Some watch their competitors' prices and sales so intently that they lose all perspective about their own business. From year ir they pick up buttons and pins from the ground while their broad-visioned brethren pick the mess plums from the trees Others spend their time consulting dull papers when they ought to be out meeting live persons thus actually learning what custemers do and do not like.

What a pity that more businessmen do not keep their heads up and view their business and business life with more perspective. Were this done what a happier and sounder business world this would be.

PIONEERING, NEW STYLE

(The New Yorker)

Now, at seedtime, we send our greetings to the colonists who out from their old homes in Minnesota to their new homes in the valley of Alaska. It is inspiring to find that there are still pioneers among us, seeking richer soil and freer skies. Of course, pioneering isn't quite the rigorous adventure it once was; instead of Indians en route, the settlers encountered measles. And when they reached their destination, they found that the Government had anticipated their arrival and that the CCC boys were already on the spot, building their homes for them. Pretty soft, really. In our economy of abundance, we even build a pioneer's house for him. He still has to button his own pants, but even they work with a zip-

Hickory

Hickory is a free of wide rauge and was formerly found in every state east of the Mississery and in several on the western size of the river. Now, after loudreds of years of use and abuse about 50 per cent is obtained from 10 of the principal producing states. There are more than 30 species of this wood, made up of true hick-ories and pecan hickories, but only about five or six are known commercially.

New Chevrolet Assembly Plant Opens in Baltimore

Governmental, state and civic officials joined with the principal executives of General Motors Corporation in the formal opening of the new 80,000-car-a-year Chevrolet assembly plant in Baltimore recently. The new plant (center) was dedicated with impressive ceremonies (lower left), and Chevrolet, Fisher Body and General Motors officials were guests of the Baltimore Association of Commerce at a formal banquet in the evening. W.E. Holler, vice-president and general sales manager of Chevrolet, is shown (standing) with Maryland's Governor, H. W. Nice, and Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., president of General Motors (upper left). M. E. Coyle, president and general manager of Chevrolet, is pictured in the upper right photo with Senator Millard Tydings (left) and Mayor H. W. Jackson, of Baltimore (right). Lower right shows the first motor car built in that city.
