

LOCAL MATMEN TO WRESTLE SPRAY "Y" SATURDAY, JAN. 16

The Appalachian mat team, undefeated in all meets thus far this season, will engage the strong Spray Y. M. C. A. team in the men's gymnasium here Saturday night, January 16.

The local team is picked to win in spite of the fact that this "Y" has one of the best squads in the state. In a recent meet with Winston-Salem "Y," the Spray team lost 19 1/2 to 14 1/2, thus making the Appalachian team better by comparative scores. However, Coach Watkins is taking no chances as he prepares his grapplers for the coming match.

The lineup for Appalachian will probably consist of Gaskill, Ben Norris, Captain Crooks, Hill Norris, Claude Farthing, Roger Ewing, Cline and Lloyd Hobbs.

On the following Saturday, the local wrestlers will go to Raleigh where they will meet the North Carolina State College in the most important event of the season. If Appalachian wins this meet it will probably give her an undisputed right to the state championship.

GRAPPLERS SWAMP NAVAL SCHOOL IN MEET AT NEWPORT

Newport News, Va., Jan. 9.—The Appalachian State wrestlers showed a definite superiority over the Naval Apprentice school here tonight as they swamped the shipbuilders 29-0.

Al Reulin won the lone bout for Apprentice when he combined a half-Nelson and body lock to pin Roger Ewing in eight minutes of the match.

Summary: Gaskill, Appalachian 118-pounder, easily won, pinning Urrutia in three minutes, thirty-five seconds.

Ben Norris, Appalachian, won a decision over Johnson in the 126-pound class. Advantage—seven minutes, twenty-two seconds.

In the 135-pound event, Captain Crooks won from Gail by a fall in five minutes, fifteen seconds.

Bill Norris, Appalachian won from

TWO TOUGH CUSTOMERS

Ben Canipe, left, and Claude Chambers, right, two members of the Royal Arcanum Fight club of High Point, who will battle Appalachian State Teachers College here Friday night. Canipe is a 155-pounder and Chambers is a 145-pounder. Both lads are fast and in addition Canipe is a southpaw.

Barker by a fall in nine minutes, in the 145-pound bout.

Claude Farthing, 155, decided Carter. Advantage, nine minutes, fifteen seconds.

Arculin, 165, won over Ewing by fall in eight minutes.

Hobbs, heavyweight, won a decision over Captain Carmean of Apprentice. Advantage, two minutes, twenty-two seconds.

Charles Mattson Is Battered To Death

Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 12. Battered and maimed, the body of kidnaped Charles Mattson was found today in the snow-crusted brushlands near Everett, 50 miles from the home from which the 10-year-old boy was abducted two weeks ago.

"I feared it," said Dr. W. W. Mattson, the boy's father, as he sped toward the spot where a youthful hunter stumbled upon the body this morning.

Frozen stiff, the body of the boy for whom $28,000 ransom had been demanded by a half a mile west of the Pacific highway, six miles south of Everett. Identification was made positive by Paul Scova, close friend of the Mattson family.

COVE CREEK HIGH BEATS CROSSMORE 49-10

The Cove Creek quint played its first post-holiday ball game Friday night, January 9th, at Crossmore. Cove Creek's scoring machine began throwing baskets and ran up a score of 21-2 at the half.

In the third period Cove Creek added 20 points while Crossmore gained 4. The final score was 49-10. Deal was high scorer with 13 points. V. Henson and J. Bingham tied for second place with 10 points each.

Cove Creek has played 11 games and lost only one to Appalachian "B" team.

Coach Pyatt says this team is the best he has ever coached.

Cove Creek lineup for Friday's game:

- M. Deal, g 4
H. Isaacs, g 7
J. Bingham, g 10
L. Deal, f 13
V. Henson, f 10

Cove Creek substitutes: Campbell (4), L. Isaacs (2), May (2), H. Henson and Grogan.

Record Short Term

One senator who was elected last November does not sit in the new congress, because his term expired on the day congress met. He is Guy V. Howard of Minnesota.

When Senator Schall died last summer, Governor Olson appointed Elmer A. Benson as senator until the next election. Ernest Lundeen ran for the six-year term beginning January 5 and was elected.

But nobody took any steps to provide a senator for the two months between election day, except Mr. Howard. He filed a petition with Minnesota's secretary of state at the last minute which got him a place on the November ballot. He was elected by 100,000 majority for the shortest elective senatorial term in history. Mr. Howard will draw $1,166.67, and some requisites for mileage and clerk-hire for the two months he was a United States senator. Although he never sat in the senate chamber he is "ex-Senator Howard."
