Lesson for July 16

DEBORAH

LESSON TEXT—Judges 4, 5. GOLDEN TEXT—God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Psalm 46-1.

PRIMARY TOPIC—God Helping Deborah. JUNIOR TOPIC—A Woman Courageous. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—An Inspiring Leader. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Leadership in Emergencies.

In order to teach this lesson intelligently, it is necessary that the teacher have a grasp of the book of Judges from which it is taken. In chapter 2:6-19 is given a synopsis of the book. Observe:

- a. The sin of the people (vv. 6-13). b. God's judgment for their sin (vv. 14, 15). c. Repentance of the people (3:9). d. God's deliverance at the hands of the judges (2:18-19).

A repetition of sin, oppression by the enemy, repentance on the part of the people, and God's deliverance, is the story of the book of Judges.

The book covers the period from the conquest of Canaan and death of Joshua to the judgeship of Samel. While Joshua and the elders of his generation lived the people in some measure remained faithful to God, but the very next generation went into apostasy.

- 1. The National Emergency (vv. 1-3). 2. The bondage of the people (v. 2). 3. The people cried unto God (v. 3). 4. Affliction brought them to their senses. 5. The Judgeship of Deborah (vv. 4-10).

The great national emergency which confronted the nation was met by a woman named Deborah. Her name means "bee." As suggested by another, she answered her name by her industry, energy, and public usefulness. This woman was called to the judgeship of the nation because there seems to have been no man capable.

- 1. The place where she judged Israel (v. 5). It was under a palm tree, showing that she held an open air court for the administration of justice.

2. Her method (vv. 6-10). a. Her summons to Barak (vv. 6, 7). Barak means "lightning." Deborah, being a prophetess, was able to select a man whose gifts would enable him to rally the forces needed to gain the victory over the formidable foe.

b. Barak's reply (v. 8). He expressed an unwillingness to go unless Deborah would go with him. This unwillingness should not be considered as weakness, for the presence of the prophetess would inspire courage.

c. Barak rebuked (vv. 9, 10). Deborah yielded to his request, but made it plain to him that it would detract from his honor as a conqueror, "for the Lord shall sell Sisera into the hand of a woman."

- III. The Defeat of Jabin's Army (vv. 11-16).

Sisera, the captain, gathered a mighty army and went forth, confident of victory over the ill-equipped, undisciplined army of Barak, but he made one sad mistake. He did not consider that it was the Lord's battle (v. 15). At the psychological moment Deborah gave the signal to charge, assuring Barak that the Lord had gone before and would give the victory (v. 14). Through supernatural interposition the enemy became panic-stricken (5:20).

- IV. Sisera Killed by a Woman (vv. 17-21).

In his flight he took refuge in Jael's tent. In the guise of friendship, she committed a most heinous murder after inviting him into her dwelling.

- V. The Song of Deborah and Barak (ch. 5).

This song was composed and sung in celebration of the marvelous victory which God had wrought. Deborah set forth in the most definite way that the secret of victory was the help of God. Praise is given to those who responded to the cry, and scorn is heaped upon those who remained behind.

All Barriers Down

All his life long Christ had been revealing his heart, through the narrow rift of deeds, like some slender, lance window; but in his death all the barriers are thrown down, and the brightness blazes out upon men.—Alexander MacLaren.

Scars of Sin

"Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven—thank God I can say that, but the scars of sin always keep me humble."—Bishop Linton.

Pastime Will Offer "Big-Time" Features

"Midnight Mary," powerful crook drama, brings a strong cast headed by Loretta Young, Ricardo Cortez, Franchot Tone, Andy Devine and Una Merkel into one Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production to be shown at the Pastime Theatre next Monday. It is a thrilling story of life in the upper strata of crookdom. Loretta Young is forced by circumstances to join a gang of crooks. Events move at lightning speed as the gang gets more ambitious in their operations. Miss Young falls in love with Tone, a successful young attorney. When the gangster leader decides to kill Tone the dramatic tension mounts to a terrific tense.

Edmund Lowe and Nancy Carroll play the leading roles in "I Love That Man," drama of a woman's devotion to a man she knows is a good deal less than trustworthy, which will be the feature at the Pastime on Tuesday. "The story centers around Lowe and Miss Carroll—a strange pair, bound together by a curious emotional tie. Lowe is a confidence man—a shrewd crook who finds no greater pleasure in life than separating a sucker from his money. Miss Carroll is a girl of good background, who knows the moment she meets Lowe, that he is the one man in the world she can love.

