Hawaii Coeds Point For Crew Title

A Swordfish Wrecks a Boat

MEXICO . . . For years beyond count, spear-headed monsters of the deep called swordfish have attacked boats, but no camera ever before has proved the fact. This picture comes from Mr. Howard Hill, the famed diver. Mr. Hill shot the 245-pound Marlin in this picture with a barbed arrow attached to regulation heavy tackle. Twenty yards from the dory, the fish in an unanticipated rage of viciousness, charged the boat.

Four Nobel Prize Winners Talk Shop

CHICAGO, Ill. . . . Four Nobel prize winners headed an array of physicists who gathered at the University of Chicago to take part in the international symposium on cosmic rays. Left to right: Dr. Victor F. Hess of Fordham University, professor of physics; Dr. Werner Karl Heisenberg, professor of theoretical physics at the University of Leipzig; Dr. Carl D. Anderson, California Institute of Technology; and Dr. Arthur H. Compton, University of Chicago physicist.

McNUTT AGREES TO ENTER RACE FOR PRESIDENT

Washington, July 7.—A "go ahead" signal was flashed from the White House yesterday by Paul V. McNutt, high commissioner to the Philippines, to friends seeking the Democratic presidential nomination for him in 1940.

After a two-hour luncheon meeting with the President, the former Indiana governor announced that he would resign his post in the islands within a month or six weeks.

Without disclosing whether Mr. Roosevelt had encouraged or discouraged him to run for the presidency, he reported they had a delightful time together.

"Efforts are being made on your behalf by friends in Indiana," a reporter suggested. "Will they stop now?"

"I see no reason why they should stop," McNutt replied.

"ON YON BONNY BANKS"

At last Loch Lomond meets the Mississippi!

It happens in the new Dorothy Lamour picture, "St. Louis Blues," at the Pastime Theatre Thursday and Friday, with Maxine Sullivan glorifying Scotland's famed lake in her own inimitable way in a film set along the banks of "ole man fibber."

The picture boasts the largest number of new hit tunes heard in any one film this season, and featuring in its all-star cast such famous names as Dorothy Lamour, Lloyd Nolan, Tito Guizar, Maxine Sullivan, Mary "Punkins" Parker, Matty Malneck and his orchestra and a dozen others.

In the song routine of "St. Louis Blues," which must already be familiar to any one who has listened to the radio: "Kind a Lonesome," "Junior," "I Go For That," "Blue Nightfall" and "Let's Dream in the Moonlight."

Don't miss it.

The object of punishment is the prevention of evil; it can never be made impulsive to good.—Horace Mann.

MONETARY BILL BECOMES LAW

Washington, July 5.—Acting swiftly, President Roosevelt yesterday signed the controversial bill continuing his power to change the gold content of the dollar and to operate a $2,000,000,000 fund to keep currency relationships stable on the world money markets.

MAHATMA GANDHI

The World's Best Known Man Carries False Teeth in his Looin Cloth

Every so often, out in India, a little brown man, wearing a looin cloth, lays himself down on a cot, refuses to eat, and threatens to fast until he dies. Then newspapers all over the world feature the story because Mahatma Gandhi is one of the leading figures of this generation.

Reckoned in terms of money, Gandhi is a poor man. If he sold all his earthly possessions, they probably would not bring 75 cents; yet he is more powerful than any millionaire on earth.

Physically, he is weak; and he refuses to use force or violence; yet his teachings and his spiritual influence are more potent and powerful than a hundred battleships of England.

One person out of every six on earth lives in India. And for centuries, these people of India have been asleep, now this little frail man, who weighs less than a hundred pounds, is arousing India to a sense of its own gigantic power. He is instituting reforms that may have far-reaching effects on the history of the world.

There are many curious things about Gandhi. For example, he has a set of false teeth, which he carries in a fold of his looin cloth. He puts them in his mouth only when he wants to eat. After his meal, he takes them out, washes them, and puts them back in his looin cloth again.

He speaks English with an Irish accent, for one of his first teachers was an Irishman. He wears nothing but a looin cloth now, but for years he lived in London and wore a silk hat and spats and carried a cane.

He was educated at London University and became an attorney. But the first time he attempted to make a speech in court, his knees trembled, and he was so frightened that he had to sit down in confusion and defeat.

As a lawyer in London he got nowhere at all. He was practically a failure there.

Years before, when he first came to England, his Irish teacher made him copy the Sermon on the Mount, over and over again, purely as an exercise in English. Hour after hour, Gandhi wrote "Blessed are the meek; for they shall inherit the earth. . . . Blessed are the peacemakers for they shall be called the children of God," and these words made a profound impression on him.

Presently, he was sent to South Africa to collect some huge debts; and he tried to apply there the philosophy of the Sermon on the Mount. And it worked. Clients flocked to M. H. Gandhi because he settled their claims peacefully out of court and saved them time and expense. He soon had an income of fifteen thousand dollars a year. The meek was inheriting the earth.

But was he happy? No. Because he knew that untold millions of his fellow countrymen were living in misery. He had seen thousands die of starvation, and worldly success seemed cheap and unimportant. So he gave up all his money, and took the vow of poverty, and since that time, he has consecrated his life to helping the poor and the downtrodden.

Millions regard Mahatma Gandhi as a saint. Others believe that he is the reincarnation of a Hindu god. In a world filled with sordid greed and selfishness, I, for one, feel like standing with bowed head before this man who is seeking nothing for himself but is willing to die in order that others may live.
