

LOCAL AFFAIRS

Mr. George Cook of Sugar Grove was a visitor in town Monday.

Miss Martha Hardin has gone to Charlotte where she will take training as a nurse at Mercy Hospital.

Misses Daisy and Nanah Lyons visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lyons of Newland, returning home Sunday.

Mr. Lloyd Coleman, who is attached to the CCC camps at Bakersville, spent the week-end with his family in Boone.

Miss Edna Holtzclaw of Roseland, Fla., is spending a few weeks with friends in the community and the county.

Mrs. E. C. Benson and daughter, little Miss Clydie Lee, of Durham, are visiting Mrs. Benson's sister, Mrs. C. W. Teal, in Boone.

Miss Catherine Moore of Florence, S. C., has returned to her home after spending several weeks with her aunt, Mrs. C. W. Teal.

Misses Ruth and Lucille Henson of Bluff City, Tenn., have been visiting the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith, Vilas.

Dr. M. L. Matthews of Sanford is spending a few days at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Frank M. Payne. He is accompanied by a son, John Matthews.

Married at the home of Justice E. N. Hahn Saturday evening, Miss Jessie Hollifield to Mr. Blain Phillips, both of Blowing Rock. Mr. Hahn performed the ceremony.

Rev. Walter Greene is again back at the service station, near the western end of the pavement, and is rendering the motorists his usual efficient and friendly service.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ingle of Lenoir spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. John Conway. Mrs. Conway's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Spencer of Lenoir, are spending the week at her home.

Mr. Alvin J. Cole of Boone Route 2 was a visitor to The Democrat on Friday, and exhibited a bunch of fodder grass taken from his meadow which was eight feet tall.

Mrs. Mary Harris of Amanda was a caller at The Democrat office on Thursday evening and left with the editor a yellow onion weighing one pound.

Mr. W. H. Greer of Bristol, Va., is spending a few days with relatives in the county. Mr. Greer is a native Watauga, but has lived in Virginia for six years.

Dr. Hugh Watson of New York is spending two weeks visiting with his mother, Mrs. Minnie Watson, of Route 1, and with other near relatives in the community.

Mr. Paul Leonard, secretary of the North Carolina Fair Tax Association, was in town Tuesday and Wednesday, looking after the interests of his organization and mingling with friends in the community.

Mr. Vernon Brown, Mrs. Brown and her brother, Mr. Rush Brinkley, of Elk Park, left Monday for Los Angeles, where Mr. Brown has secured employment. They expect to reside there indefinitely.

Mr. and Mrs. Odes Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Don Perry and son, Carson, left Tuesday morning for a ten-day visit with relatives and friends in Washington, D. C., Bel Air, Maryland, and Philadelphia, Pa.

Mr. Alfred T. Adams of Zionville leaves today for Mars Hill, where he will enter college. He is accompanied by his mother, Mrs. T. P. Adams, and sister, Miss Annie Adams, who will remain with him during the college year.

Mrs. W. H. Gragg returned Monday from Shelby, N. C., where she had spent several days as the guest of her son, Horton Gragg. While in Shelby Mrs. Gragg also visited with Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Ellis in their handsome new home.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ira Edmisten at Hagaman Clinic on Sunday, a daughter, Mr. Edmisten, whose oldest son is twenty years old, is a mighty happy fellow, for he says "there hasn't been a new one around my place in over seven years."

Rev. J. A. McKaughan, former pastor of the Cove Creek Baptist Church, was in the county last week for the Association. Mr. McKaughan is now located at Raleigh, where he is field representative for the United Dry Forces.

Mr. Brantley Duncan auditor for the Federal Division of Personnel, Washington, D. C., spent the first of the week in town, and left on his return Tuesday. Mrs. Duncan and the children accompanied him and they will make their home in the capital city.

Mr. Frank Edmisten of Blowing Rock visited pleasantly with The Democrat Wednesday, renewed his subscription and that of his daughter, Mrs. Dan Johnson, at Mountain City. Mr. Edmisten, who has been marketing his own produce this fall, states that he finds an improvement in business, that the prices he is receiving are fair and that wholesalers speak optimistically of the produce business later on in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kirkman and children left Tuesday of last week for Yadkinville where they will spend the winter. A daughter, Miss Eva Kirkman, who is employed by the Beik-White Company, will remain here. Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Matheson of Beaver Dam will occupy the Kirkman home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Harris returned Friday from Boston and Woburn, Mass., where they visited relatives. On the way home they spent three days in New York where Mr. Harris purchased goods for the Spainhour stores, and a stop for a couple of days was also made in Washington City.

Miss Billie Todd Hostess to Friday Afternoon Club.

One of the most delightful occasions of the season was the club meeting with Miss Billie Todd, on August 23, at her home in Jefferson.

The hostess, in her charming manner, received the guests on the porch of her lovely home.

After a pleasant time of conversation, the guests were invited into the dining room, where the hostess, assisted by her sisters, Miss Jennie Todd and Mrs. W. M. Transou, served a delicious salad plate, followed by sweets.

