FACULTY DAMES MEET WITH MRS. RANKIN
The Faculty Dames Club met with Mrs. J. D. Rankin, as hostess on Tuesday evening, July 21. The following patriotic program was given: History of the Star Spangled Banner by Mrs. W. M. Grubbs. A Review of James Boy's Drums, by Mrs. Chapel Wilson. Thy Country 'Tis of Thee, by Mrs. A. M. Norton. The club was then delightfully entertained by Mrs. Ruth Rankin Rutherford at the piano.

New officers for the coming year were elected as follows: president, Mrs. Chapel Wilson; vice president, Mrs. W. M. Grubbs; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Van Hinson; press reporter, Mrs. Amos Abrams. The club was invited for the August meeting to a picnic which will also include the husbands of the Faculty Dames with Mrs. J. T. C. Wright and Mrs. G. L. Sawyer as hostesses. Mrs. Rankin assisted by Mrs. Rutherford served a delicious party plate to the club members and Miss Helen Fleming as guest.

SCHAAR-ATKINS
The following taken from a Michigan newspaper tells of the marriage of a former Watauga county lady, and was unintentionally omitted from a former issue of the Democrat: The marriage of Miss Bonnie Dare Atkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Atkins, of Pontiac, and Livingston (Bud) Schaar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Schaar, of Lake Orion, will take place Saturday evening, June 20th, at 8:00 o'clock.

The ceremony will be performed in Detroit by Rev. David Dowker, of the Reorganized Church of Latter Day Saints. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rupp, of Wayne, will attend.

The bride will be gowned in white crepe and will wear a white turban and nose veil. Mrs. Rupp will be dressed in a yellow frock with matching accessories. Both will wear shoulder corsages of roses. Both the bride and bridegroom are well known here and will make their home in Lake Orion.

A linen shower was given Tuesday evening at the Schaar home for the pleasure of Mrs. Livingston Schaar, who before her recent marriage was Miss Bonnie Atkins, of Pontiac. Fourteen guests were present and the evening was spent in sewing for the bride. Pastel colored towels and face cloths were photographed by the guests and embroidered in the names of the days, one each for every day in the week. Miss Shirley Ruth MacDermid, of Pontiac, won the prize for the neatest embroidery.

A lovely assortment of linens was presented to the honor guests, after which a two course luncheon was served. The table was centered with a wide, low basket laden with roses, lilies and other flowers. Yellow streamers reached from the basket framers to the plates. Yellow glassware was used, and other table decorations were in pastel shades.

(The bride is a niece of Mr. Sam Atkins of Vilas and was reared in

On last Sunday James Brower, col., who wished to make a short trip to Blowing Rock, stole a horse from the stable of J. M. Moretz and proceeded on his journey. Mr. Moretz missed the horse and followed the young negro, and recovered his horse at Blowing Rock. The negro is young but deserves severe punishment for this bold act.

Married at 6 p. m., yesterday, Mr. J. G. Lovin of Montezuma to Miss Maggie, youngest daughter of Mrs. Patrick of Shulls Mills. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's mother and a sumptuous repast was spread for the invited friends and relatives. The Democrat extends congratulations.

STUDENTS FROM COUNTY IN UNIV. SUMMER SCHOOL

Chapel Hill—E. S. Dougherty and Helen Williams of Boone were among students from this county enrolled in the first term of the University of North Carolina Summer School at Chapel Hill which closed this week.

The second term, which will concentrate all work of the three units of the University at Chapel Hill, got under way immediately and will continue through August 29.

Registration for credit for the second term will be permitted through Tuesday, July 28.

Regarded as one of the most successful Summer sessions from the point of view of purpose and serious study, the first term this year showed a total enrollment of 1,017, representing 609 men and 408 women, an increase of 15 per cent over the first term last year.

A large number of institutes and conferences supplemented the regular courses of study during the first term, and several will be held during the second session. Among those scheduled are the third State Conference on Adult Education, July 22-23; a short course in Nursing Education, July 27-August 5; the ninth annual Parent-Teacher Institute, August 3-7; and the 15th annual coaching school for athletic directors and coaches, to be headed by Carolina's new football coach, Raymond Wolf, August 17-29.

Cabarrus County poultrymen are vaccinating their pullets against fowl pox saying that this prevents heavy losses.
