

LOCAL AFFAIRS

Mrs. Dora Hardin Phillips is spending some time visiting her son in Forest City.

Sylvia Tolliver has returned to her home in Elizabethton, Tenn., from a visit with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Adams announce the birth of a daughter at Watauga Hospital on June 14.

Mrs. Joe Stevenson, of Alexandria, Virginia, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Filmore Bingham, who has been sick for sometime.

Mrs. Earl Blackburn is a patient at Charlotte Memorial Hospital, where she is taking a course of treatments.

Jane Rivers returned Thursday from Washington, D. C. where she had spent two weeks visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rivers.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Williams of Camp Yonahlossee on June 2, a son, who was named Perry Nicholson Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Gragg and family of Greensboro, were visitors with relatives here last week.

Mr. Stuart Greene and sisters, Lola and Joan Reba, of Laxton made a business trip to Gettysburg, Pa., last week.

Miss Sylvia Greer of Winston-Salem is spending a few days visiting with relatives and friends in the community.

Mrs. J. C. Sherwood of Bristol, Va., and Mrs. Inez Ellis of Washington, D. C. were guests last week of their sister, Mrs. A. J. Payne.

Major J. H. Thomas who has been a patient at a Naval hospital in Key West, Fla., has returned to his home at 214 Cherry Park.

Hasseltine Hoffer of Gatesville, N. C. will spend some time in the home of Mrs. Margaret Hughes and will attend the summer sessions of Appalachian high school.

Mrs. T. M. Greer, of the local welfare board, is taking a six weeks' course in public welfare work at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill.

Mrs. Willard Beach left Sunday for York, S. C. where she was called to the bedside of a sister. She will be away for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Smith and daughters, Tharon and Linda, of Macon, Ga., visited at the home of Mrs. Smith's parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. K. Bingham recently.

Mrs. A. R. Sherman of Wilkesboro, spent the past two weeks visiting at the homes of Misses Sallie and Lelia Ray and Dr. and Mrs. R. K. Bingham.

Mrs. W. B. Thomas and daughter, Patsy, are spending the summer in Boone, while Mr. Thomas is at Chapel Hill doing graduate work at the University.

Miss Martha Jane Qualls has returned from a Statesville hospital, where she went for an emergency appendectomy Monday of last week. She is recovering normally.

Rev. Grady Minton and family are moving from Vilas to Bluff City, Tenn., where Rev. Mr. Minton has been called to the pastorate of the Chincapin Grove Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Edmisten attended the funeral of Mr. Robert H. Sheffield in Elizabethton, Tenn., last Sunday. Mr. Sheffield was a cousin of Mrs. Edmisten.

Mr. and Mrs. George Elmore and children of Raleigh are spending several weeks with Mrs. Elmore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith.

Mrs. Ella Baker and little daughter, Barbra of Granite Falls, were dinner guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Greene on Boone Route 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Wilson and Eunice Wilson of Cleveland, Ohio, have been visiting with Mr. Ray Wilson of Silverstone. They were visitors in Boone Saturday.

Miss Wanda Hodges, and Miss Ann Wilcox who are residing in Norfolk, Va., have returned from Madison, Wis., where they visited at the home of Miss Hodges' aunt, Mrs. R. L. Malta and Mr. Malta.

Miss Cleo Greene is spending her vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde R. Greene. Miss Greene will graduate from the Davis Hospital School of Nursing, Statesville, September 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Suddreth of Lenoir, Route 4, spent last week visiting with Mrs. Suddreth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Jones of Boone, Route 2, and other relatives and friends in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert S. Taylor of Valle Crucis and Raleigh announce the birth of twin sons in Raleigh on June twenty-second, who have been named Richard Smith and David Gilbert. Mrs. Taylor is the former Miss Margaret Greene of Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Payne and son, Frank, Jr., left Saturday for Myrtle Beach, S. C. to attend the annual convention of the Security Life and Trust Company, which will be held at the Ocean Forest Hotel from June 22nd to 25th.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith have returned after spending several weeks with their son Frank and family, in Fayette, Ala., and son Burke and wife, in Durham. They attended Duke commencement, at which time Burke received his Degree of Doctor of Philosophy, from the University.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Davis and children of Arlington, Va., visited last week-end with relatives in the county. Mr. Davis returned but Mrs. Davis and children will spend some time with her mother, Mrs. Lona Cook of Blowing Rock.