Special guests were Miss Clyde Calloway of New Mexico; Miss Nancy Lewis, Boone, and Mrs. W. M. Transou, of Greensboro.

Mrs. J. D. Council will entertain the club on Friday, September 6th, at her home in Boone.

Mrs. Dean Bingham Hostess to Maids and Matrons Club.

Mrs. Dean Bingham entertained members of the Maids and Matrons Club and a number of other friends on Friday evening at the Caro-Jean Inn. Fall flowers in shades of yellow provided a setting for five tables of contrast. High score prize for club members was won by Mrs. David F. Greene, high score for guests by Mrs. D. S. Hollifield, and a gift was also presented to Mrs. Gordon Winkler, a recent bride.

A party plate carrying out the color note of yellow was served to the following guests: Mrs. B. F. Williams, Mrs. Paul Coffey, Mrs. Douglas Redmond, Mrs. A. R. Smith, Miss Erie Greer, Mrs. David F. Greene, Mrs. D. S. Hollifield, Mrs. Kay Boatright, Mrs. Baxter M. Linney, Mrs. Coker Triplett, Mrs. John Hodges Jr., Mrs. Ralph Winkler, Mrs. Stewart Winkler, Mrs. D. I. Whitener, Mrs. W. C. Black, Mrs. R. D. Hodges, Mrs. Gordon Winkler, Miss Mabel Nichols, Mrs. J. E. Holshouser, Mrs. Ernest Moore, and Mrs. R. H. DeVault.

Robert Lovill Entertains Etude Music Club.

The Etude Music Club was entertained by Robert Lovill last Tuesday afternoon at a picnic in American Legion Park. After playing games, wieners and marshmallows were roasted over a campfire, and ice cream and lemonade were served to the members, and Mrs. W. R. Lovill and Peggy Lovill.

An interesting feature of the meeting was exhibiting the picture of the club members which is published in the Etude Music Magazine for September.

Last month the club met with Cleo Greene, and after an interesting program, attractive refreshments were served.

The next meeting will be with Master James Norris at his home in Perkinville.

Livingstone Club Meets With Mrs. Hooper Hendrix.

The September meeting of the Livingstone Club was held Monday night with Mrs. Hooper Hendrix.

The program, in charge of Mrs. Council Cooke, was as follows: Prayer, Mrs. Jim Council; song by club, "More About Jesus"; Scripture reading, Matthew, 5th chapter; topic for discussion, "Hospitals in Korea"; this was discussed by Mrs. Joe Crawford and Mrs. Grady Farthing; Life of Jane Adams, by Mrs. Fred Aldridge.

After the program the president took charge and new and old business was discussed. The class voted to help the Alice Stanbury Circle with a rummage sale. The club meets in October with Mrs. J. A. Mullins, with Mrs. Paul Coffey in charge of the program.

North Carolina farmers are showing a great deal of interest in the soil erosion control program in connection with the CCC camps.

CLASS RINGS!

See our complete line of High School rings before you buy. Our representative will visit your school soon.

BERMAR JEWELER
Boone, N. C.

Special Bargain Matinee, 10c, 15c

Night Shows, 10c and 25c. NIGHT SHOWS, 7:30 & 9:00. MATINEES AT 2:30 & 4:00.

Union Singers Assist At Forest Grove Church

On Sunday afternoon Mr. Johnny Oliver and his son, Luther Oliver, and Mr. J. M. Burkett, of Union Singing Class were kind enough to lend Forest Grove a helping hand with their new 1936 song books. It is generally believed that Mr. Oliver has the honor of being the best singing teacher in Western North Carolina. So his assistance is appreciated any time. These singers were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Isaacs.

Mr. and Mrs. John Norris and children, Annie and Council Norris, of Howard's Creek, spent the week-end with Mr. Norris' sister, Mrs. Scott Norris, here.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Eggers and son, Morris, were community visitors Sunday.

Mr. Russell Warren of Beech Creek visited relatives here the past week.

Mr. A. G. Storie, son, Carol D. Storie, and granddaughter, Dare Storie, of Lynn, were community visitors over Sunday.

Miss Rosie Hodges of Boone spent the week-end with homefolks.

Students of this community are glad that those good old school days are back again. Quite a few of our students are attending Bethel High School by bus.

Miss Easie Henson of Cove Creek who has been ill for some time, has recently been transferred to her brother's home, Mr. Dock Henson, for the purpose of being in a quieter location.

WILLIAM TRIPLETT DIES

Mr. William Triplett, 73 years old, died at his home in the Mount Vernon section Wednesday from the effects of a paralytic stroke.

Funeral services were conducted on Thursday at the Hampton graveyard and the body was interred there. Rev. R. C. Eggers, pastor of the deceased preached the sermon.

Mr. Triplett was well known and highly respected in his neighborhood where he had been a member of the Baptist Church for 53 years. Especial mention was made at his funeral of his fondness for little children and he had reared one orphan child.

The widow is the only immediate survivor.

MRS. FRANCIS MILLER

Mrs. Francis Miller died at her home near the head of Meat Camp Creek last Wednesday evening at the age of 80 years 9 months and 76 days. Early in life she became a member of the Lutheran Church and remained faithful to her vows until death called her to join the Church Triumphant.