John Barrymore and Diana Wynyard are starred in "Reunion in Vienna," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's picturization of Robert E. Sherwood's smashing Broadway stage hit of last season. In the brand-new film, which comes to the Pastime on Wednesday, the 19th, Barrymore plays the role of the impulsive and irresistible Hansburg archduke, Rudolf, who returns to Vienna from exile to recapture the memory of kisses that lingered long after the royal reign toppled and the glory of the glamorous court life faded. And the irresistible Diana Wynyard, who immortalized herself in "Cavalcade," plays a role which will long be remembered by local theatergoers.

The first joint appearance in a talking film of Joan Crawford and Gary Cooper will be enjoyed Thursday at the local show-house in "Today We Live." Here is a picture that combines romance of a stirring order with a clean-cut, forceful story of the war with the emphasis laid on the part played by the commanders of the dangerous British two-man torpedo boats, known as the "sketcher fleet." Miss Crawford, who seems to grow more exciting in appearance with each succeeding vehicle, has a striking role as the aristocratic English girl who cannot stand remaining at home while her brother and the two men who love her are at the front. Cooper is cast as an aviator, and the climax of the great film is a series of dramatic heart-thrills.

"White Cargo," a tale of the African coast, will be the feature at the Pastime on Friday, the 21st. An all-star cast will be seen in this powerful drama which has had long runs on the legitimate stage of many nations.

Heralded as being the most lavish musical picture since the advent of talking pictures, Paramount's "College Humor" has its local premiere on Saturday, the 22nd, at the Pastime. Sixty pulchritudinous chorines, the Ox-Road Co-Eds, are featured in several original musical sequences, staged by Harold Hecht, famous dance director. The cast, top-heavy with stars, features Bing Crosby, Richard Arlen, Jack Oakie, Mary Carlisle, George Burns and Gracie Allen, Howard Jones (coach of Southern California football), Lona Andre and Mary Kornman.

The Catawba County Home farm has three acres of sweet clover that measures nine feet in height.

Speeds Business

It is action now in the U. S. industrial recovery program and the man of the hour is Gen. Hugh S. Johnson (above). This photo was taken as Gen. Johnson opened the hearings on industrial codes submitted by different industries.

age and the over-hanging surplus will be partially removed. This can result only in benefit to the grower.

For the housewife it means that additional money will be available for much needed labor-saving implements, for clothing and shoes for the children, for school books, better balanced food and other necessities.

Federal and state workers in charge of the reduction program urge the wives of farmers to take an active interest in the present campaign and promote it wherever the adoption of the plan seems wise under local and individual farm conditions. The success of the movement is assured only by the full co-operation of every single grower in the belt. Each grower has the right to share in the benefits offered and each grower who refuses to have a part in the movement is not only depriving his own family of a rightful share in these benefits but he is also making it difficult for the Agricultural Adjustment Administration to bring about better conditions on cotton farms of the entire South.

"This is one viewpoint that all of us should concern ourselves about," says Dean I. O. Schaub, of State College, in charge of the reduction program.

AUTO SALES SHOW LARGE INCREASE IN NORTH CAR.

Raleigh—New automobiles sold in North Carolina in June reached 2376 and 490 trucks as compared with 1429 cars and 286 trucks in June, 1932, and 2160 cars and 513 trucks in May of this year, Leland Harris, Motor Vehicle bureau chief, reports.

Total new automobiles sold so far this calendar year number 9626 and 2000 trucks, as compared with 7106 cars and 1736 trucks in the first six months of last year. This increase of 2520 cars and 264 trucks in six months is looked upon as a remarkable comeback in new motor vehicle sales in six months.

Chevrolets led last month with 1040 sales, Fords 472, Plymouths 370 and Pontiacs 124. Only one each of four big cars were sold, Franklin, LaSalle, Lincoln and Pierce-Arrow. Ford Cadillacs and five Packards and Auburns, but 36 little Austins found purchasers.

FARM HOME CONCERNED IN REDUCTION CAMPAIGN

It is not the farmer alone who is concerned with the success of the present plan to reduce the cotton acreage of the South. The entire household has an interest in whether the staple crop of the cotton belt is to be profitable or will continue to be an instrument of disaster to the grower and his family. The plan to pay straight cash rentals or option rentals to growers for removing a certain part of their acreage out of production means that the present crop will be reduced in acre-
