

W. H. Norris Celebrates His Ninetieth Birthday

Mr. W. H. Norris, "Uncle Will" to his many friends, celebrated his ninetieth birthday last Sunday, August 25th, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. S. O. Stanbury, in East Boone.

A bountiful dinner was served to the following: Mr. W. H. Norris, the honor guest; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Norris and son, Kelsie, of Greensboro; Mr. and Mrs. Hamp Norris and children, Hattie Ray, Josephine and Aleene, of La Crosse, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred May, of La Crosse; Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Greene and daughter, Myrtle Lee; Mrs. Cora Norris and children, William Norris, Mrs. W. B. York and small son, W. B.; Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Stanbury and daughter, Helen; Clyde R. Greene, Mrs. Rosa Norris and Aunt Isolene Proffitt, all of Boone.

A number of friends called in the afternoon to congratulate "Uncle Will" upon having reached the ripe old age of ninety, and to wish for him many happy returns of the day. Despite his advanced age, "Uncle Will" enjoys fairly good health and has a keen interest in local and national affairs. One of Watauga's few remaining Confederate veterans, he often tells interesting stories of Civil War days.

Four generations were represented in "Uncle Will's" family. Three sons, E. M. Norris of Starbuck, Wash., J. T. Norris of Turner, Oregon, and Rev. J. L. Norris of La Crosse, Fla., were unable to be present.—Reported.

PARKER-WELBORN WEDDING

A quiet but impressive wedding ceremony was solemnized near Boone Saturday afternoon, August 24, when Miss Norma Wellborn, the attractive daughter of the late J. S. Wellborn, and Mrs. Wellborn of Deep Gap, became the bride of Glenn Parker of West Jefferson. Rev. W. C. Payne, pastor of the bride, officiated, using the ring ceremony.

The bride was dressed in brown crepe with accessories to match.

Mrs. Parker is a graduate of Boone High School and now holds a position with the Lady Fair Beauty Shop at West Jefferson. Mr. Parker is a son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Parker of West Jefferson and is a young business man of that city.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for Asheville, and other points in Tennessee and Virginia. Mr. and Mrs. Parker will make their home at West Jefferson.

Entertainments Feature Week at Valle Crucis

Among recent visitors in the Valley were Mrs. Charles Knoblauch and Miss Mae Strickland of Charleston, S. C.; Misses Wilhelmina Shull, Sue Taylor and Mabel Moretz, Mrs. Chas. Menzies, Jr., Messrs. Phil and William Mast, and Mr. and Mrs. Staley Garrison and Children, of Burlington.

One of the most unique affairs of the season was a dinner given at the home of Miss Gladys Taylor. The meal was cooked and served by the boys, dressed as chefs, waitresses and butlers. A cleverly arranged menu caused much merriment and an added feature of the occasion were some hulu-hulu dances given by the waitresses.

Misses Wilma Baird and Nancy Taylor entertained visitors in the Valley with a picnic at Grandfather rest camp at Foscoe recently.

Mrs. T. W. Taylor had as dinner guests on Friday night Miss Wilhelmina Shull, Mrs. E. P. Lund, Mrs. Lester Thornton and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mast.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Olsen delightfully entertained at a buffet supper last Sunday night in honor of Mr. William Mast's birthday. The table was decorated with a beautiful three-tier birthday cake, candles and mixed flowers. At the close of the meal humorous gifts were presented to Mr. Mast.

A stag dinner was given by Messrs. Clint Baird and Clint Mast to the visiting boys at the home of Mrs. T. W. Taylor.

Miss Laura and Ray Farthing entertained at a very enjoyable picnic for members of the younger set at Grandfather rest camp last Friday night.

Mr. Frank Baird is spending a few days with homefolks.

Dr. and Mrs. John Powers and children of Wallace, N. C., are visiting friends and relatives in the Valley.

Miss Miriam Glover underwent a tonsil operation at Grace Hospital recently. She is getting along nicely.

Mrs. Ralph Phillips and children, Carolyn and Nancy, and Minerva Manuels are visiting with Mr. Phillips' parents at Ingalls for a few days.

Miss Mollie Townsend has returned home after an extended visit to Philadelphia and New York.

Mrs. E. P. Lund, Mrs. C. R. Phillips, Misses Wilma Baird, Gladys and Nancy Taylor motored to Jefferson last Thursday and spent a most delightful day with Mr. and Mrs. Ira Tom Johnston. Other guests were Dr. and Mrs. R. O. Glenn.

Quite a number of people in the Valley attended the fish fry at the hatchery near Boone last Thursday night.

Rev. Mr. Butt left Monday for Washington and New York. While at Washington he will attend the College of Preachers. He expects to be gone a month.

Messrs. Phil and William Mast have returned to Boston and Burlington to resume their work.

Mr. Tom Taylor, who has been in Augusta for the past two years, arrived at his home to spend a few days.

Miss Frances Farthing spent the week-end with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Moore of Lenoir, who have spent the past year in Nashville where Mr. Moore received his Ph. D. degree, are visiting relatives in the Valley.

Miss Laura Farthing motored to Hickory Sunday with a party of friends from Banner Elk.

Mrs. E. P. Lund and children, Charlotte and Nancy, will leave Tuesday a. m. for their home in Somerville, N. J., after spending the summer at the home of the D. F. Masts.

WILLOW VALLEY COMMUNITY CLUB REPORTS MEETINGS

Mrs. D. M. Edmiston and Carl Greene were joint hostesses to the Willow Valley Community Club at its June meeting. After a short business session, the club prepared and served a formal dinner in Mrs. Edmiston's lovely dining room. Miss Annie Dougherty gave a very instructive lesson on serving correctly.

The July meeting was held at the home of Mrs. J. Y. Walker, Mrs. O. J. Phillips and Mrs. Walker were joint hostesses. Club projects were discussed fully, and Miss Dougherty gave an interesting lecture on deserts. Mrs. Henry Reece of Booneville was a welcome guest. A snappy contest was rendered, delicious refreshments served, and the usual social hour enjoyed.

Mrs. Fred Greene was hostess to the club at its August meeting. The club studied and discussed many phases of canning. Miss Dougherty, the president, gave much valuable information, also much helpful literature on the subject. Mrs. Greene was given a surprise "going-away" shower. Lovely party places were served. The club will hold its September meeting with Mrs. George Harmon.

Welding
... the best way to make a perfect union of two pieces of metal is by welding them together.

... and the best way to get a more pleasing flavor and a better taste in a cigarette is by welding together the different types of tobacco . . .

That is just what we do in making CHESTERFIELD Cigarettes—the three types of mild ripe home-grown tobaccos, that is tobaccos grown in this country, are welded together. Then they are welded with aromatic Turkish.

When these tobaccos are welded together you get a combined flavor which is entirely different from any one type of tobacco.

It is this welding of the right amounts of the right kind of tobaccos that makes CHESTERFIELD a milder and better-tasting cigarette.
