Newlyweds Are Home After Honeymoon in Canada
Mr. and Mrs. R. L. West, Jr., are now at home on Route 3, Ellensburg, Wash., following their wedding trip to Canada. The bride is the former Jacqueline de Jong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abram C. de Jong of Ellensburg, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. West Sr., also of that city, formerly of Boone.

The couple repeated their marriage vows in a simple but impressive double ring ceremony read by the Rev. Paul Dean Hill in the study of the First Christian Church at 10:00 a. m. Saturday, May 31. Bouquets of pink roses and pink carnations formed the decorations for the rites. Members of the immediate families and a few close friends witnessed the ceremony.

For the wedding the bride chose a white street dress with an embroidered silk border and had a red rose corsage. Her only attendant was a close friend and school mate, Miss Romona Doak, who wore an aqua dress and a talisman rose corsage.

Edwin West, brother of the groom, acted as best man. A small reception followed the wedding ceremony, given in the home of the brides parents for the families and friends.

The bride has lived in Ellensburg all her life and was a graduate from Ellensburg high school with the class of 1947. Mr. West moved to Ellensburg in 1943, enlisted in the Navy in 1944 and returned to Ellensburg in 1946. He was graduated from Appalachian high school in Boone in 1943. He is now employed by Jones Construction Company.

Baird-Farthing
Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Baird of Sugar Grove, announce the marriage of their daughter, Martha Marie, to Harold G. Farthing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Farthing of Sugar Grove. The wedding took place at the home of the Rev. W. D. Ashley at Blowing Rock on June 5.

The bride wore a grey suit with white and black accessories and a shoulder corsage of red roses. There were no attendants.

Ford-Baird
Married at the office of Edw. N. Hahn Saturday evening, June 22, Chanson Ford of Blowing Rock, to Claude Dixon Baird. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. John Ford and the late Mr. Ford of Blowing Rock, while the groom is the son of Mrs. Baird and the late John Baird of Blowing Rock. The ceremony was performed by Magistrate Hahn.