Baltimore Couple Married Here

MR. AND MRS. MARION D. CAVER

Mrs. Deloris Lisette Boyce Weds Marion D. Caver

Mrs. Effie Martin Wentz of Baltimore, Md., announces the marriage of her daughter, Mrs. Deloris Lisette Boyce, to Marion D. Caver, also of Baltimore, on Sunday, June 8, at 4:30 p. m. The marriage was solemnized in the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. A. A. Greene, of Deep Gap, with the Rev. W. G. Bond, of the First Baptist Church of Boone, officiating, using the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a dress of pale blue crepe with white accessories.

Her corsage was of white gardenias. The maid of honor, Miss Lavila Martin, sister of the bride, wore pink crepe styled identical to that of the bride. Her corsage was white rosebuds. Paul Miller of Deep Gap, acted as best man. The house was beautifully decorated with fern and purple rhododendron.

Immediately after the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Caver left for a wedding trip to Atlantic City, N. J., after which they will be at home in Baltimore. Mr. Caver is employed as head of the accounting department of the Cello-Wax Company there.

Mrs. Kilby was educated at Appalachian State Teachers College and for the past year has taught in North Wilkesboro.

The bridegroom was educated in the schools of North Wilkesboro, and has been recently discharged from the armed forces after serving four years.

Howard's Creek Home Club Meets With Mrs. Norris

On Thursday, June 19, members of the Howard's Creek Club were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Clint Norris at her home.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Grace Hardin. A song was sung, the collect repeated, and a prayer by Mrs. Hamby.

The business period was brief, after which the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Hamby. The lesson on canning and the discussions proved very helpful and was enjoyed by all.

At the close of the meeting a delightful social hour was enjoyed. Mrs. Norris served a delicious party plate to the members and guests present.

The next meeting will be the annual picnic, and all members are asked to meet at the home of Mrs. Judd Barnes on July 17 at 12:30. Each member will be notified as to what she will bring.

Mrs. Honeycutt was graduated from Monticello high school and completed the one-year commercial course at Appalachian College, Boone, of which the bridegroom is also an alumnus. Mr. Honeycutt served in the navy two years, with duty in the South Pacific.

Following the wedding breakfast the couple left on an extended honeymoon to Niagara Falls and points west.

For travel the bride changed to a Palm Beach suit with which she wore black accessories. At the shoulder she wore a corsage of pink roses taken from her bouquet.

Mrs. Neel is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jamison Preston of Detroit, Mich., the granddaughter of Mrs. Lillian Hopkins of Boone, where the bride has made her home for a number of years. She received her education in the Detroit city schools, Appalachian high school, and was graduated from Appalachian State Teachers College in 1946. For the past year she has been supervisor of public school music in the Mooresville schools.

Mr. Neel, only child of Mrs. Sam Neel and the late S. S. Neel of Mooresville, graduated from Central school in Mooresville and from the University of North Carolina in 1943. After three years in the navy as a lieutenant

(j.g.), he returned to the university where he is now a law student.

Wedding Breakfast

After the wedding Mrs. Lillian Hopkins, grandmother of the bride, entertained the wedding party and out-of-town guests at a breakfast at the home of Mrs. Joe C. Cooke on Main street. Receiving with the bride and groom were Mrs. Hopkins and Mrs. Sam Neel, mother of the groom.

White gladioli were arranged in the living room and formed a beautiful centerpiece for the dining table where breakfast was served buffet style. Serving were Mrs. Roy Johnson, Mrs. John Barden and Mrs. Francis Dwight. Mrs. E. A. Dobbin presided at the register.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were: Mrs. W. H. Wiley, grandmother of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wallace of Charlotte; Mrs. W. M. Neel, grandmother of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cavin, Mr. Robert Howard, Mrs. Fern Tharpe Trivette, Charles Trivette and Mrs. Sam Neel, Mooresville; Rev. and Mrs. Hugh A. Dobbin, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dobbin of Lenoir; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pearson and Mrs. Ruby Johnson of North Wilkesboro; Mayor and Mrs. Grover Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Buxton of Blowing Rock; Mr. and Mrs. James Miller and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Miller of Todd.

