and Mrs. B. J. Councill.

WATAUGA DEMOCRAT-EVERY THURSDAY-BOONE, N. C.

LOCAL AFFAIRS

Mr. Walton spent the holidays with his family in Richmond, Va.

Misses Marguerite and Lucille Miller spent Wednesday in Charlotte Mrs. Grace Councill, of Charlotte, spent the holidays visiting with Mr.

Miss Mary Francis Linney, Charlotte, spent the holidays with homefolks here.

Miss Louise Critcher spent Christmas in Greensboro, the guest of Mrs. Clyde Rich.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Mattox, of Bristol, spent Christmas with homefolks in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Wilson were holiday visitors with homefolks in Appalachia, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Berry and little daughter spent the holidays will enter Covne Electrical Engineer-

John Critcher, of Asheville, was a week-end visitor at the home of his mother, Mrs. Jennie Critcher

Miss Loree O'Daniels spent Christthe home of a brother, Mr. James O'Daniels, of Lenoir,

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Admas spen the week-end in Bristol with Mrs Adams' sister, Mrs. Guy Mattox.

Mr. Glean Coffey has returned to Charlottesville, Va., after a holiday visit to homefolks in Blowing Rock.

Rev. J. C. Canipe and family have returned from Augusta, Ga., where they spent Christmas with relatives

Mr. Charles Miller, of Mabel, was a business visitor to town Wednesday and made a pleasant call at the newspaper office.

Miss Janet Butler, of Mountain City, Tenn., spent the week-end with her cousins, Sarah Rebekah and Jimmy Emeline Rivers.

Mrs. James L. Winkler, who has been seriously ill for the past several weeks, is reported as being considerabiy improved.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Randolph and daughter of Lenoir, and son Robert of Charlotte, spent Christmas with relatives near Boone

Miss Martha Winkler has return-ed home from Banner Elk hospital where she has been taking treatment.

Miss Hamby, of Winsten Salem was here Tuesday in the interest of only by the family and a few intiinstituting a recreational project under the WPA

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Hollifield have returned to Ahoskie from a holiday visit with Mrs. Hollifield's mother Mrs. J. D. Councill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Black, of Staunton, Va., were holiday visitors with Mrs. Black's mother, Mrs. E. S. Coffey.

Mr. and Mrs. Remmel Porter, of Jonesboro, Ark., were Christmas vis-itors with Mrs. E. S. Coffey, Mrs. Porter's mother.

Mrs. M. W. Beach and daughter, North Wilkesboro are Annelle, of spending the week in Boone with friends

Prof. W. L. Winkler has returned to his school at Spring Hope, after spending the holidays with his family at Shulls Mills.

ing at Marshall, spnt last week at Rev. Mr. Davis, of the Baptist the home of his mother, Mrs. A. M. church.

who were motoring from Albany, N. J. B. O'Neal and Mrs. C. J. Farth-that time. Mrs. David Greene selected this year to present t with Mr. R. R. Hodges at the Misses Rays last week.

Fork, W. Va., spent his vacation at his home on New River. Miss Mary

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey B. Cariton to Christmas hymnes: Mr. and Mrs. Harvey B. Cariton and little daught r of Philadelphia, story by Miss Carrilee Farthing, and member the beautiful party and the readings were given by members of generous hospitality of the hostess. health has been very poor for several passed through on their way to At-lanta, Ga. for the holidays. They were accompanied by Miss Sallie Ray who had react it. Ray, who had spent the past month visiting the Carltons in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hodges, of Knoxville, Tenn., Mr. and Mrs. Kay Mr. J. P. Steele visited during the Boatright, of Kingsport, and Mr. holidays with his parents who reside Grant Hodges, of Weesbury, Ky., in Marston, N. C. were Christmas visitors in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John uary 28. W. Hodges.

> Mr. Grant Ayers, of the New River Light & Power company force, leaves next Saturday for Chicago, where he ing school. He attended Appalachian College last year and during the summer was employed at the steam plant of the New River Light & Power company.

