AUGUST BRIDE

MRS. BRUCE D. SAPP

Miss Young is Bride of Bruce Daniel Sapp

The First Methodist Church was the scene of a beautiful wedding Saturday afternoon, August 24, at 5:30 o'clock, when Miss Tharon Young of Boone became the bride of Daniel Sapp, of Rich Square.

Before the ceremony, Mrs. Joseph Williams, organist, played "Because," by d'Hardelot, "I Love You Truly," by Bond, "Always" by Berlin, Dr. Winters, of Blowing Rock, N. C. sang "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes." The wedding march, "Lohengrin" by Wagner was used for the procession and "Oh Perfect Love" was played during the ceremony.

Rev. J. C. Canipe of the bride's church, officiated, assisted by Dr. E. K. McLarty, pastor of the church. The vows were spoken before an arch covered with fern and greenery. The background was of white and green and on either side of the arch were candelabra holding cathedral tapers, flanked by large baskets of white gladioli.

John Broodnac of Columbia, S. C. was best man. Ushers were Mac Davis of Nashville, Tenn., Nathaniel Macon, New Bern, Lloyd Isaacs and R. D. Hodges, Jr., of Boone.

The bride, given in marriage by her step-father, R. W. McGuire, wore a wedding gown of white taffeta which was designed with a high braded neckline. The bodice and long sleeves, which ended in calla lily points over the hands, were of net and the hoop skirt extended into a long train. The handsome veil was of net that fitted to the coronet of orange blossoms and cascading into a long full veil. The bride carried a prayer book with an orchid and tube-roses.

Mrs. Nathaniel Macon, of New Bern was matron of honor. She wore green net dress, picture hat of the same material, and carried a large bouquet of mixed flowers. Misses Grace Council and Patsy McGuire, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore identical dresses of peach net with the picture hats and carried bouquets of mixed flowers.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. McGuire at their home. The guests were greeted by the wedding party and the table was presided over by the honorary bridesmaids that included, Mrs. Bell McLeod, Mrs. Roger Matthews, Mrs. Cecil Hackney, Misses Ruby McGuire, Agnes Preston and Clyde Kilby.

Mrs. Sapp is the popular daughter of Mrs. R. W. McGuire and the late Mr. Young. She attended the local high school, and Appalachian State Teachers College. She graduated from the University of N. C., where she was one of the outstanding students on the campus. For the past year she has worked with the Social Welfare Department in Newport News, Va.

The bridegroom, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Channing Sapp of New Bern, N. C., attended Appalachian State Teachers College before entering the Army Air Force in 1943. He served in the European theatre for sometime and has just received his discharge. The young couple will

MARRIED

MRS. DON A. RAYFIELD

Miss Margaret Elizabeth Miller is Bride of Don A. Rayfield.

Miss Margaret Elizabeth Miller of Boone, became the bride of Mr. Don A. Rayfield, Saturday evening, August 24th at 8:00 in the James I. Vance Memorial Presbyterian church.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. J. K. Parker, Jr.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The vows were spoken by candle light with the church decorated with hydrangea.

Before the ceremony Miss Patsy Smith, of Mooresville, a student at A. S. T. C., played "Barcarolle."

Misses Mary Lee Stout and Erma Norris sang "I Love You Truly", then the bridal song from "Lohengren" by Richard Wagner.

The bride wore a suit of light blue gabardine with black accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of white rose buds.

Mr. Frank T. Greene, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Jack Grogan of Cove Creek, and Stacy Eggers of Boone.

The maid of honor was Miss Faye Rayfield, a sister of the groom. Her suit was light gray with black accessories.

The bridesmaids were Paulene Green, Barbara Farthing, Lucille Norris, and Mrs. Frank T. Green, of Boone; Miss Annie Miller of Mountain City, Tenn., a cousin of the bride, and Miss Minnie Dare Green of Vilas.

Mrs. Rayfield is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leam Miller of Boone. She received her education at Appalachian high school. For the last year she has been employed in Hunt's Department Store.

Mr. Rayfield is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Rayfield of Zionville Route 1.

The groom was employed in Panama and Costa Rica for three years before joining the Army. Was recently discharged after serving two years. Most of this time served overseas.

After a wedding trip the couple will make their home in Boone in school.

make their home in Chapel Hill where Mr. Sapp will be enrolled in school.
