South of Tamarack. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carter Eggers of Creston, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. South of Tamarack. The ceremony was performed by Magistrate Hahn.

Dula-Keller

Miss Mary Elise Keller of Shulls Mills, became the bride of John Dula of Blowing Rock, Saturday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Magistrate Edw. N. Hahn.

Woman's Club Elects New Officers

The general meeting of the Boone Worth While Woman's Club was held January 30 in the art building of Appalachian College, with a good attendance on a stormy night.

Officers elected for the coming year are as follows: President, Mrs. Van Hinson; vice-president, Mrs. William Matheson; secretary, Miss Elizabeth Lord; treasurer, Mrs. Russell D. Hodges; reporter, Mrs. Graydon Eggers.

Never Fail Class Meets

The town girls' Never Fail class of the First Baptist church held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Miss Milton Mast, with Miss Mast and Miss Iva Dean Norris joint hostesses.

Miss Nadine Gragg, class president, opened the meeting with a devotional, after which the business of the evening was taken up. Perhaps the most important item of discussion was the proposed drive for new members and the reading of the list of prospective members as compiled by the recent religious census. Committees were appointed by the president to go over the city and personally invite the new prospects to attend Sunday school. The class hopes by this drive to add many new members for the coming year to the already growing group of town young ladies.

After the business discussion a surprise handkerchief shower was given for Miss Virginia Blair, who is leaving soon to further her training as a nurse in City Hospital, St. Louis, Mo.

Delicious refreshments, consisting of fruit salad, chocolate and cup cakes, were served by Miss Mast and Miss Norris to the following members: Misses Sylvia Page, Virginia Blair, Delight Pearson, Hazel Adams, Stella Rogers, Edna Payne, Louise Wyke, Nadine Gragg, Teresa Brown, Trula Gragg, Cora Darden, Helen Wilcox, Rosalind Page, Frances Jackson, Cleo Greer and Mrs. H. R. Eggers, class teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowe Observe Golden Wedding Anniversary

Banner Elk, Feb. 3.—One of the loveliest affairs that has ever occurred in the village of Banner Elk took place on last Sunday, when Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Lowe observed the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. The celebration took place at the Banner Elk hotel, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lowe.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowe have lived their entire lives—she is 71, he is 79—in Banner Elk, which community their forebears helped to found, and both have been prominent in the civic, religious and political life of the community and county.

The wedding of Robert L. Lowe to Blanche VonCannon took place in 1891. To this union were born seven children, all living. All sons and daughters, all 17 grandchildren and one of the two great grandchildren came to Banner Elk for the celebration.

The only guest who had attended the wedding was Mrs. T. L. Lowe of Banner, who was bridesmaid when Mr. and Mrs. Lowe were married. Among the guests was Katherine Jennings of Banner Elk, a great-niece.

In the receiving line with Mr. and Mrs. Lowe were Mr. and Mrs. James Guignard, brother-in-law and only sister of Mrs. Lowe; Mrs. T. L. Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. Fred VonCannon, Mr. J. H. VonCannon, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Isenhour and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Lowe.

Golden gifts of every description were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Lowe, and telegrams poured in from friends who were unable to be present for the occasion. One hundred and seventy-five guests called during the afternoon, joining in a tribute of friendship and congratulation to two of the best loved people in western North Carolina.

Carter-Wilson

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Carter announce the marriage of their daughter, Vivian, to Mr. Burnice Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wilson of Mountain City, Tenn. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Lee Cable in Butler, Tenn., on Saturday, February 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will reside in Mountain City, where Mr. Wilson is employed.

St. Luke's Auxiliary Met Tuesday Evening

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Luke's Episcopal church held its regular meeting Tuesday evening at the church.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. H. S. Webster, with a prayer for Christian social relations.

The missionary topic for the evening was Alaska and Mexico. Thelma Caruso gave a very interesting talk on the work carried on in the Episcopal missions and schools in Alaska by Rt. Rev. Peter Trimble Rowe, D. D., one of the denomination's oldest bishops, who in 1895 went to Alaska as the first bishop there. Last November he celebrated the 45th anniversary of his consecration. The talk on missions in Mexico was interesting also.

The next meeting of the auxiliary will be Tuesday evening, February 11th.

Will Observe Boy Scout Anniversary

Boy Scout Anniversary Week will be observed here by Troop No. 41, beginning Friday, February 7th, and continuing through the 12th. B. W. Stallings, local Scoutmaster, announces the following program for the event:

Friday, Feb. 7—Fun and weiner roast.

All Scouts are requested to wear their uniforms. We are to be the guests of the Carolina Pharmacy. This big event will take place at 4 o'clock, rain or shine.

Saturday, Feb. 8—Home day. Scouts should do some real good turn at home.

Sunday, Feb. 9—Church day. A Scout is reverent. A special service will be held at the Baptist church at 7 p. m. All Scouts in the county are invited. Rev. James L. McLarty will deliver the message.

Monday, Feb. 10—Civic day. Scouts will take over the government of the town from 4 to 5 p. m. The highest ranking Scout will be mayor.

Tuesday, Feb. 11—Annual banquet. The banquet will be held at the Methodist church in the downstairs auditorium. All Scouts, Scouters, parents and officials are invited.

Wednesday, Feb. 12—Institutional day. A real good turn performed by the troop for the institutions that sponsor it.

Thursday, Feb. 13—Theatre party. Our theatre party has been arranged so the Scouts can see the extra fine picture, "River's End," as guests of Mr. C. H. Trotter and the Appalachian theatre. Admission as usual on the registration card; 7:15 p. m.

BOY SCOUTS DEFEAT BLOWING ROCK IN OVERTIME PERIOD

Troop No. 41 of Boone met a much improved team from Blowing Rock Monday evening at the Boone high school gym and finally won out after having played three extra periods. The score stood 9 to 10 in favor of the visitors at half time. When the regular game ended the score was tied 17-all. The fine defensive work of Ted Hagan had a lot to do with the outcome of the game. Charles Rogers was high scorer. Scouts playing were: Chas. Rogers, Gene Bingham, Jimmie Winkler, Ted Hagan, Jimmie McConnell, Albert King, Steve Davis and Richard Bingham.

All boys above 12 years of age are entitled to join the troop.

COVE CREEK BASKETEERS WIN FROM NEWLAND HIGH

Both boys' and girls' basketball teams of Newland high school were defeated by the Cove Creek squads on the Cove Creek court last Friday afternoon. Chief offensive man for Cove Creek was Benny Baird, who also staged strong defensive competition for the locals. Final scores were: Cove Creek 32, Newland 14. Winning of points in the girls' game was fairly well distributed with the sextet downing the Newland lassies 32 to 3.

In a double-header encounter at Mountain City, Tenn., last Saturday evening, the Cove Creek boys lost to their opponents by a score of 18 to 27. Near the beginning of the last quarter with the score 17 to 20 in favor of Mountain City, three first stringers fouled out, and from then on the game went steadily against them.

The girls won over the Mountain City sextet 26 to 13. Leaders in the offensive for Cove Creek were Edith Rominger with Addie Bingham running a close second. Geraldine Bingham and Margaret McConnell led in defensive playing. Return games with the Mountain City squads will be played at Cove Creek Friday evening, February 7.