Cake Cutting

Wednesday evening following the Preston-Neel wedding rehearsal, Mrs. Lillian Hopkins entertained at a cake cutting at her home on Howard street.

Candlelight was used throughout the house, which was decorated with roses, mch orange, and greens. In the center of the dining room was a giant bouquet of greens and orange blossoms showered with white ribbon. In the center of the table, which was covered by a handsome lace-cloth, was a three-tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom. Miss Preston and Mr. Neel cut the first piece of cake, after which Mrs. John Barden served the guests. Punch was poured by Mrs. Francis Dwight and mints were served by Katherine Ann Dwight.

About fifty guests were present.

Cool Springs Club Holds Meeting Tuesday

The Cool Springs Home Demonstration Club met at 2:00 o'clock Tuesday, June 17th at the home of Mrs. Henry Michael. The officers are Mrs. Victor Farthing, president; Mrs. Lee Ward, vice-president; Mrs. Perry Watson, secretary-treasurer.

The demonstration was on canning and we had a good discussion.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Lee Ward.

Recent Bride

MRS. HOWARD HONEYCUTT

Miss Huffries is Bride of Mr. Howard Honeycutt

Monticello Christian Church, near Greensboro, was the scene of the wedding May 24, at 7:00 o'clock in the evening, of Miss Miss Marian Lucille Huffries, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Brooks Huffries, and Howard Honeycutt, only son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Honeycutt of Boone.

Rev. Mack Welch, pastor, officiated, with Rev. Q. V. Crouse, pastor of Friendship Methodist Church.

Attending the couple were Miss Jean Stanfield, maid of honor; Wallace E. Oxner, Charleston, S. C., best man; Miss Jacqueline Diggins, Greensboro, Mrs. Selina Henson Honeycutt of Boone, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Jerry Caldwell of North Wilkesboro, and Miss Iris Brende, bridesmaids; Shirley Anne Huffries, eight-year-old sister of the bride, was ring-bearer, and Pete Coffey, Crate Teague and Cotton Pinick, all of Boone, and Donald Trexler were ushers.

Miss Jane Hopkins, Reidsville, Mrs. H. C. Stamper and Howard Lambeth rendered the wedding music. The church was arranged in green and white, dominated by a kneeling bench and a flower arch lighted by tall, tapering candles.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Stanfield, parents of the maid of honor, gave a reception at their home where approximately 200 guests were present.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a gown of white slipper satin made with leg-o-mutton sleeves, high neckline, and a wide skirt with circular train. Her fingertip veil was bound to a seed pearl crown and she carried a white orchid on a prayer-book showered with valley lilies and baby's breath. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

The attendants were gowned in pastel shades of satin and carried gladioli in mixed colors. The maid of honor wore blue and the bridesmaids yellow, green, pink and orchid. The junior attendant wore a long white satin frock with a halo ruffle for her ruffle for her hair and carried the two rings on a white satin pillow. The bride's mother was in seafoam crepe with black and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore grey with pink accessories. Both wore white orchids.

For travel, the bride wore an aqua-marine suit and white accessories.

After spending a week in Charleston, S. C., Mr. and Mrs. Honeycutt are at home in Greensboro, where he has recently been named electrical inspector for Guilford county.

Mrs. Honeycutt was graduated from Monticello high school and completed the one-year commercial course at Appalachian College, Boone, of which the bridegroom is also an alumnus. Mr. Honeycutt served in the navy two years, with duty in the South Pacific.

Following the wedding breakfast the couple left on an extended honeymoon to Niagara Falls and points west.

For travel the bride changed to a Palm Beach suit with which she wore black accessories. At the shoulder she wore a corsage of pink roses taken from her bouquet.

Mrs. Neel is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jamison Preston of Detroit, Mich., the granddaughter of Mrs. Lillian Hopkins of Boone, where the bride has made her home for a number of years. She received her education in the Detroit city schools, Appalachian high school, and was graduated from Appalachian State Teachers College in 1946. For the past year she has been supervisor of public school music in the Mooresville schools.