Elder W. L. Atkins, a minister of the Seventh Day Advenist church, has established his home at Valle Crucis, and will be the pastor of the Clarks Creek and Banner Elk churches, Rev. Mr. Atkins is known by many people in Watauga, where he conducted meetings several years ago. He comes to Valle Crucis from Columbia, S. C.

Hayes-Greene

A marriage of interest to their many friends was solemnized at the home of Edw. N. Hahn, magistrate, Tuesday evening when Pauline Hayes became the bride of Ralph Greene Mrs. Greene is the daughter of Jas. and Bessie Hayes, of Triplett. Mr. Greene is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Greene, of Deep Gap. The cere-mony was performed by Mr. Hahn.

Cooke-Brookshire

On December 16, Mr. Howard Brookshire and Miss Gladys Cooke were married at Elizabethton, Tean. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Cooke, of Rutherwood, the youngest of the talented quartette of musicians, who were known as the "Cooke Sisters." Mr. Brookshire is the oldest son of Mr. J. C. Brookshire, of New River, and is a popular young farmer.

Miles-Wilson

A simple ring ceremony, witnessed mate friends, united Miss Zilda Wilion and Kelly G. Miles, both of Boone, in marriage. The vows were solemnized Christmas afternoon at 5:30 at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. L. Brown, of Kannapolis, N C Rev. B. H. Henry officiated. The bride wore a lovely dress of white satin and a shoulder corsage of bride's roses and lilies of the val

The home was decorated with magnolia leaves, ivy and tall white tapers in crystal holders. An improvised altar was arranged in the Hy ng room against a background of evergreens. On either side of the altar were baskets of white carysanthemums

The couple will make their home in Boone.

Davis-Cook

Miss Foy Belle Cook and Mr. Wil liford Davis were married in a cere mony performed in Mountain City, Mr. Charles Norton, who is teach- Tenn., last Thursday evening, by

About twenty club members en-joyed the meeting, beginning with a brief business session. Roll call gled with (a wom Mr. Sam Brookshire, of North and reports of the meetings came experienced when opening these pres. ment at Union church Saturday. We

Miss Cleta Jones, home demonstra-Statesville, spent Christmas day with Clay discussed the receipts on Christ- served delicious Christmas refresh- Union. mas candy. The time was then given to Christmas hymns: Christmas

> The members were then invited to and Mrs Paul Townsend. the Christmas tree where "Santa" presented each one with a useful gift. Delicious refreshments were served with Christmas candy, making the social hour a most delightful one. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Paul Norris as hostess on Jan-

Milton Mast Entertains Music Club

On Tuesday, December 22, the regular meeting of the music club (Mrs. ted and sold 150 bushels potatoes for Norton's music class) was held at $180, kept enough potatoes for home the home of Milton Mast. The program consisted of Christ- $75.12 worth of cabbage and kept mas songs, readings and piano solos, enough for home use. Total cash Edith Walker read the Christmas story and Frances Walker played addition to the above named cash "There's a Star in the Sky." Ruby crops, Mr. Eggers raised 75 bushels Kirkman sang "Star of the East," accompanied by Louise Taylor. Betty his 22-3acre farm. Mr. Eggers is 67 Clay played "Christmas Bells." Alma Ruth Hagaman and Lucile ily are among our most industrious Cook sang "Away in a Manger" and people Beat this if you can! 'Dear Old Santa Claus." Mary Alice Cook played "Christmas Eve," ac- tenths of an acre to tobacco and companied by an orchestra of bells, marketed 906 pounds for $484.28. He orchestra accompaniment. After the program a contest of pinning the head on Santa Claus was raises colts for sale. He sells a pair greatly enjoyed. Mary Alice Cook every year for a good price. won first prize and Alma Ruth Haga- has one of the best pair of mares in man, the boohy. Beverly Townsend the county. In addition to raising was an invited guest.