Her husband, William Austin Miller, preceded her in death in 1899. She is survived by six children, sixty grandchildren, sixty great-grandchildren.

BAPTIST CHURCH
Sunday, September 8th

Sunday School at 9:15 a. m.; 11 a. m., worship and sermon by the pastor; 6:30 p. m., Baptist Training Union; 7:30, worship and sermon, subject, "Why Does God Allow Suffering in This World?"

Note the change in Sunday evening worship hour, 7:30 instead of 8 p. m. The pastor and family were recent dinner guests in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dotson, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Winkler. The pastor was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Council recently.

Miss Marian Beach and Miss Ethel Wilson are still in the hospital. We are expecting and praying that they may be home soon.

J. C. CANIPE, Pastor.

SANDS COMMUNITY CLUB

The Sandy Community Club met at its club house on Friday, the 30th. The meeting was called to order by the president; a short Scripture lesson was read by Mrs. D. L. Setzer; prayer by Mrs. Dacus; Bible story by Mrs. C. G. Hodges; poems were read by Mrs. Herbert Jones, Mrs. D. W. Cooke and Mrs. V. J. Honeycutt. Different subjects were discussed on home furnishings. Mrs. A. E. Hodges served a picnic dinner to the following members: Mrs. C. G. Hodges, Mrs. B. B. Greene, Mrs. V. J. Honeycutt, Mrs. D. L. Setzer, Mrs. Jones Barnes, Mrs. Dacus, Mrs. D. W. Cooke, Mrs. Grace Hodges, Mrs. Herbert Jones, and Grace Setzer.

The next meeting will be held on September 12th.

VILAS NEWS

Miss Martha Purcell of Maxton, N. C., is visiting relatives in the community.

Misses Ruth and Lucille, daughters of Mr. Coy Henson, Bluff City, Tenn., were week-end visitors in the community.

Mr. Vaught Mast, Mrs. J. L. Reese, Mrs. Carl Henson, Mrs. Clint Mast and Mrs. Tom Lawrence are attending an institute for adult education at Raleigh.

After visiting relatives for two weeks, Mr. John Henry Brinkley, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Henson and son, Kent, have returned to their home in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. W. W. Holtzclaw and daughters, Misses Edna and Hazel Holtzclaw, have returned to their home in Florida.

Rev. W. R. Davis will preach at Willowdale Baptist Church next Sunday.

LEADING BRANDS BEER and Ale 15c

SANDWICHES, SOFT DRINKS, ETC.

THE BLUE MOON SANDWICH SHOP
BLOWING ROCK ROAD

Camels don't get your Wind

ATHLETES SAY

1. I SMOKE CAMELS BECAUSE THEY ARE SO MILD THAT IN ALL THESE YEARS THEY HAVE NEVER AFFECTED MY ENDURANCE OR INTERFERED WITH MY WIND

2. I TOO CAN SMOKE CAMELS AS CONSTANTLY AS I LIKE. CAMELS LEAVE MY THROAT COMFORTABLE AND COOL AND I GET A 'LIFT' WITH A CAMEL

SO MILD YOU CAN SMOKE ALL YOU WANT

BILL MILLER
Champion Sculler

NEWS CAMERAMAN
Herbert McGory

CAMELS Costlier Tobaccos!

PASTIME THEATRE
BOONE, N. C.
"PLACE OF GOOD SHOWS"

Program for Week Of September 9th:

MONDAY, SEPT 9
WE'RE IN THE MONEY
with Joan Blondell & Glenda Farrell

TUESDAY, SEPT. 10
Woman Wanted
with Maureen O'Sullivan and Joel McCrea

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 11
The Girl Friend
with Ann Sothern and Jack Haley

THURSDAY, SEPT. 12
ANN KARENINA
with GRETA GARBO and Frederic March

FRIDAY, SEPT. 13
Bonnie Scotland
with Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy

SATURDAY, SEPT. 14
The Brand of Hate
with BOB STEELE

Men's Chatham Homespun SUITS

In the best fall colors . . . blues, browns, greys. All the new models to select from, priced..... $28.95

MEN'S SUITS

Well tailored of all wool fabrics for both the younger and older men priced $16.95

LADIES' DRESS SHOES

New suedes, calf and kid leathers, in black and brown. Many snappy styles to select from. Priced from—
$1.98 $2.98
$3.98 up
WIDTHS AA to C

SPORT OXFORDS

These are oxfords that will give you excellent service. A good selection of the newest patterns to choose from. Blacks and browns. Priced—
$1.98 $2.98
$3.98
WIDTHS AA to C

WOMEN'S NEW FELT HATS

A shipment just received, which speak style, quality and value. Priced 97c $1.98 $2.49

WOMEN'S CAPE LEATHER GLOVES

An excellent value. Plain slip-on styles in black and brown. Priced only 97c

NEWEST STYLE TRENDS
In FOOTWEAR
for MEN and WOMEN

SPAINHOURS', Inc.
"Boone's Shopping Center"