T. E. L. Class Meets With Mrs. Kirkman

The T. E. L. class of the Boone Baptist church held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Joe Kirkman last week. Each member answered the roll call with a verse of Scripture having the word "victory." Mrs. J. C. Canipe made a talk on victory. A duet was sung by Mrs. W. C. Greene and Mrs. D. D. Dougherty, after which Mrs. Len Cooke gave a poem on "Fall" telling of the beautiful handwork of the Master, which was very appropriate.

This being the month for election of officers, the following were elected: Teacher, Mrs. J. C. Canipe; president, 1st vice president, Mrs. J. J. Coffey; 2nd vice president, Mrs. W. C. Greene; 3rd vice president, Mrs. Whitehead; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. R. S. Swift; reporter, Mrs. Len Cooke. Group captains: Mrs. D. D. Dougherty, Mrs. Alice Brown, Mrs. Jessie McGuire, Mrs. W. D. Farthing, Mrs. I. G. Greene.

The class was asked if it would like to serve supper to the Lions Club at the high school cafe on the following Tuesday night. A committee was appointed to make arrangements for the supper.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Kirkman, assisted by her daughter, Ruby. Mrs. McGuire will be hostess to the class on Thursday afternoon before the fourth Sunday in December.

A "Bon Voyage" Party

A very unique party was given Wednesday evening, October 26, by Mrs. R. F. Greene at her home in Greene Heights, assisted by Mrs. F. E. Warman. Mrs. Greene entertained in honor of her son, Thomas L. Greene, who was leaving the following week-end to enter Aero Industries Technical Institute, Los Angeles, Calif.

Halloween decorations were used throughout the house, and a program of stunts and contests was carried out which was both interesting and amusing. Each stunt or contest won counted so many points. At the close of the evening the lady and gentleman holding the highest scores were each awarded a prize. The prize for the ladies was won by Mrs. T. B. Moore, Jr., while the prize for the men went to Mr. Mack Greer.

Tables were arranged and a course of Halloween sandwiches, fruit salad, ice cream, cake and grape juice was served.

Those entertained by Mrs. Greene and Mrs. Warman were: Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hardin, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Greer, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Moore, Jr., Misses Helen Gragg, Porter Stiles and Messrs. Arendal Warman and Thomas Greene.

A woman refers to a gown that she's worn twice as "that old thing."
