

FUTURE FARMERS OF COVE CREEK ENTERTAIN FATHERS

The annual Father and Son banquet, sponsored by the F. F. A. boys, was given Saturday night, April 14, at the Cove Creek High School.

The meeting was opened by the regular F. F. A. ceremony. The winners from the four classes contended to determine who should represent the chapter at the district meeting.

Horace Bingham represented the eighth grade with a well written and delivered speech on Rural Electrification. James Sherwood very ably represented the ninth grade with a speech on the Machine Age. Alfred

T. Adams represented the tenth grade. The eleventh grade was represented by Fleenor Hodges. Hodges won first place, Adams second, Bingham third, and Sherwood fourth. An F. F. A. song was sung while the judges were making a decision.

Rev. G. C. Graham then talked on the possibilities of the F. F. A. organization.

Joseph N. Banner, president of the chapter, followed with the presentation of a gift for Mr. Walker by the agricultural boys in appreciation of the work he has done. Mr. Walker made a short talk in return, thanking the boys for the present and encouraging them to work harder and attain higher grades in the future.

Everyone then went to the lunch room for refreshments. Rev. J. A. McKaughan returned thanks, and after the refreshments had been enjoyed the meeting was dismissed by the F. F. A. salute to the flag.—Reported