Refreshments, consisting of hot Dishman's farm work. chocolate, cake and candy were served by Mrs. Mast, Lucile and Millon Mast

Mrs. F. A. Linney Hostess to Friday Afternoon Club

Mrs. F. A. Linney delightfully entertained the members of the Friday Afternoon club on December 18 at ts annual Christmas party. The Christmas spirit was preva lent in every place of entertainment uuring the afternoon. The spacious rooms were artistically decorated with Christmas flowers (poinsettas), lighted red candles, Christmas greens and a beautiful tree made more beautiful by tiny electric lights in varied

After a social hour of much mer riment and good cheer, the president presided over a short business meeting. At this time a committee was appointed to purchase and send each or mail some Christmas packages to various persons in the community. Next, a short program prepared by the hostess was rendered as follows: Christmas Carols, by club mem pers, Mrs. A. E. South at the piano. Christmas Story, Miss Jennie Todd.

Piano solo, "Star of the East," Mrs. A. E. South.

it is the custom of the club to draw a name each year at a meeting previous to the Christmas party in

FOR SALE-1933 model V-8 Pick up. W. C. Greene, Laxon. 11 HAMS WANTED-Weighing from

25 to 40 pounds. City Meat Market, Boone, N. C. 1c

selected this year to present these

Much pleasure and hoppiness min-Roll call gled with (a woman's) curiosity is ents and finding the giver's name. Brookshire, of the Davis hospital tion agent, being absent, Mrs. A. C Paul Coffey and Baxtxer Linney, ed an excellent sermon Sunday ents in two course

Every one present will long re-Invited guests were Mrs. Aber-nethy, Mrs. J. D. Rankin's mother,

Mabel News

Solomon Eggers seems to be the king farmer around Mabel. Here is a report of two acres he cultivated this year: Three-fourths acre planted in tobacco. He marketed 1,290 pounds, sold at New Burley warehouse, Greenville, Tenn., for $695.35. kept for home use 50 pounds; harves and seed, harvested and sold sale from two acres, $950.47. In of corn and other farm products or years old, works every day at some

Spencer Dishman planted threethese colls, these mares do Mr

Charlie Miller had a small patch in tobacco, and marketed 414 pounds for $185.

Jim Burchett had one acre in tobacco, and made 1,428 pounds for which he reseived $474. On his 60acre farm, Jim also harvested and had harvested 515 bushels of corn. He usually keeps two or three good fox hounds and still can sing cn any and all occasions.

Mrs. Ham Thomas is still improv-

Mrs. Hazel Mast, our efficient school teacher at North Fork, is going forward with the work most satisfactorily. She is always on time and is holding up the attendance

PASTIME THEATRE BOONE, N. C. "PLACE OF GOOD SHOWS' Program for Week JAN 4 TO JAN. 9 MONDAY, JAN. 4 'OUR RELATION" with Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy

TUESDAY, JAN 5 "KING OF HOCKEY" with

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Dunn and son, club met on December 15 with Mrs. order to have their gifts ready at very nicely. She is one of Watauga's was best teachers. holidays with home folks. He is sta-> were very much impressed with his Mrs. Linney, assisted by Mesdames sermon. Rev. Grady Minton preachat

Mrs. Rachel Greene is spending the Christmas holidays with her sister, months.

Boston .- The religious observance of Lent originally was a period of only 40 days.

Amarillo, Texas .- The state of Texas furnished 79 per cent of the Clip Wilson is at Mabel for the United States production of carbon black. This commodity is made from tioned in a C. C. camp at Bakersville. natural gas and is an essectial ingredient of manufactured rubbes

MEANEST MAN OF 1936

Who was the meanest man of 1936? Read this unusual story, relating many instances of cruelties and man's inhumanity during the past year. One of the many interesting features in the January Srd issue of the American Weekly, the big magazine which comes every Sunday with the BALTIMORE AMERICAN. Your news dealer has YOUR CODY

SOLVING A MURDER MYSTERY

SPECIAL TURKEY DINNER Caro-Jean Inn, Thursday Evening 30 Cents Tickets are now on sale at the inn, and Mrs. Taylor requests reservations to be made by noon Thursday. All will have an opportunity at winning free prizes.

Martha Hamby, Josephine Miller, thing on the farm. He and his famitamborine, triangle and claps. The averaged about 50 bushels of corn entire club sang "Jingle Bells," with per acre on one acre and made 60 bushels on one acre, in addition to improving the soil. Mr. Dishman

