

Quints' Education Is Latest Problem

Program For World's Most Famous Children Presents Something New Under the Sun

Callander, Ont., April 10.—If you think there's nothing new under the sun, you've overlooked a problem which is cudgelling the brains of at least three men in Canada—the problem of how the Dionne quintuplets are to be educated.

Twins, triplets, even quadruplets, present no such teaser, and by comparison, the educational program of British royalty is simplicity itself. For in a world full of curious things none today is as curious as the quintuplets, who will be four years old May 28.

That's what makes it a problem: the guardians wish, above all things to keep the five from feeling, as far as that is possible, their unique standing.

Until recently the educational program of the famous babies had been in the hands of Dr. W. E. Blatz, noted Toronto child psychologist.

Under his direction, the children were being trained in social and language development by experts graduated from the advanced St. George's School for Child Study in Toronto.

The education of the quintuplets now to be directed by Duncan McArthur, assistant deputy minister of education for Ontario and advocate of the public school system.

The final decision, though, on whether the girls are to go to grade school with their three older sisters and two brothers will be in the hands of the board of guardians—Dr. Allen R. Dafoe, medical guardian of the babies; Percy D. Wilson, Ontario's official guardian of minor children; Judge J. A. Valin of North Bay, and the children's father, Oliva Dionne.

Since Papa Dionne takes no part in the guardianship, that leaves the problem in the hands of three men.

There appears to be no uniform opinion whether the quintuplets should associate with other children in the next few years or whether they should be trained in the seclusion of their closely-guarded nursery. Child experts have said and still say a lot for both sides of the question.

The grade school where the older Dionne children are getting their elementary education is in Corbett, two and a half miles from the nursery. Attendance there would bring pressing problems upon the guardians.

They regard it as doubtful, for one thing, that interest in the quintuplets will ever diminish to a point where they can appear in public without attracting attention.

Then there is their safety to be considered—a kidnapping plot was rumored in the first year of their life.

On the other hand, some child experts deem it necessary that the Dionne girls have normal companionships to ensure their normal development.

With this in mind, it has been suggested that the other Dionne children and several more selected from the neighborhood might form a class at the nursery.

BANNER ELK SET FOR BIG FISHING SEASON

Banner Elk, April 12.—Sportsmen from all parts of the state are expected to be on the banks of the Elk River and Wildcat Lake here Friday for the opening of the 1938 trout fishing season.

Each fisherman will be allowed 10 trout a day, and will keep only those measuring eight inches or more. As during the past two years, no bait fishing will be allowed.

Indications are that the supply of trout will be larger this year than ever before. Both streams have been carefully stocked and protected for a number of years, and Elk River is now considered one of the finest trout streams in Western North Carolina.

A Guernsey promotion sale will be held at Waynesville, April 21, when blooded Guernsey cattle bred in North Carolina will be offered to farmers of that section.