Mr. Neel, only child of Mrs. Sam Neel and the late S. S. Neel of Mooresville, graduated from Central school in Mooresville and from the University of North Carolina in 1943. After three years in the navy as a lieutenant

(j.g.), he returned to the university where he is now a law student.

Wedding Breakfast

After the wedding Mrs. Lillian Hopkins, grandmother of the bride, entertained the wedding party and out-of-town guests at a breakfast at the home of Mrs. Joe C. Cooke on Main street. Receiving with the bride and groom were Mrs. Hopkins and Mrs. Sam Neel, mother of the groom.

White gladioli were arranged in the living room and formed a beautiful centerpiece for the dining table where breakfast was served buffet style. Serving were Mrs. Roy Johnson, Mrs. John Barden and Mrs. Francis Dwight. Mrs. E. A. Dobbin presided at the register.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were: Mrs. W. H. Wiley, grandmother of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wallace of Charlotte; Mrs. W. M. Neel, grandmother of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cavin, Mr. Robert Howard, Mrs. Fern Tharpe Trivette, Charles Trivette and Mrs. Sam Neel, Mooresville; Rev. and Mrs. Hugh A. Dobbin, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dobbin of Lenoir; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pearson and Mrs. Ruby Johnson of North Wilkesboro; Mayor and Mrs. Grover Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Buxton of Blowing Rock; Mr. and Mrs. James Miller and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Miller of Todd.

Cake Cutting

Wednesday evening following the Preston-Neel wedding rehearsal, Mrs. Lillian Hopkins entertained at a cake cutting at her home on Howard street.

Candlelight was used throughout the house, which was decorated with roses, mch orange, and greens. In the center of the dining room was a giant bouquet of greens and orange blossoms showered with white ribbon. In the center of the table, which was covered by a handsome lace-cloth, was a three-tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom. Miss Preston and Mr. Neel cut the first piece of cake, after which Mrs. John Barden served the guests. Punch was poured by Mrs. Francis Dwight and mints were served by Katherine Ann Dwight.

About fifty guests were present.

Cool Springs Club Holds Meeting Tuesday

The Cool Springs Home Demonstration Club met at 2:00 o'clock Tuesday, June 17th at the home of Mrs. Henry Michael. The officers are Mrs. Victor Farthing, president; Mrs. Lee Ward, vice-president; Mrs. Perry Watson, secretary-treasurer.

The demonstration was on canning and we had a good discussion.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Lee Ward.

Bride and Groom

MR. AND MRS. WM. S. NEEL

Miss Preston is Bride of William S. Neel

In a ceremony of charm and simplicity, Miss Lillian Agnes Preston of Boone and Detroit, Mich., became the bride of William Stewart Neel of Mooresville, at the First Methodist Church in Boone, June 19, at 10:30 o'clock.

Dr. John G. Barden heard the vows before a lovely green and white setting. Tall baskets of white gladioli graced each side of the arch. Spruce and hemlock were used in the background, while two seven-branched candelabra shed a soft light.

The bride and groom entered the church unattended. Ushers were Robert Howard and Robert Cavin of Mooresville.

Miss Clara Rutledge of Lenoir, organist, and Miss Virginia Wary of Boone, soloist, presented a program of wedding music before the ceremony. Miss Mary sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and read Elizabeth Barrett Browning's "How Do I Love Thee" to the accompaniment of "I Love You Truly." The wedding march from Lohengrin was used for the professional and during the service "To a Wild Rose" by MacDowell, was played. Mendelssohn's march was used for the professional.

The bride wore a two-piece original model of ice blue satin fashioned with a bustle back. Her hat was a Lilly Dache straw of navy blue and her other accessories were navy. She carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses and baby's breath with satin streamers. She wore a gold bracelet, an heirloom of the groom's mother, and a string of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. Hopkins, grandmother of the bride, wore a grey printed sheer dress with black accessories, and a corsage of Talisman roses. Mrs. Neel, mother of the groom, was dressed in white with a corsage of red roses.

Following the wedding breakfast the couple left on an extended honeymoon to Niagara Falls and points west.

