

LOCAL AFFAIRS

Dr. G. K. Moore of the Boone Drug store, was a business visitor to Lenoir Monday.

Attorney J. E. Holmouser was a business visitor to Damascus, Va., Tuesday.

Mr. Lewis Austin, of Kannapolis, was a visitor with home folks in the community over the week-end.

Mr. Stancell Ollis, of Morganton, former Boone police officer, was a business visitor in town Tuesday.

Mr. A. S. Harris, manager of the Spainhour store, is spending the week in New York City, buying new merchandise for his establishment.

Mrs. Helen McDonald and son, Freddie, of Henderson, N. C., are spending a few days visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Crawford.

Mrs. Rob Rivers, small daughter Jane, and Miss Opal Lewis returned Friday from Florida, where they spent two weeks in the vicinity of Plant City.

Mrs. W. R. Spainhour, who has been quite seriously ill at the Hagaman clinic, is showing a marked improvement, her many friends are glad to learn.

Mrs. H. E. Hodges has returned from the Wilkes hospital to her home at Deep Gap. Mrs. Greene, who has been seriously ill, is considerably improved.

Mr. Daniel Ward has returned to his home near Oak Grove from the Banner Elk hospital, where he has been a patient for the past four months. Mr. Ward's condition is decidedly improved.

Mr. G. H. Thomas, of Mabel, who visited in Boone the last of the week, states that Mrs. Thomas, who has been ill for many months, is decidedly improved, and is now able to be about the house.

Mrs. James L. Winkler, whose serious illness has been mentioned from time to time, is greatly improved, and her many friends are now of the belief that she will soon recover altogether from the long illness.

Mr. James Gross, of Adams, remains a patient at the Veterans' hospital in Johnson City, and while reports indicate he is yet a very sick man, it is believed that he is showing a satisfactory degree of improvement.

Senator Roby T. Greer and Representative W. F. Miller spent the week-end with home folks in the community, returning to Raleigh Monday. Senator Greer still believes there is a good prospect for the legislature to get down to business and conclude its work within a period of perhaps 75 days.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Beach have established their home at the Ralph Greer place near the home of Mrs. W. R. Spainhour, having moved from their former residence at North Wilkesboro. A daughter, Miss Annette, will remain in North Wilkesboro until the end of the present school term.

Mr. Allie Watson of the Boone Motor Sales, local Ford dealers, has returned from Charlotte, where he spent two weeks attending a mechanical school, conducted at the central plant of the Ford Motor Co. Mr. Watson received special training as to the upkeep of new automobiles and the shop which he is conducting is one of the most modern in this section. A greatly improved type of mechanical service is now being offered.

A few days since Mr. John Woodruff of Shell Creek, Tenn., lost his sash and blind factory by fire. Loss $5,000, with no insurance.

Died at her home at Tracy on last Friday, Mrs. Isaac Lundy. Fever, we learn, was the cause of her death.

From the Elk Park Mail we learn that that thriving little town is perfecting arrangements for putting in an electric plant.

Mrs. Jesse Vannoy died at the home of her son-in-law, Jonas Winebarger, on Meat Camp January 21st, in her 82nd year.

Married at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Pleas Welch, Mr. Thomas Hopkins to Miss Mattie Welch. After the ceremony was performed a sumptuous repast was prepared for the party, which, we are informed, was much enjoyed by all present.

On Monday of this week a delicious repast was served for the little ones of Boone by Mrs. James P. Taylor in honor of the birthday of her little son Weston. Quite a number of the juveniles attended, and of course the occasion was a pleasant one for them.

Died at her home in Shell Creek, Tenn. on the 21st ult., Mrs. Eveline Ray. Mrs. Ray was near 80 years of age and was the sister of Mrs. Henry Hardin and Wm. Horton of this county. She had many relatives and warm friends in the county who will grieve for her departure.

On last Saturday morning the beautiful snow began to fall, which continued all day Monday and Tuesday a regular Watauga blizzard was on. The weather was so cold that travel was almost stopped; some of the mails failing to make their trips. Wednesday is mild, and it now seems that we will have more pretty weather.

Zionville News

Mrs. Victoria Hodges, who has spent the past month in Bristol, Va., with a daughter, was called home last week because of the death of her sister, Mrs. Rachel Greene at Mabel.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Icenhour recently and has been named Shelby Jean.

Mrs. Faye Warner of Mountain City, Tenn., spent Sunday in the village with her sister, Miss Ettie Younce. Miss Younce does not improve much from an illness of several weeks.

Hubert Winebarger has returned to his home here from Idaho where he has spent the past year.

COVE CREEK HIGH ADDS THREE MORE VICTORIES

Trailed by a 15-game winning streak, Cove Creek is still adding smashing victories with some close decisions. Out of the three games played in the past week, they have been victorious in all of them.

Giving Jefferson a return game Tuesday night, January 26, the contest turned out to be a very close one for more than three quarters. In the last few minutes, holding a mere two-point lead, the Cove Creek forwards tossed four baskets to increase the score to 31-19.

Friday night, Crossnore played Cove Creek at Cove Creek. The visitors were a snake in the grass for Cove Creek, but when discovered were smashed by a score of 44-17.

Carrying the heaviest schedule for several seasons, Cove Creek filled a bill with Fleetwood Monday night at Cove Creek, in spite of the fact that several of the first-string players were ill with colds. After trailing by a small margin for three quarters Fleetwood started a rally in the last of the third and in the beginning of the fourth. In those last minutes, the crowd was on their toes, first a goal for Cove Creek, then one for Fleetwood; but the final count showed Cove Creek in the lead by three points in the score of 30-27.

Hoy Isaacs and Vance Hinson tied for high score with 12 points each.

HOLD LAST RITES FOR MRS. MARGARET J. UNDERWOOD

Funeral services were conducted from the Laurel Fork Baptist church where she was a member, on Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock, for Mrs. Margaret Jane Underwood, who was 64 years old. Mrs. Underwood died at her home at 1 o'clock Thursday morning. The services were in charge of Rev. Robert Shores and Rev. Carl Triplett.

Mrs. Underwood is survived by nine children: Mrs. Bill Miller, Patterson; Mrs. Pummy Harmon, Mulberry; Len Len Greene, Boone; Mrs. Ben Church, Cline, Com D., Oscar, Georgia and Ronda Underwood, all of Blowing Rock, and one brother and one sister, Mrs. Marie Eller, of Granite Falls, and Larkin Robbins, Buffalo Cove.—Reported.

THE FAMILY

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy shown us during the illness and death of our dear and beloved mother, Mrs. Margaret Jane Underwood. May God bless each and every one.

OBITUARY

In remembrance of our dear little daughter, Margaret Louise Norris, born Oct. 4, 1936. When Jesus called her away Dec. 17, 1936, she was so sweet and dear to us, but Jesus saw that He loved her better than we did. We loved her, yes; we loved her, but Jesus loved her more; and he sweetly called her to yonder shining shore. The golden gates were opened, a gentle voice said, Come! and with farewells unspoken, she calmly entered home. That's where our home is going to be some day.

MR. AND MRS. GRANVILLE NORRIS.
