliver addresses before the convention are Dr. Charles P. Wiles of Philadelphia; Miss Mabel Lee Cooper of New York Dr. Wade C. Barclay of Chicago, and Mrs. Elizabeth M. Mann of Philadelphia.

The United States senate has passed and sent to the house a bill to settle claims of the state of North Carolina against the federal government to the extent of $118,000. The claims, some of which date back to the War of 1812, had been approved and ruled valid by the treasury department. Senator Overman sponsored the bill.

Reidsville, March 3.—This week's term of court in Franklin county established a couple of records. In the Ercell Brogan patricide case, Judge Dillard president and three of his sons appeared as defense counsel. There was not one conviction in ten murder indictments. Six alleged slayers were set free on self defense, one was sent to the asylum and three were continued.

Greensboro, March 3.—The prize whiskey raiding of the year occurred in Wilkes county on Thursday when four United States agents bagged nine big stills, four of them on one branch, near Call and the others not far distant. On the following day they got four more to run the total up to 15. The agents poured out over 15,000 gallons of beer and 300 gallons of whiskey.

Raleigh, March 4.—Mineral resources are now being produced or have been mined in 82 of the 100 counties of North Carolina, a tabulation prepared by the division of mineral resources of the state department of conservation and development reveals. Preparation of the list of minerals that are known to be present in the various counties, because of present or previous workings, is a part of the efforts of the division to encourage and assist in the maximum development of the resources.

Sale of Land for Taxes

By order of the Board of County Commissioners, and by virtue of the power vested in me by law, I will on Monday, April 2, 1928, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 2 p. m., at the courthouse door in Boone, sell to the highest bidder for cash to satisfy taxes to the amount and for the years indicated, the lands of the following delinquent tax payers:

Table listing land parcels for sale, including names like Laws, Logan, Little, McNeal, Miller, Moretz, and various acreages and prices.

Table listing land parcels for sale, including names like Vannoy, Wainwright, Watauga Hospital, Wilson, Wilcox, Warren, Watkins, Coffey, Harrison, Grimes, Horton, Hepler, Mitchell, Whittington, Brown, Sullivan, Ragan, Johnson, Sherer, Reece, and various acreages and prices.

Father, mother and little Tommy were in the street car. Tommy and mother had secured seats, but poor father had to stand. Mother: "Tommy, doesn't it pain you to see your father reaching for a strap?" Tommy: "Only at home mother."

Willy's Point Father: Aren't you ashamed to be at the bottom in a class of 28 boys? Willy: It might be worse. Father: How could it be? Willy: Suppose there were 10 boys in the class?

It's fair enough. The woman without a fur coat suffers outdoors; the woman who has one suffers indoors.
