Miss Margaret Hughes Is Bride Of Maurice Fagan, Jr.

The recent marriage of Margaret Elinor Hughes, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Phillips Hughes of Boone and Maurice Joseph Fagan, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Joseph Fagan of Philadelphia took place in the Catholic Cathedral of The Assumption in Baltimore, Md. The Rev. Thomas J. Madagra, Rector of the cathedral officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

The bridal chorus from Lohen-grin was used as the processional, and Mendelssohn's wedding march was played softly during the ceremony. The bride entered with her uncle Paul Loraine Hoffer of Gatesville, N. C. who gave her in marriage. She wore a cape ensemble of blue velvet, a white feather hat and white accessories. Her only ornament was a string of pearls. She wore a corsage of sycamorian orchids and carried a white prayer book covered with an orchid and white ribbon streamers of staphanotis.

Mrs. Robert A. Phillips of Baltimore, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a black French crepe dress, black hat, and a corsage of American Beauty roses.

Roberta Ann Phillips, was ringbearer and wore a white dotted swiss dress, a white tulle circlet on her hair and a corsage of talisman rose buds.

Vincent Butler of Philadelphia served as best man.

The bride's mother wore a smoke grey gaberdine suit with black accessories and a corsage of talisman roses.

Following a short wedding trip they are now at home at 3438 Princeton Ave., Philadelphia.

Mrs. Fagan graduated from Gatesville High school and Keys Costal College, Norfolk, Va. She was employed in the Northwestern Bank at Boone before her marriage.

Mr. Fagan was educated at the North East Catholic College and is associated with the Safety Glass Co. He served as yeoman in the Coast Guard for four years.

Founders Day Celebrated At Skyline Restaurant

Eleven alumnae of Woman's College of the University of North Carolina met at the Skyline Restaurant in Boone to join other alumnae groups throughout the state in the celebration of Founders Day, October 5, at 8 o'clock. The group was unable to get the broadcast of the program from Greensboro, but Miss Mary H. Walker, who presided at the meeting, read Chancellor W. C. Jackson's speech.

Following the informal dinner and program the group organized a Watauga County Chapter and elected the following officers: President, Mrs. Doris Taylor Perry; vice president, Miss Cora Jeffcoat; secretary, Miss Mary H. Walker. It was decided to have another meeting in the spring and invite other alumnae throughout the county and those transfers from Woman's College at Appalachian State Teachers College to attend.

Miss Mary Arrington, an alumna from Rocky Mount and Blowing Rock, was a special guest for the occasion. She was at Woman's College when it opened its doors and had many interesting experiences to give to the other alumnae present.

Those attending the meeting along with Miss Arrington were: Mrs. Doris Taylor Perry, Miss Helen Burch, Miss Cora Pearl Jeffcoat, Miss Madge Rhyne, Mrs. Cleata Jones Harmon, Miss Mary H. Walker, Mrs. Virginia Holshausner, Mrs. Eugenia Kearns Kirkman, Miss Mildred McKinney and Miss Mary Ellen Gibbs.