For travel the bride changed to a Palm Beach suit with which she wore black accessories. At the shoulder she wore a corsage of pink roses taken from her bouquet.

Mrs. Neel is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jamison Preston of Detroit, Mich., the granddaughter of Mrs. Lillian Hopkins of Boone, where the bride has made her home for a number of years. She received her education in the Detroit city schools, Appalachian high school, and was graduated from Appalachian State Teachers College in 1946. For the past year she has been supervisor of public school music in the Mooresville schools.

Mr. Neel, only child of Mrs. Sam Neel and the late S. S. Neel of Mooresville, graduated from Central school in Mooresville and from the University of North Carolina in 1943. After three years in the navy as a lieutenant

(j.g.), he returned to the university where he is now a law student.

Wedding Breakfast

After the wedding Mrs. Lillian Hopkins, grandmother of the bride, entertained the wedding party and out-of-town guests at a breakfast at the home of Mrs. Joe C. Cooke on Main street. Receiving with the bride and groom were Mrs. Hopkins and Mrs. Sam Neel, mother of the groom.

White gladioli were arranged in the living room and formed a beautiful centerpiece for the dining table where breakfast was served buffet style. Serving were Mrs. Roy Johnson, Mrs. John Barden and Mrs. Francis Dwight. Mrs. E. A. Dobbin presided at the register.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were: Mrs. W. H. Wiley, grandmother of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wallace of Charlotte; Mrs. W. M. Neel, grandmother of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cavin, Mr. Robert Howard, Mrs. Fern Tharpe Trivette, Charles Trivette and Mrs. Sam Neel, Mooresville; Rev. and Mrs. Hugh A. Dobbin, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dobbin of Lenoir; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pearson and Mrs. Ruby Johnson of North Wilkesboro; Mayor and Mrs. Grover Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Buxton of Blowing Rock; Mr. and Mrs. James Miller and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Miller of Todd.

Cake Cutting

Wednesday evening following the Preston-Neel wedding rehearsal, Mrs. Lillian Hopkins entertained at a cake cutting at her home on Howard street.

Candlelight was used throughout the house, which was decorated with roses, mch orange, and greens. In the center of the dining room was a giant bouquet of greens and orange blossoms showered with white ribbon. In the center of the table, which was covered by a handsome lace-cloth, was a three-tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom. Miss Preston and Mr. Neel cut the first piece of cake, after which Mrs. John Barden served the guests. Punch was poured by Mrs. Francis Dwight and mints were served by Katherine Ann Dwight.

About fifty guests were present.

Cool Springs Club Holds Meeting Tuesday

The Cool Springs Home Demonstration Club met at 2:00 o'clock Tuesday, June 17th at the home of Mrs. Henry Michael. The officers are Mrs. Victor Farthing, president; Mrs. Lee Ward, vice-president; Mrs. Perry Watson, secretary-treasurer.

The demonstration was on canning and we had a good discussion.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Lee Ward.

Married Saturday

MRS. GWYN J. KILBY

Miss Mary Lillian Wilcox is Bride of Gwyn Jones Kilby

Miss Mary Lillian Wilcox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Wilcox of Boone, was married Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock to Gwyn Jones Kilby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kilby, of North Wilkesboro. The ceremony was performed at the First Baptist Church of Boone, with Dr. J. C. Canipe, former pastor, and Dr. W. G. Bond, pastor, officiating.

Mrs. Edward Stroupe of Clover, S. C., sister of the bride, organist, gave a program of wedding music. Her selections were "Traumeri" and "Ave Marie", played prior to the ceremony, and "Claire de Lune" while the vows were spoken. Miss Jean Wilcox of Boone, sang "Through the Years" and "Because." Pastel flowers, interlaced with fern and spirea foliage were used to decorate the church.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an afternoon frock of white crepe with white accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with white orchids and showered with satin streamers and lily-of-the-valley. She wore a string of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Nancy Jean Wilcox, younger sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a dress of peach crepe with peach and white accessories. She carried a nosegay of sweet peas and delphinium.

Miss Julia Meade Grey of Greensboro, and Miss Ruby Dare Edwards of North Wilkesboro, were bridesmaids. They wore dresses of pastel shades of green and blue and carried nosegays corresponding with those of the maid of honor. Their accessories were white.

