

Miss Nobody from Nowhere BY ELIZABETH JORDAN

EIGHTH INSTALLMENT

"After this comes we gotta be out there, settin' around in our car. The bunch there now is a bunch that come early, to see good tables. They know each other. It's when the sugar heels to wash up or two or three men comes together, that we get busy."

"Give us time, girls, give us time," cried the young man with a grin. "We're hungry, and we've got a pair of rabbits coming. But if we're able to make after the stuff you folks serve here, I'll take you to the center of the floor later on and make a May-pole of you."

"We only ordered for two, and I could eat them both," he plaintively observed. "We'll order two more." His friend had been watching Eve. "That move for me, too," he quietly said.

CAROLINIANS—Know Your State! COPYRIGHT 1930 BY BOYCE & RANKIN

The peanut belt of the State is in the Coastal Plain where truck farming is carried on extensively. It is here that the famed double cropping system is used, whereby two to four crops may be grown on the same land during a single year.

Table listing land parcels with owner names and acreage. Includes sections for PEANUTS, BLOWING ROCK TOWNSHIP, STONY FORK TOWNSHIP, MEAT CAMP TOWNSHIP, and NORTH FORK TOWNSHIP.

JULY 4th "SWING HIGH" Sale of Land for Taxes. By order of the Board of County Commissioners, and by virtue of the power vested in me by law, I will on Monday, July 7, 1930, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. sell to the highest bidder for cash to satisfy taxes for the amount indicated for the year 1929, the lands of the following delinquent taxpayers:

Confederate soldiers. They preferred them to parched meal and began to plant them extensively after the war. Among the numerous products derived from the peanut are synthetic rubber, 17 kinds of wood stains, dyes for cloth, axle grease, lard, inoleum, flour, breakfast foods, stock foods, soap, face powder and ink.

This 3rd day of June, 1930. L. M. FARTHING, Sheriff Watauga County.
