counties of Alleghany, Ashe and Watauga. And every time a Tar Heel cranks his jalopy for a tour along the highway which ultimately will link the Shenandoah and Great Smoky Mountain National Parks...

There's a well-founded belief about Washington that had it not been for the untiring efforts of the ninth district representative, Skyline Drive might have been completely scrapped by government engineers...

And lots of us still think it would have been a splendid and well deserved tribute to the Alleghany lawmaker...
