Graham Announces Candidacy
In the love-feast in the Senate Friday night, in which laudatory speeches and goodfellowship abound and gifts are presented officials and employees, Lieutenant-Governor A. H. Graham announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Governor in the primary a year off. It was an unusual and thrilling incident. The House held its lovefeast Wednesday night. House and Senate again engaged in touching leavetaking just before adjournment while waiting for the enrolling office to present the last bills to be ratified. Governor Ehringhaus was seated by President Graham as the final gavel fell.

Failing in the last minute to concur in amendments, the House killed the workable tax foreclosure measure sponsored and desired by the Governor.

This session of 123 days fell some two weeks short of the 1933 session, and about three weeks shorter than the 1931 session. As usual, the last days were hectic and feverish, day and often night meetings being held. Bills of many kinds were introduced with hopes of rushing them through. Many died. So far, it is believed that no more foolish or tricky bills got by this time than the average, and probably even less.

Nebraska Farm Boy Wins the 4-H Championship.

OMAHA.—Ogdan Riddle, twenty, (above), of Bartley, Neb., is the national farm accounting champion of 4-H clubs. He kept a complete year record of production costs, income, expenditures, inventory and balance sheet of his father's 365 acre farm. He is an "Aggie" freshman. The award was $835.

The machinery act, the school machinery act, and the State-wide game law were among the last enacted. Copies of the two machinery bills will be sent to those interested. The game law leaves much in regulation to the board. A late resolution thanked R. E. Simpson, high Southern Railway official, for a bell and gavel each, both historic, presented the House and Senate.

During the session an unofficial count shows that 2159 bills and resolutions were introduced, of which 1,344 bills and 66 resolutions were ratified. About half of the measures were ratified last week, and many the last two days. Ratified during the week, of interest, are the following:
