Lesson for June 7

JESUS IN GETHSEMANE

LESSON TEXT—Luke 22:39-53. GOLDEN TEXT—Not my will, but thine, be done—Luke 22:42. PRIMARY TOPIC—When Jesus Prayed in the Garden. JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus in Gethsemane. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Jesus Christ. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Doing the Father's Will.

Jesus went from the upper room, where the last supper was eaten, to the Garden of Gethsemane. Night had now fallen.

I. Jesus at the Mount of Olives (v. 39).

The garden was a favorite resort of Jesus and his disciples on the slope of the Mount of Olives, a short distance east of Jerusalem (Matt. 26: 30). Gethsemane means "oil press," and the garden was a place where the oil was crushed out of olives. There is a striking significance in Jesus' coming to this place. Olive oil was precious, being used both for food and lighting. The bruising and crushing of Christ in this garden has yielded the largest blessings to the world—food for the souls of men, and light for their lives.

II. His Companions (vv. 39, 40).

Peter, James, and John, who had been with him on the Mount of Transfiguration, were permitted to go with him into the deep shadows of the garden (Matt. 26:37). He took those who were best able to apprehend the meaning of the tragic hour, and, too, as a human being he craved sympathy. Knowing the peculiar trial that would be theirs when the Shepherd should be smitten, his purpose was to prepare them for it. It was well that they taste the bitter cup of which he drank, and of which they, too, would later drink.

III. Jesus in Prayer (vv. 41-44).

1. Withdrawal from the disciples (v. 41). Even the members of the inner circle could not go with him through this hour. He went apart from them, for he must be alone with his Father in this darkest hour. Thus alone he knelt and prayed.

2. What he said (v. 42). "If thou be willing, remove this cup from me." The cup did not primarily mean the physical sufferings of the cross, though they were exceeding great. He did not now desire to escape from the cross and thus to stop short of his redemptive work, for this was the supreme purpose of his coming into the world (Heb. 2:14). Rather it was the revulsion of his holy nature from the burden of sin which he was representatively to bear when the cross was placed upon him. He, indeed, was to be made sin for us who knew no sin (II Cor. 5:21). He was so completely identified with a sinning race that the judgment of a holy God which rightfully would have fallen upon it, was about to strike him.

The cup, therefore, meant his death as the bearer of sin. He came to Gethsemane with a full knowledge of what it meant, and here he bowed in submission to the Father's will. The agony of this hour drew from his brow as it were great drops of blood, but an angel came and strengthened him, and from that place of victory he went with unflinching steps to the cross.

IV. The Sleeping Disciples (vv. 45, 46).

Though they had boasted of their fidelity (Matt. 26:35), they could not watch with him one hour. They were so numbed by perplexities and sorrow that they slept, and could not watch with Jesus one little hour.

V. Jesus Betrayed (vv. 47, 48).

1. The betrayer (v. 47) was Judas, who had been at the last supper with Jesus; who had journeyed up and down the land with the Lord and his disciples. The fact that he had listened to Jesus' teachings, had witnessed his miracles, had been with him in seasons of prayer (John 18:2), intensified the horror of his deed.

2. The sign of betrayal (v. 47) was a kiss, the age-long token of most tender affection and friendship. The betrayer now degraded that symbol of love by making it the instrument of disloyalty and treason.

3. The words that Jesus spoke (v. 48) to the infamous disciple reveal the infinite tenderness of his heart. But so hardened was the heart of the betrayer that he carried through his brutal contract to deliver the Redeemer of men for thirty pieces of silver. The money was in his purse:

Cove Creek News

Last Friday about 75 members of the Cove Creek Baptist Church met on the church grounds for the purpose of cleaning the church and putting the roof on the pastor's home which is now under construction. Dinner was served and a large amount of valuable work was done. The brick will be laid this week on the parsonage. All bills have been paid thus far and it is expected to be completed without debt.

The WPA organization is starting three new projects for the community this week. A music project with Miss Blanche Blair of Boone, in charge, began Monday. Miss Blair requests all children to meet classes from 10:00 to 12:00 each Monday morning, young people to meet 1:45 to 3:00 and adults to meet from 3:00 to 5:00.

Mrs. Chas. Fletcher will be in charge of the sewing project. Women of the community are urged to bring their sewing problems to her on Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

Mrs. Grace Sherwood Bingham will be in charge of the Reading Room project. The reading room will be open Monday, Wednesday and Thursday of each week. People of the community are requested to send in magazines, books and reading material. The high school library will be accessible to those who want to rent books.

We are glad to have back in the community a number of young people who have been in college or teaching during the last year. Miss Annie Sherwood who teaches in Salisbury, Miss Theima Perry who teaches in Morganton, Miss Earl Payne from Blowing Rock, are home for a few weeks. Stanley A. Haris Jr., Alfred, Annie Adams and Paul Tugman are back from Mars Hill College; Ruby Johnson, Ruth Sherwood, Louise Johnson, and Kate Henson, are home from the Appalacian State Teachers College at Boone.

Rev. P. D. Fletcher has been right sick for several days. He was able to meet his appointment on Sunday, however.

Quite a number of people attended the memorial service in Boone Sunday afternoon. All ex-service men's graves were decorated after the service.

An amateur contest conducted by Paul Weston, famous radio star will be held in the Cove Creek auditorium next Saturday night, June 6 at 7:30 o'clock. A $5.00 cash prize will be given the winner of the contest. Everyone is invited to participate, singers, banjo pickers, guitar players, fiddlers, piano players, and any other features. The winner will be decided by public applause. Admission will be 15 and 25 cents.

FURNITURE

Not later than Monday, June 1st, we will have another big supply of Bargains.

We invite you to investigate quality and price. It don't cost anything to look and not much to buy.

Yours to Serve,

He must not weaken. The deed was done.

Shall not those who study this lesson inquire with deep earnestness if anything in their lives may be serving as a practical betrayal of Christ?

Good Deeds

"For every good deed of ours, the world will be better always. And perhaps no day does a man walk down a street cheerfully, and like a child of God, without some passengers being brightened by his face, and unknowingly to himself, catching from it a something of religion."

A Man's Acts

Man should be ever better than he seem; and shape his acts, and discipline his mind, to walk adorning earth, with hope in heaven.—Aubrey de Vere

Nebraska Has G.O.P. Presidential Dark Horse

WASHINGTON—John R. McCarl, Comptroller General of the United States, will be eligible as a Republican presidential candidate after June 30th, when his 15 year term expires, a fact which has started discussion here of the Nebraskan's chances to gain the nomination if the Republican convention gets into a deadlock and a "dark horse" walks off with the prize.

Question: How much grain mixture should be fed when cows are on pasture?

Answer: This depends, to a great extent, upon the individual production, but where a cow is producing more than seventeen pounds of milk a day, one pound of grain for each five to seven pounds of milk produced will be sufficient. This amount, in addition to the pasture will usually maintain the animal in good flesh and permit maximum milk production. An average cow eats enough grass in a day to maintain her body and produce about two gallons of milk. If she is capable of producing more milk, the grass must be supplemented with the grain mixture in such quantity as to secure the maximum production.
