BRIDE OF LAST WEEK

Miss Winkler is Bride of Samuel A. Moir, Jr. Miss Betty Ruth Winkler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Winkler of Boone, was married Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock to Samuel A. Moir, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Moir of Francisco in a ceremony at the First Baptist church of Boone. The Rev. J. C. Canipe, former pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

The vows were spoken before an altar banked with English ivy and palms. Five-branched candelabra holding lighted tapers and baskets of giant white chrysanthemums were placed around the altar.

Miss Virginia Wary, organist, and Miss Rachel Ann Vance, vocalist, gave a program of nuptial music. Miss Wary played "Indian Love Call" and "Clair de Lune." The traditional wedding marches were used as processional and recessional. Miss Vance sang "Unto the End" and "All For You" prior to the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer," by Malotte, at the end.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of bridal satin, cut with fitted bodice and lace yoke edged with a ruffle and long pointed sleeves. The full skirt extended into a short train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of pink roses centered with an orchid and showered with streamers of white satin ribbon and tube roses.

Mrs. Robert Lee Congleton, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her dress of pink net over taffeta was trimmed with fuchsia ribbon and she wore long fuchsia gloves. She carried a nosegay of roses, carnations and tuberose. Her headdress was a band of flowers and net.

Miss Mary Sue Winkler, another sister, was maid of honor. Her gown of pink net was trimmed with satin ribbon and her long gloves were fuchsia. Her nosegay of carnations, roses and tube roses and crown of flowers and net matched those of the maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Miss Marbeth Winkler, Boone; Mrs. William Coffey, Greensboro; Mrs. James Marsh, Boone; and Miss Jean Ingle, Winston-Salem. Their dresses were blue net over taffeta, trimmed with pink satin ribbon, and they carried bouquets of roses. They wore garlands of flowers and net.

Francis Essic, of Cana, classmate of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were William Ralph Winkler, Jr., brother of the bride, Carl Fidler of Cornelius, Vernon Felton, Rocky Mount, Warren Hawks Spray, John Kirk, Lexington; and Tex Craven of High Point.

Mrs. Winkler, mother of the bride, wore a gown of black silk trimmed with fuchsia and black sequins, and fuchsia accessories. Her corsage was of Better Times roses.

Mrs. Moir, mother of the bridegroom, wore a gown of black with white accessories and a corsage of gardenia.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents. The table was covered with a lace cloth and had a centerpiece of white snapdragons and fern.

ceremony the couple left for a short wedding trip.

The bride is a graduate of Appalachian High School. The bridegroom, a veteran of 29 months of army service, 16 of which were spent overseas, is employed with the Hibritin Chair Co., Lenoir.

Green Valley Home Club Holds Meeting

The Demonstration Club of Green Valley held its meeting with Mrs. Stuart Brown. Mrs. Byers had charge of the meeting which was opened by singing "America" and reading the collect. The minutes were read and old business was disposed with. New business was discussed. The club voted to make a quilt to sell. The quilt will be finished Dec. 10 at the home of Mrs. Byers. All members of the club are urged to be at the quilting party.

Miss Matheson then showed the club women how to make beautiful items which are useful and would be very valuable Christmas presents.

She suggested that we give our city friends a jar of food for Christmas presents.

Mrs. Brown assisted by a daughter, Mrs. Jeff Brown served delicious refreshments.

HERE'S WHY MOST MOTHERS DO THIS When Children Catch Cold Warming, soothing relief from distress of colds starts in a hurry when you rub on Vicks VapoRub at bedtime. Because VapoRub penetrates to upper bronchial tubes with its special medicinal vapors... and stimulates skin surfaces like a warming poultice. Then it works for hours to bring relief while the child sleeps! Try it tonight! AT BEDTIME rub throat, chest and back with Vicks VapoRub. Its relief-bringing action starts instantly to relieve distress... WORKS WHILE CHILD SLEEPS to bring relief during the night. Often by morning most misery of the cold is gone!

HERE'S YOUR CHANCE KIDDIES! to help those less fortunate, to a Merry Christmas: We want old toys or new ones... to give the children who have no toys at all.
