Recent Bride

Mrs. S. Roger Matthews, the former Miss Jacqueline Hardin of Washington, D. C., and Boone, whose recent marriage to Sgt. Matthews of the finance department of the II Air Corps of the U. S. Army, now in Alaska has been of keen interest to their many friends throughout the Carolinas. Mrs. Matthews is a daughter of Mrs. R. H. Hardin and the late Dr. Hardin of Boone and Banner Elk. She has resumed her work with the Signal Corps in Washington, while Sgt. Matthews has returned to his post in Alaska.

The bride had as her only attendant her sister, Mrs. T. R. Grayson, of North Wilkesboro. Sgt. Albert F. Hess of Sturgis, Ky., served as best man. The bride was attired in a striking suit of fuchsia wool with powder blue accessories. She wore a shoulder corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Grayson wore a suit of slate blue with a corsage of pink carnations. A reception was given for the bridal party immediately after the ceremony. The table, covered with a cloth of imported lace, was centered with a three-tier wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Ray Shoemaker, of North Wilkesboro, served the cake, and Mrs. Clara Mitchell Grayson of Salt Lake City, presided over the punch bowl, assisted by Mrs. Mary Stallings of Pocatella, Idaho. Mrs. Martin, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Watson, of Boone, was educated in the Boone schools and Appalachian College. Martin is attached to the air force training unit at Kearnes Field.

Society Notes

Literature and Education Department Holds Meeting. The Literature and Education Department met November 2 at the library with Mrs. Ingle and Mrs. Qualls as hostesses, the chairman presiding. The department decided to sponsor the camp fire girls and the Blue Birds as one of the projects for the year. The theme was book week, to be observed November 12 to 18. The value of books in the training of youth was emphasized with book displays and posters. A poem, "American Reasons," by Bonato Overstreet, was read by Mrs. Ingle and a brief discussion of what this heritage of free reading means to us, was given by Mrs. Grubbs. Refreshments were served by the hostesses. Miss Watson Marries Sgt. George R. Martin. Mooreville, N. C.—In an impressive ring ceremony, Miss Virginia Eloise Watson, of Mooreville and Boone, was wed to Sgt. George R. Martin, A.A.F., of Kearnes Field, Utah, and Batavia, N. Y., on Oct. 14, in Salt Lake City, Utah. The vows were spoken in the Immanuel Baptist Church with Rev. Austin W. Lyons officiating. Prior to the ceremony Henry W. Thorton, church organist, rendered a musical program on the organ.

decorated with 159 candles. Her husband and children were present, as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Farthing, Butler, Tenn.; Mrs. Coy Cooke, Eubank, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. Floss Eggers, Sugar Grove, Ross Eggers, Baltimore, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Eggers, Sugar Grove; nine grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren, also a number of relatives and friends, there being 50 present in all. Mrs. Eggers is a well-known and prominent woman of the Beaver Dam section, and has been in ill health for some time. Even though she had to remain in bed most of the day, she seemed to enjoy herself to the fullest. We all wish for her many more happy birthdays.—Reported.

Worthwhile Club Holds Guest Night Meeting. The Worthwhile Woman's Club met Monday evening, Oct. 30, at the club room. Mrs. A. E. South, president, opened the meeting with all singing the Star-Spangled Banner. The club collect was read. It was guest night and Mrs. South recognized all present and issued to each an invitation to become a member of the club. Mrs. B. W. Stallings, War Loan drive chairman, was asked to give a report on plans for the 6th War Loan drive which begins Nov. 11. Plans worked out by the War Loan committee were: (1) that each member set aside a sum from the monthly budget to buy one $25 bond; (2) that for every new-born baby the parents purchase a bond; (3) that wives of all service men buy a bond for them. The program for the evening followed with Mrs. Wiley Hartzog giving an interesting and enlightening discussion on "Flower Arrangements." Attractive illustrations of some of the members were displayed.

Mrs. South, representative to the district meeting, reported on her trip. Two projects, to be decided upon by each club, were to be undertaken for the year. Several committee reports were made. The yearbook committee consisting of Mrs. D. L. Wilcox, Mrs. R. C. Winebarger and Mrs. Edwin Troutman, were commended for their work. The club voted to sponsor a Girl Scout organization to continue through the summer. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses: Mesdames D. L. Wilcox, E. F. Troutman, E. S. Qualls and J. O. Cook, after which a motion was carried to adjourn. Among the guests present were: Mrs. J. K. Parker, Jr., Mrs. Scoggins, Mrs. A. R. Smith, Mrs. J. D. Farthing and Mrs. Louise H. DeLina.

Mrs. Elwin Harrison, who is employed by the Northwestern Bank, in Sparta, spent the week-end here with relatives. Pfc. Ernest Eggers is here from Georgia for a short visit with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Eggers. A sister, Miss Pauline Eggers, who has employment in North Wilkesboro also spent the week-end here. Mrs. Victoria Hodge is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Jane Church, at Mabel for a few days. A very successful revival meeting closed at Zionville church on Sunday with nine additions to the church. Rev. W. D. Ashley, the pastor, was assisted by Rev. R. C. Cook of Globe in the services. Miss Edna Thomas of Beech Creek and John Thomas Bingham of Sugar Grove spent the week-end here with Mrs. Lillie Thomas. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Duncan were also Sunday guests here in the Thomas home. "Uncle" Solomon Grogan returned Sunday from the Jones Hospital in Johnson City, Tenn., where he underwent an operation on his eye for the removal of a cataract. Curtis May of Johnson City accompanied Mrs. Grogan home and visited relatives here Monday. The home of Miss Alma Warren was completely destroyed by fire last week, and only a few articles belonging to Miss Warren as well as Mr. and Mrs. Carol Icenhour, who lived in the house, were saved. Mrs. Frank Warren has returned from Montezuma where she spent a week visiting her sons, Richard, Carl and Oscar Townsend. Misses Imogene Castle and Jane Yerkes and Warren Castle of Kingsport, Tenn., were guests here of relatives Sunday. Mrs. Russell Knill (Gladys Icenhour) and small son have returned from Baltimore, Md., where they visited Pvt. Knill's mother. Pvt. Knill is in Italy.
