Lesson for June 28

REVIEW: JESUS MEETING HUMAN NEEDS

GOLDEN TEXT—Jesus of Nazareth went about doing good.—Acts 10:38.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Our Best Friend.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Because He Lives.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Jesus Meeting My Needs.
YOUTH PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Jesus Meeting the World's Needs.

The lessons of the quarter center in one supreme person and have one transcendent theme, Jesus Christ the world's Savior. The best method of review for senior and adult classes will be to refresh the mind with the principal facts and leading teachings of each lesson. The following suggestions are offered:

Lesson for April 5.
The great supper represents God's gracious provision of salvation for mankind. The urgent invitation is extended to all to accept Jesus Christ as Savior. The making of excuses illustrates the sin and folly of men in rejecting God's free grace.

Lesson for April 12.
The resurrection of Jesus Christ is the supreme proof of the deity of Jesus Christ. The empty tomb is the divine guarantee that Christ was what he claimed to be, and that his offering on Calvary's cross was accepted by God.

Lesson for April 19.
The center of interest in this parable is not the prodigal son or his brother, but a certain man who had two sons. He who fails to see the heart of our Father God will miss the purpose of the parable. The whole of revelation as it pertains to a sinning race and a pardoning God is swept before us in this narrative.

Lesson for April 26.
The story of the rich man and Lazarus gives us a look into two worlds. In this world the rich man lived in luxury while Lazarus begged at his door. In the other world, their positions are reversed. Death is coming to rich and poor. Worldly conditions are not a test of man's relationship to God. The rich man did not go to hell because he was rich, neither did Lazarus go to heaven because he was poor.

Lesson for May 3.
Forgiveness is a Christian obligation. Humility is a Christian quality. Gratitude is an uncommon grace. The nine lepers who were healed failed to express gratitude to the healer.

Lesson for May 10.
Prayer is an obligation on the part of the believer. Spiritual growth is absolutely impossible without it. Men should pray under all circumstances.

Lesson for May 17.
Zacchaeus brushed aside all difficulties in order to see Jesus. He proved the reality of his conversion by making restitution. He was saved instantly upon receiving Jesus Christ. Salvation is a present reality to those who believe on Jesus Christ.

Lesson for May 24.
Jesus warned against the scribes. They claimed to be loyal to the Word of God yet showed their lack of the saving grace of God. In connection with his teaching in the temple, Jesus prophesied of his return and warned against unpreparedness as to his coming.

Lesson for May 31.
The last meal that Jesus ate with his disciples was the passover, the memorial of the national deliverance which pointed to the supreme deliverance to be effected by Christ on the cross of Calvary. In connection with the passover, the feast of the new covenant was instituted. This feast has a double import, looking backward to the great deliverance wrought through Christ's atoning death and forward to the even greater deliverance which he shall accomplish at his second coming.

Lesson for June 7.
Jesus' indescribable agony in the garden shows what it cost the sinless Son of God to identify himself with the sinning race, when in anguish he sweat as it were great drops of blood.

Lesson for June 14.
The crucifixion of Jesus Christ was the greatest tragedy of all history. May the fact of the sinless Son of God suffering for a sinning race, move all sinners to accept salvation at his hand.

Lesson for June 21.
Jesus, having given the disciples the parting message to evangelize the world, ascended into heaven. May these last words of our Lord be received by us as our supreme obligation

LONDONER IS CHARGED FOR STAYING IN JAIL

London.—A man decided at Bristol police court that he would rather go to prison for a month than pay $75. He is going to prison—but he will be charged for his keep. This is permissible under the vagrancy act. No one in court knew how much a "paying guest" at the prison should be charged. It is understood that the prison authorities were unable to disclose any figure.

The man, Roland Bradley, aged 50, was summoned for failing to maintain his wife and three children. Bradley had $85 in his possession. The chairman asked him whether he would hand over $75 if he were discharged.

Bradley pondered and declined the offer. So the chairman announced that Bradley would be jailed at his own expense.

to take the gospel to every creature. The lessons of the entire quarter have been rich in teaching material. A faithful presentation of the Bible messages given should mean conversion for some and growth in grace for many.

Pray Continually

Accustom yourself gradually to carry prayer into all your daily occupations. Speak, move, work, in peace, as if you were in prayer, as indeed you ought to be. Do everything without excitement, by the spirit of grace.—Fenelon.

Great Designs

Great designs are not accomplished without enthusiasm of some sort. It is the inspiration of everything great. Without it no man is to be feared, and with it none despised.—Bovee.

OLD CUSTOM OF PUTTING VEIL ON BRIDE USED BY ANCIENTS, FOIL DEMONS

The ancient custom of veiling a bride was once a trick to mislead mischievous demons.

Thus Prof. Ludwig Deubner, of the Berlin University, explains bridal veils, which in ancient times were more enveloping and mysterious than the airy veil of modern June brides.

Fear of demons, it appears, plagued the ancient Greeks in a fashion reminiscent of the fairy-tale fear of the wicked fairy who always turned up for trouble at weddings and christenings.

Describing lengths to which wedding parties would go to foil demons Professor Deubner said that brides in Sparta were dressed in men's clothing. The Spartan maid, dressed like a man and with her hair shorn, was shut up in a dark room to await her bridegroom's arrival and dramatic rescue.

Other ancient peoples tried other confusing practices. On the island of Kos, near Asia Minor, it was the bridegroom who dressed up. He wore women's clothes.

Professor Deubner finds evidence that Greek marriage customs are related to customs of other Indo-Germanic Aryan peoples, and some can still be found surviving in parts of Greece.

Describing ancient Greek weddings Professor Deubner stated that as marriages were arranged by the parents, the couple-to-be were not consulted and often became acquainted only after they were wed.

The popular month for weddings corresponded to late January and early February in our calendar. The bride sacrificed her hair, her girdle, and her toys at the altar of Artemis. Corresponding to a modern church wedding, was a sacrifice rite to the goddess Hera. During the wedding banquet the bridegroom removed the bride's veil. Wedding gifts went by a name meaning unveiling, because they were received after the removal of the veil.

Guests accompanied the couple to their home and threw old shoes to ward off evil. The bridegroom lifted his bride from the cart in which they rode, and she—like ancient German brides—walked thrice around the hearth-fire in token of her entrance to a new family.

Instead of the modern rice-throwing rite, the ancient equivalent was to toss fruits and coins while the bride circled the hearth-fire of her new home.

TIMELY FARM QUESTIONS

Question: Is it economical to carry pullets to the hen year for production purposes only?

Answer: This question naturally reverts back to the breeding of the birds. Heavy producing pullets of good breeding can be carried over.

but all except the known heavy producers should be replaced by pullets. As a usual thing, hen year production is about 25 per cent. less than that of the pullet year and the bird must also be fed through a three month moulting period which makes it unprofitable to carry any but the heavy egg producers to the hen year.

Question: When should I begin feeding grain to my young calves?

Answer: Small amounts of both grain and hay should be offered the calf at about two weeks of age or when the change from whole milk to skim-milk is made. Only a small handful is given daily, but this amount can be gradually increased as the calf grows older until it is receiving around three pounds a day at six months of age. Feed only as much as the calf will clean up. The grain should be fed just after the milk and while the calf is still fastened to the stanchion.
