CHRISTIAN BROTHERHOOD

LESSON TEXT—Philemon 4-20. GOLDEN TEXT—There is neither bond nor free... for ye all are one in Christ Jesus. Galatians 3:28.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Paul's Shortest Letter. JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul's Shortest Letter. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—A Slave Becomes a Brother.

Letters are always interesting, and especially so when they bring good news. The brief epistle to Philemon is one of unusual charm.

Having reached this great city he no doubt was satisfied that he had placed himself beyond the reach of anyone who knew him. But he had reckoned without God, who not only knew where he was (see Ps. 139:7-12) but also what he needed.

I. Appreciation (vv. 4-8).

After an introductory word Paul speaks of his love for Philemon, his appreciation of the latter's hospitality, his fellowship, and his faith.

Is Paul flattering his friend in order that he may grant his request? Certainly not, but he is expressing his true feelings toward a faithful brother.

The man who thinks that he must show that he is true to Christ by treating others with boorish rudeness needs to learn a new lesson from the Lord himself, and from his Word.

II. Consideration (vv. 9-14).

Paul could have kept silent, and encouraged Onesimus to remain with him. He needed help (v. 13) but without the consent of Philemon he would not keep Onesimus (v. 14).

We have here a striking illustration of the candor and considerate thoughtfulness which should characterize the dealings of Christians with one another.

III. Brotherhood (vv. 15-16).

The fact of regeneration does not change a man's social status so far as the world is concerned, but within the circle of God's household he becomes a "brother beloved."

IV. Partnership (vv. 17-20).

Paul counted Philemon not only a benefactor and a brother, but a partner in the great enterprise of God on earth. Partners share both joys and sorrows, gains and losses.

It should be noted in closing that verses 17 and 18 present an illustration of the great doctrine of imputation. The wrong of Onesimus was to be charged to Paul, and Paul's standing with Philemon is the basis of his acceptance of Onesimus.

A Mother's Love No language can express the power and beauty and heroism and majesty of a mother's love. It checks

ON UNANIMITY IN ELECTIONS

116 Years Ago When the Herald-Tribune says the Roosevelt triumph is the greatest in 116 years it refers, of course, to the re-election of James Monroe in 1820.

Alas! for romance under the cold eyes of historical criticism. It has been shown that William Plummer of New Hampshire, who refused to make it unanimous for James Monroe in 1820, did not love George Washington more but Mr. Monroe less.

The Golden Age James Monroe received 131 out of a total of 232 electoral votes in a time known as the Era of Good Feeling. Monroe was a Democrat, and the opposition Federalist party had no ill feelings against him.

That was in 1820. Four years later the Democratic party, enjoying a monopoly on the country, was rent four different ways. A popular vote of approximately 350,000 was cast for four candidates.

In 1828 Andrew Jackson came in with a big popular victory. The two-party system was back again in full vigor eight years after Monroe's virtually unanimous election.

Percentages are impressive only when they get within striking distance of 100 per cent. Otherwise they lack the impact of brute numbers, especially when these latter run up into the many millions.

When Health Is At Stake

A loved one becomes suddenly ill or there is an accident—the doctor must be summoned, perhaps a nurse is required. Moments are precious—single telephone call may be the means of warding off serious illness.

Spare Hours

Bind together your spare hours by the cord of some definite purpose, and you know not how much you may accomplish.

Humble Deeds

The humblest deeds, prompted by a pure and unselfish motive, measure larger in God's sight than apparently much greater deeds which are done to be seen of men.

GREENVILLE, Del. ... Ethel du Pont and Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr. (above), are going to be married next June. Their engagement was announced in late November by Mr. and Mrs. Eugene du Pont.

TRUCK COLLECTS FOR ORPHANAGE

Banner Elk, Nov. 25—The truck which has been collecting Thanksgiving contributions of canned goods and produce for Grandfather Home for Children at Banner Elk made successful trips during the past two weeks.

According to Miss Jane Russell, superintendent of the Orphanage, the truck has brought a variety of produce and canned goods furnished by interested communities.

Eighty-five children are cared for in Grandfather Home, which is a department of the Edgar Tufts Memorial Association including Lees-McRae College and Grace Hospital at Banner Elk.

pressed by a Roosevelt plurality of 10,000,000 votes than if Mr. Roosevelt had received 100 per cent of the total vote. It is hard to withstand the mass effect of big numbers.

How They Stand

Imagine eight people around a dinner table, and five of them praise the new "Hamlet" and three of them denigrate it.

Andrew Jackson had in his second election 687,000 votes against Henry Clay's 530,000. A plurality of 160,000 in a presidential election does not cause the modern mind to reel.

This Record Age

Still, there is an undeniable glow about setting up a 116-year record as Mr. Roosevelt has just done in the matter of electoral majorities.

WORLD'S MOST MARRIED MAN

First Officer Robert Henri Guinne, now in the hands of the French police on a bigamy charge, has not only justified in real life the traditional jest about sailors having a wife in every port.

At least four of this Don Juan's brides are British girls and eight are French, but the police suspect that there may be more as yet untraced.

Employed by a well known French company owning a number of cargo steamers carrying goods between French and British ports, Guinne has been arrested as the result of a complaint made by his legal wife, who lives at La Havre.

Having obtained from the company employing Guinne a list of the ports at which the Don Juan of the Waves has called in the past 10 years, the police are now making inquiries with a view to tracing other matrimonial adventures.

In the course of a search at his shore lodgings and in his bunk on board ship, the police found diaries relating to his love affairs in different ports. It was these that put them on the track of the 12 women.

Matrimonial Evaluation

Judge: Well, Jim, I can give you this divorce, but it will cost you exactly thirty dollars. Jim: Thirty dollars, Judge? Judge: Yes, that's the court fee for expenses.

GROUSE SEASON NOW OPEN AT BANNER ELK

Banner Elk, Nov. 24—Hunting parties from Leaksville, Greensboro, Asheville and Raleigh, came to Banner Elk for the opening of the grouse season Friday.

Four parties hunted grouse in the mountains surrounding Banner Elk Friday, and returned in the evening with a number of birds. The weather was warm and windy for grouse hunting, making the birds high for shooting.
