IN MEMORY OF R. L. SEATZ

In loving memory of my dear father, who passed to the great beyond February 16, 1929.

When we saw you in the casket, Lying so still and quiet, You seemed to be an angel, Daddy, with snowy wings of white. We loved you, O, so dearly, You were so kind and good; Why you had to leave us, We have not understood. The family circle has been broken, And time can never mend, But we can put our trust in Jesus, and on Him we can depend. The flowers we laid on your grave Have withered and decayed; But the things you taught us, daddy, We feel must be obeyed. We know you are gone, daddy, Never to return; So we will try to meet you When our earthly work is done. MATTIE SEATZ NORRIS.
