THE OLD YEAR PASSES

As Christmas passes, and the feasting and gait of the holiday season lapse into a memory...

People in Watauga county have fared fairly happily during 1936—there have, of course, been sorrows, trials and tribulations...

It has been a pretty good old year after all, and there is a bow of bright promise in the economic firmament.

In the meantime the cordial greetings of your county paper go out to you in the hope that the New Year will be bigger, brighter and more prosperous than any before.

Little Journeys In Palestine

By J. C. CANIPE

Athens is in Greece, not Palestine. Yet Athens is of interest to us because Paul visited here and preached here.

In approaching the Acropolis we stop first at the Temple of Bacchus, where there was an ancient theatre seating seventeen thousand people.

Green Bay, Wis.—Even if the earth did not rotate at all on its axis, the sun would rise and set once during the year because of the earth's journey around it.

Cambridge, Mass.—Photographs of lightning show that the main flash is always preceded by a "leader," which acts as a sort of pathfinder, or trail-blazer.

Bruce Barton Says . . .

Will to Live is Important Among the men whose friendship I enjoyed was the late C. W. Barron, owner of the Wall Street Journal.

The second story had been told to Barron by a noted surgeon. A woman, taken to the hospital for a slight operation, died almost before the anesthetic was applied.

Barron said that by the degree of their courage and faith men themselves determine how long they will live.

I believe that is true—that those who live who want to live; that when interest ceases the heart stops.

Court Not the Haters A group of people had listened to a candidate's radio speech and, after it was over, there was a good deal of criticism.

"It's a remark to set one thinking. Down through the ages hate has dragged its bloody trail across the heart of this good earth.

One might say truthfully that every good measure of the historical worth of a man or institution: "Did he or it add to or abstract from the sum total of human hate?"

Napoleon does not stand the test. Back and forth across the face of Europe he tramped in blood-drenched boots, until at last there was only one sentiment in the hearts of men and women of that whole continent—desperate resolve to rid themselves forever of this conscienceless destroyer; a bitter unrelenting hate.

Businesses could properly stop once a year and check themselves by this measuring rod: How much or less are they liked or disliked than twelve months ago?

A FALSEHOOD

Editor Democrat: Will you be so kind as to find space in your paper for the following?

To one and all I will say, the person or persons who heard that I got $25 on or about the 3rd day of November, 1936, for turning over to the Republican party, heard it wrong, for I never done such a thing.

On the 3rd day of November I went to the election, voted for some Democrats and some Republicans, but I did not get any money from either side, but voted my principle and my liberty. I will repeat it, it is absolutely a falsehood about me getting the $25, or even a penny. I went out and took some absentees in Meat Camp township. I told Mr. Harrison Baker I would not get any pay for fixing them.

To all the voters in Meat Camp township I will say, I have no ill will against any one of you. I love you all, but will say in conclusion, it is a falsehood, I never got the $25. Peace to all of you.

NAHUM WINEBARGER, Meat Camp, N. C.

New York—Forty-one deaths from football were recorded in the United States last year. Of these, thirty-five deaths were the direct result of gridiron activity.

Fireside Philosophy

(By C. M. Dickson)

The question as to where I came from is not so important as to "where I see gwine to."

Most men are liberals when it comes to taxing the other fellow, but when their own property is taxed, they are strictly "reactionary-conservative."

The "Literary Digest" seems to be convalescing from an acute attack of "in"-digestion.

However "brotherly" one's love may be, righteous indignation is often a virtue of supreme importance.

A dual achievement—for a girl to be able to chew her gum and sing in the choir at the same time.

Of all the "itis-es" in the world, there are none more annoying than a "debt-itis."

Numbers of people are hard to make the remark, "I haven't gone crazy about this." Certainly not—they didn't have to.

A purely intellectual sermon is often like bread without "shortenin'" or beans without "seasonin'."

No wonder an undertaker speaks words of condolence to the bereaved at the funeral. The deceased often sleeps in a $25 casket that costs $200.

If dancing and bridge parties are so spiritually edifying, they should, by all means, be given a prominent place either at the beginning or closing of our church programs.

One advantage in a "cigarettes" painting her fingernails red is to decoy her prospective employer from thinking that her fingers are not yellow from the effect of nicotine and that she is a boy.

One difference between protein and paint is that the former "redens" from the inside and is permanent, while the latter is applied from the outside and is "transient."

Poets may be "natural" when they are born, but they are not full-grown.

If the children can stand it, why should the parents object to the teacher's smoking, "hearing," "carding" and "tangoing" just a little bit on week-ends?

The Family Doctor

By DR. JOHN JOSEPH GAINES

IN THE PHARMACY OF THE ALL-WISE CREATOR

Perhaps very few people who fine ever think of the valuable medicinal properties residing in the fancy pepper shaker, that long ago earned its right to a place on every dining table.

"Piper Nigrum," black pepper, depends upon an essential oil for its stimulating property. There are some modern medical authorities who have little faith in internal antiseptics.

