

Senator Reynolds to Aid Wets in Repeal Battle

Washington.—Senator Robert R. Reynolds will make a series of addresses for repeal in North Carolina before the State's referendum on November 7th.

The junior North Carolina Senator made this announcement in answer to charges that he had "run off to Europe," deserting the North Carolina repeal campaign.

Senator Reynolds, who was elected to the Senate on a "wet" platform, laughed at the charges, declaring that "I've made more speeches for repeal in North Carolina than any other man and everybody knows this."

Reynolds said he made a special study of liquor control systems in various countries during his European tour and concluded that prohibition in this country is "the father and mother of our tremendous crime wave."

WALTER J. CUMMINGS MAY SUCCEED SECRETARY WOODIN

Washington.—Walter J. Cummings, chairman of the board of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, is being picked by political observers in Washington as successor to Secretary of the Treasury William H. Woodin. Mr. Woodin is known to be planning to quit the cabinet before the winter season in order to spend the winter at his palatial home in Tucson, Ariz., which he built 12 years ago, on a ranch adjoining that of Harold Bell Wright, the author.

Mr. Cummings has for several months been the virtual head of the treasury department in his official capacity of executive assistant to the secretary, which he also holds in connection with his position as chairman of the corporation provided in the Glass-Steagall banking bill to insure deposits in national banks.

The advent of Mr. Cummings into Washington political life was as unostentatious as it was unopposed. For a quarter of a century he had been associated with Secretary Woodin in his vast interests such as the American Car and Foundry Company, Bell and company, and the like, being one of Mr. Woodin's chief aides in directing the destinies of Woodin's business affairs.

MORRISON NOT IN RUNNING FOR NATIONAL COMMITTEE

Charlotte.—Former Senator Cameron Morrison Monday removed himself as a possibility for national committeeman from North Carolina by issuing a statement saying he could not accept the post if it were tendered him.

Morrison's statement was issued in view of newspaper stories quoting his friends as saying they would favor his elevation to the post. He said he intended to spend his time and efforts in fighting against repeal of prohibition and therefore was not in a position to accept the national committeeman's post made vacant by the resignation of former Governor Max Gardner.

MOTHERS

Who can make a better world?
Trust Mothers of all lands.
Mothers, mothers, know your worth,
Raise your hearts to noblest strands!
Teach your children truest ways
That will last for all the days.
Future years now look to you
For the noble lives so due.
Lift a sweet and peaceful song
With a pure and luring tone,
And the world will bless your name
With the true and highest fame.
God and Heaven your worth shall know

And deserved blessings show!

CUTSHALL LIRES THE ARMY

Dear Friends:
I don't care how long I stay away and how far in China I may go; I won't forget old Boone, N. C. I hope to come back some time within six months to visit all my friends, but they won't see the same John Cutshall that used to be there. The U. S. army has already made a different man of me as I have gained 6 3-4 pounds in weight. It may be this Fort Bragg 3.2 did it, but anyway, something did it.

I go out for boxing, wrestling and any sport that comes up I take a part in it. We have beer parties and dances every Friday night, the U. S. Army band gives us plenty of music when we have a party. I sure do wish I could see some of my old Boone pals here.

If any of you fellows are going to join the army come to the 17th Field Artillery at Fort Bragg. It is the best outfit in the army and Fort Bragg is the best post in the U. S.

—JOHN E. CUTSHALL

EXPRESSION OF THANKS

From grateful hearts we wish to express our sincere appreciation to our friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness during the illness, death and burial of our beloved husband and father. We would also express appreciation for the many beautiful floral offerings and for every word of tender sympathy which came to ease our hearts in our dark hour.

Mrs. Hill Hagaman and Children.

Go to the ant, thou sluggard—and tell him that he's got to step in line with the blue eagle.—Ex.
