

WORTH WHILE CLUB

The Worth While Club met on Friday afternoon, March 30, at the home of Mrs. D. J. Cottrell. The occasion was one of great merriment from start to finish. The hostess having had in mind All Fool's Day when planning her program, had a great many surprises in store for her guests, each one bringing forth hearty laughter and keenest enjoyment.

An interesting contest was held in the form of questions to be answered by various kinds of foods. Two women worked together in this and three couples succeeded in answering all the questions correctly. After a drawing of straws, Mrs. Ed Qualls and Mrs. Charles Eller were declared the lucky winners and were each awarded a lovely yellow vase.

Mrs. Moretz presented a certificate received by her signifying that the Worth While Club had been elected a member of the General Federation of Women's Clubs of America, with headquarters in Washington City. The club has for sometime been a member of the State Federation.

Mr. Cottrell visited the club for a few minutes, and through a suggestion from him a committee was appointed to confer with one from the Civitan Club in the near future for the purpose of outlining plans to beautify the cemetery. Plans for the flower garden between the Methodist and Baptist churches were also discussed.

A delicious salad course, followed with mints, was served by the hostess. The guests of the afternoon were Miss Joy Beaman, Mrs. Floy Mast and Mrs. Carrickoff. The next meeting will be held on April 13 with Mrs. A. L. Cook.

ENTRE NOUS CLUB

A most enjoyable meeting of the Entre Nous Club and a few additional guests, was held with Mrs. James Mast on Friday afternoon, March 23. The hostess, it seemed, had received an inspiration from St. Patrick for her artistic decoration of the home and for her delightful arrangement of the program. The green and white color scheme was very effectively used with the shamrock motif appearing often.

When the guests had arrived a St. Patrick's day program was presented. A sketch of the life of St. Patrick was read by Mrs. Russell Hodges. Several Irish selections were played by Mrs. Fred Hodges, and a number of Irish jokes were given by Mrs. Sam Horton. A stunt performing game and two interesting contests were also enjoyed. The first was a snake contest, in which Mrs. Tracy Councill, a guest, was the winner, and was presented a lovely bottle of perfume. The second was an Irish romance in which "Pat" figured prominently. Mrs. Fred Hodges won and received a beautiful green silk handkerchief.

At the conclusion of the program, the guests were invited into the dining room which was lighted by tall green candles burning in Irish potato holders. The table cover doilies were white with Irish figures and shamrocks in blue, and the center decoration of the table was a miniature green well, symbolic of those at which St. Patrick quenched his thirst. The green and white mint baskets to which place cards were attached, were tied with white satin ribbon, extending into the well, which held favors for the guests.

Assisted by Mrs. N. L. Mast, the hostess served a delicious two-course luncheon.

Guests present other than club members, were Mrs. Tracy Councill, Mrs. David Greene and Miss Irene Sherwood.

Mrs. Will Payne will be hostess to the club at the next meeting, Friday, April 6.

LEGION AUXILIARY

The regular monthly business meeting of the Legion Auxiliary will be held in the Legion hall Friday night, April 6, at 7:30 o'clock. There are several things of importance which we are going to discuss, and it will be to the interest of all the ladies to be present.

Eternal Thoughts

The thoughts of God are eternal thoughts. They are independent of time, independent of worlds. You set your life today into the doing of the will of God. After you have set your life into that life, it need never be changed. Let change come, let death come, we pass on still doing God's business for ever and for ever.—Alexander Mackenzie.

The Lord's Aid

I tried to build without the Lord, and lo! a rumbled pile of bricks upon the ground! I turned, and built with the Lord, and lo! the walls rise fair and firm, and the sky is their roof and eternity is their foundation.—Amos R. Wells.

Finding the Sunny Side

He who climbs above the cares of this world and turns his face to his God has found the sunny side of life.—C. H. Spurgeon.

Mr. J. Hampton Rich of Winston-Salem was a visitor in the community for a few days last week. He presented a Daniel Boone marker to the school on Thursday. Each pupil is asked to contribute 10c in order that an appropriate monument may be built. The unveiling will be during commencement week.

A baseball team has been organized and the first game will be played with Mountain City high school. It will be necessary for the team to go to Mabel to practice due to the fact that there is no ground near the school.

Rev. L. A. Hurst who has been pastor at Cove Creek for the last two years tendered his resignation to take effect the first of May. Mr. Hurst has been faithful in his work as pastor and the church will lose much by his resignation.

Miss Grace Hurst and guest, Miss Acorn, students of Carson-Newman College, are spending the Easter holidays with Rev. and Mrs. L. A. Hurst.

Columbus, Kan., April 2.—Twenty-five years ago H. E. Wright purchased a 40-acre tract, selecting it because a hay mow was thrown in free according to the terms of the purchase.

He has received a million dollars in lead and zinc royalties from the 40 acres. He still owns them, but cannot use them for raising hay because on them are some of the best lead and zinc mines in Kansas.