Black pepper certainly stimulates mucous surfaces. It causes a freer flow or perfect digestion. Moderate use of black pepper benefits the weak stomach—does away with "gases" that give distress. It does no harm if used temperately, except in ulceration.

One of the best anti-malarials I know of contains a small proportion of the oil of black pepper. "Piperazin" has value in certain affections with uric acid intoxication. The use of pepper is well known in convalescence from chronic alcoholism, coaxing the weakened gastric surfaces back into normal activity.

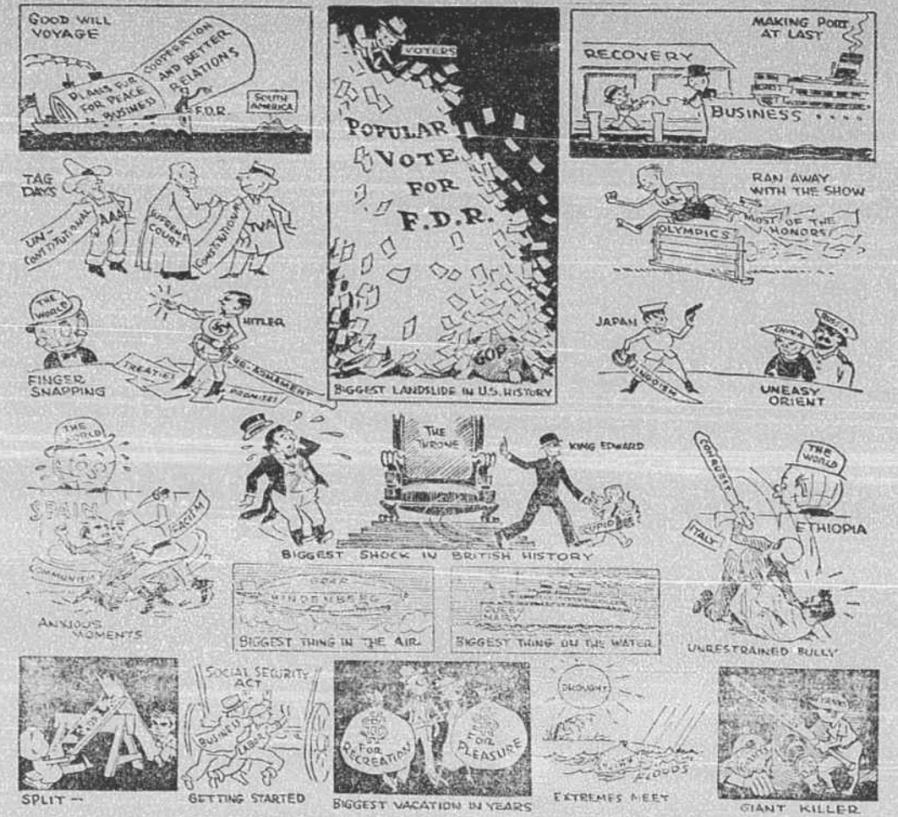

The pharmacy of a great and all-wise Creator is without parallel for its number of useful remedies. Ever think of it?

IDEALS AND TRUTH IN RHYME AND RHYTHM

Honestly make all the laws, Not by hungry lobby's maws. Are you cross when others fail? Helpful feelings should prevail.

The death of Senator Peter Norbeck of South Dakota reduces the number of Republican senators to 16, or exactly one-sixth of the total number of senators. Governor Tom Berry of South Dakota is expected to appoint a Democrat to succeed Mr. Norbeck, but unless he acts promptly the incoming governor, a Republican, will have the say as to who shall fill the vacant seat.

Bethel High School and Community News

Rev. W. D. Ashley, pastor of the Baptist church, filled his appointment at Bethel Saturday and Sunday.

Messrs. C. M. Dickson and Lawrence Atchley, members of the Bethel high school faculty, spent the Christmas holidays with home folks in Ashe and Rutherford counties, respectively.

Mr. J. B. O'Neal spent the holidays with relatives and friends in South Carolina.

On Friday, December 18, "Santa Claus" visited all the rooms of Bethel school and gave each student a small "treat" in token of his interest in school children.

So far as is known at the present time, the holidays passed off in a very quiet manner, which is typical of the immediate vicinity of Bethel.

Mr. Bert Farthing, principal of Mabel school, and former teacher in Bethel school, visited the latter school Monday morning and gave an interesting talk at chapel.

New Orleans.—Investment of capital in new chemical industry plants in the south, according to the All-South Development council, has totaled $85,000,000 in the last three years.

LOCAL CHURCH SERVICES

BOONE BAPTIST CHURCH Rev. J. C. Canipe, Pastor.

The holidays are over and we are ready to go back to our work and church. Why not start the New Year by attending church the first Sunday and keeping it up for the year? Besides all the good it does you in worship at God's house it also makes the pastor feel good to see you there. I can be your pastor and let you stay at home, but I cannot be your preacher if you do not come to church. Our subject next Sunday morning will be "If This Were My Last Year To Live, How Would I Live It?"