Ushers were Charles Sink, Jr., Ward Kenerly and Lomax Kilby of North Wilkesboro, and Edward Stroup of Clover, S. C.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for a short wedding trip. After their return they will be at home in North Wilkesboro.

An Appreciation

We desire to thank the voters of Boone for their confidence in having elected us as Mayor and members of the Town Board of Aldermen, respectively, at the election held last week.

We appreciate the support of each voter in this connection, and wish to state that we will do all in our power to give a satisfactory stewardship, and to promote the progress of our splendid community.

We solicit the full co-operation of the people in our efforts.

GORDON H. WINKLER

GUY HUNT, COUNCILL COOKE, GRADY MORETZ

Tar Heels Have Party In Montana
A Tar Heel picnic was held at Ziegler Hot Springs, Twin Bridges, Montana on June 15 th.
Watauga county was well represented as well as other counties in the state.
Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Cox, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Max Nye, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Poe, Mr. and Mrs. Don Corroll, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Triplett, Carson Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Gwyn Brown, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Smith, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ronda Brown, Vern Greehe, J. R. Gentry, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Davis, and son, Carol Brandnold, Floyd Poe, Coy Brown, and family, and Ambrose Brown.
The group sang "The North Carolina Hills". Although they have learned to love Montana they have a warm place in their hearts for their native state.
(Other society notes on page 8)

Archaeologists believe horses were domesticated in Babylonia about 3,500 B. C.

APPALACHIAN THEATRE
WEDNESDAY "DECOY"
THURSDAY-FRIDAY
The Sea of Grass

SPENCER TRACY
KATHARINE HEPBURN
ROBERT WALKER
MELVYN DOUGLAS
The Sea of Grass

SATURDAY 11 O'CLOCK
NEW LASSIE HIT!
"Courage of Lassie"
Terrific in Technicolor!
Also Serial

SATURDAY 7 O'CLOCK
"DICK TRACY VS. CUEBALL"
MORGAN CONWAY
ANN JEFFREYS
Also Comedy and Sport

MONDAY-TUESDAY
Please note only 3 shows each day for this picture—at 2:35 - 5:18 - 8:00 o'Clock
Attend the 5 o'clock show if possible

TYRONE POWER - GENE TIERNEY - JOHN PAYNE
Anne BAXTER - Clifton WEBB - Herbert MARSHALL
The Razor's Edge
Adult Entertainment

WEDNESDAY
HUMPHREY BOGART
BARBARA STANWYCK
ALEXIS SMITH
in Warner's

"THE TWO MRS. CARROLLS"
Also—
LATE FOX NEWS

Pastime Theatre
Saturday 2:15, 4:00, 7:15, 9:00

"BILLY THE KID OUTLAWED"
And look what's Added!
PARDON MY TERROR
Comedy

QUIET PLEASE, Cartoon
THRILLS OF MUSIC
and—
Chapter No. 5
"SON OF ZORO"

THRILL AND CHILL with TARZAN

The Appalachian
THE 4TH OF JULY

YONAHLOSSEE THEATRE
Blowing Rock, N. C. Dial 3071
—Presents—
A Week of Fine Entertainment
THURSDAY
Handsome CORNEL WILDE
Luscious MAUREEN O'HARA
—in—
"Homestretch" (In Technicolor)
FRIDAY
FRED MacMURRAY
PAULETTE GODDARD
—in—
"Suddenly It's Spring" (An Excellent Comedy Drama on the Romantic Side)
SATURDAY
The Flaming Drama of Roaring Young Kansas is "Trail Street"
—with—
Randolph Scott, Anne Jeffreys
SUNDAY
"Song of Scheherazad" In Beautiful Technicolor
—with—
BRIAN DONLEVY
YVONNE DE CARLO
MONDAY
The Lovable Hardy Family Reunited in "Love Laughs At Andy Hardy"
—with—
Mickey Rooney - Lewis Stone
TUESDAY
"The Locket"
—with—
LARONNE DAY
BRIAN AHERNE
WEDNESDAY
CLAUDETTE COLBERT and WALTER PIGEON
—in—
"Secret Heart"