

National Speakers At Farm Convention

Prominent national orators, educators and statesmen will be featured at the annual North Carolina Farmers' Convention on July 21 to 28 at N. C. State College and a variety program has been arranged that gives promise of being the best in many years.

On the opening day, July 21st, Dr. Mary Martin Sloop of Crossnore, will address the convention on "Training Mountain Youth." She is founder of the Crossnore School, recognized to be outstanding in Western North Carolina.

Featuring the second day of the gathering, U. S. Senator Josiah W. Bailey will talk on "The Present Situation and Its Relation to Agriculture," followed by W. O. Saunders, editor of The Elizabeth City Independent, who will speak on "Making Game Birds Pay on N. C. Farms."

Navé E. Dury, representative from Onslow County and author of the famous "Dry State Tax Bill," will address the farmers on Tuesday evening on "A Policy of Forestry Conservation and Taxation for North Carolina.

Soil erosion has long been a problem for the North Carolina farmer. The Wednesday session will be given over to this topic with H. H. Bennett of the Bureau of Chemistry and Soils of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, talking on "Soil Erosion in Relation to N. C. Agriculture." This lecture will be preceded by Wheeler McMillen, editor of the Country Home of New York. He will speak on "Agriculture's Tomorrow."

On Thursday evening, July 29th, Son James C. Farmer, lecturer for the National Grange, will be the principal speaker. Of particular interest to farm women will be addresses from North Carolina's only two women legislators, Mrs. E. L. McKee, senator of Stokes, will speak on the Thursday morning program, and Mrs. Lily B. McFarne, representative from Rockingham County, will speak Thursday night.

Both Puller Hall and Riddick Hall will be equipped with loud-speakers during the entire session. Program Brothers' internationally known band will furnish entertainment for the convention.

Consider your Adam's Apple!!* Don't Rasp Your Throat With Harsh Irritants

With Harsh Irritants "Reach for a LUCKY instead"

Everyone has an Adam's Apple—Every man—every woman has one. Touch your Adam's Apple with your finger. You are actually touching your larynx—this is your voice box—it contains your vocal chords. When you consider your Adam's Apple, you are considering your throat—your vocal chords.

"TOASTING" expels certain harsh irritants present in all raw tobaccos. These expelled irritants are not present in your LUCKY STRIKE—the modern cigarette. We sell these expelled irritants to manufacturers of chemical compounds. Everyone knows that sunshine mellows—that's why the "TOASTING" Process includes the use of Ultra Violet Rays. LUCKY STRIKE—made of the finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—THEN—"IT'S TOASTED"—an extra, secret and exclusive heating process. It is this process that expels these harsh irritants. No wonder 20,679 American physicians have stated LUCKIES to be less irritating. No wonder LUCKIES are always kind to your throat. And so we say "Consider your Adam's Apple." Be careful in your choice of cigarettes.
