Womanless Wedding At Blowing Rock

Members of the American Legion Auxiliary, Post 256, of Blowing Rock, request the honor of your presence at the wedding of Postmaster G. M. Suddreth to Bill Downs on Saturday night, February 26, at 8:00 p. m., at the High School Auditorium. This wedding apparently will be the social high-light of the winter season. Styles, the like of which have not been shown in New York or Paris, will be displayed by the bridal party.

Pre-nuptial music will be rendered by Charles Brown, the Reverend Oscar Harris, and Marvin Culbreth, accompanied by the Reverend Earnest at the piano.

Members of the bridal party include Charles Martin, George Suddreth, Jr., and Richard Gragg, whose tears at losing the daughter may sadden you momentarily. The bride's attendants will be James Clawson, maid of honor, J. P. Lyon, Jack Sharp, Ray Castle, Clarence Berryman, and Sonny Klutz, bridesmaids, and Thomas Coffey, ring bearer. The bride will be given in marriage by Jack Greene. Marvin Culbreth will perform the ceremony.

Admission charges to this womanless wedding will be 10c for children and 30c for adults. Please don't miss this outstanding social event at the Blowing Rock High School Auditorium.

Miss Greene Becomes Bride of Mr. Fox

The wedding of Miss Mary Nell Greene of North Wilkesboro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Heggie E. Greene of Deep Gap, and Bobbie T. Fox of North Wilkesboro and Newport News, Va., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sam Fox, Sr., of Mebane, took place Sunday afternoon at five o'clock in the First Baptist church, of Spartanburg, South Carolina.

Rev. O. Norman Shands, pastor of the church, officiated in a ceremony of beauty and simplicity. The vows were spoken in front of an arrangement of white gladioli, snapdragons, and greenery.

Before the ceremony, Mrs. Helen M. Huntley, organist, played "Liebestraum," by Liszt, and "Traumerie," by Shumann. The wedding march from "Lohengrin," by Wagner, was used for the processional. During the ceremony, Mrs. Huntley played "In the Love Call," by Fremel, and Mendelssohn's March from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" was used for the recessional.

The bride and bridegroom entered the church together. The bride wore an afternoon dress of taffeta using black accessories. She wore a corsage of American Beauty Roses. Her only ornament was a rose-gold necklace, featuring a pearl, which was worn by the bridegroom's sister on her wedding day.

The bride is a graduate of Appalachian High School of Boone, and is now attending Clevelenger College of Business Administration, North Wilkesboro.

The bridegroom graduated from Mebane High School, attended N. C. State College, and served with the 511th Parachute Inf. Regiment in Japan. He is now on leave of absence from the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, Newport News, Va., and is attending Clevelenger College of North Wilkesboro.

After a wedding trip to points of interest in the western part of the State, Mr. and Mrs. Fox will be at home in North Wilkesboro.

Mr. Paul W. Greene, brother of the bride, and Mrs. Greene, and Mrs. W. Lumsden Bundy, sister of the bridegroom and Dr. Bundy, all of North Wilkesboro, attended the wedding.

Wainscott-McNeill Vows

Mrs. Jean Wilson McNeill and Claude Albert Wainscott were married February 11 at 8 p. m. in the First Baptist church of Boone in the presence of the immediate family. Dr. W. G. Bond officiated.

The bride wore a gray suit with light blue accessories and a corsage of red roses. There were no attendants.

Mrs. Wainscott is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wilson of Boone. She received her education at Appalachian State Teachers college and has held a position with the Southern Bell Telephone company here.

Mr. Wainscott is the son of Mr. Grady Wainscott of Swannanoa. He is connected with the Southern Bell Telephone company in Asheville.

The couple will make their home in Asheville.

Howard's Creek Home Demonstration Club Meeting

Mrs. W. S. Christian was hostess to Howard's Creek Demonstration club Thursday, February 17. There were fourteen members present. The meeting started by singing "America," followed by the reading of the collect. Mrs. Gurney Norris led in prayer. We gave $5.00 to the Watauga hospital fund and $5.00 to County Council treasury.

Miss Matheson gave a helpful lecture on Citizenship. Two of our project leaders gave a report on Clothing and Family Life. We are hoping for a good year and want to do more for our community and to help others.

In our social hour, Mrs. W. S. Christian, assisted by Mrs. Frank Cook and Mrs. Dora Bunting, served delicious refreshments. The March meeting will meet with Mrs. N. L. Barnes.

Future Farmers Are Hosts to Parents

Members of the Cove Creek Chapter of the Future Farmers of America were hosts to their parents and guests at a banquet Friday night, February 18, at the High School Cafeteria.

G. G. Farthing, Farm Bureau representative, Asheville, was the guest speaker. Mr. Farthing entertained and informed his audience in a most acceptable manner. Among other things he stressed the importance of education and showed how training in agriculture was one of the most necessary and fundamental courses in present day education.

Others appearing on the program were Rev. Folger, pastor of Henson Chapel Methodist church, invocation; Sherwood Bingham served as toastmaster, gave the welcome address and told of his trip to the National FFA convention. Dave P. Mast responded to the welcome on the part of the parents. Royce Hagaman presented the Future Farmer Creed. Kenneth Perry told of his farming program.

Jack Billings gave a report on the State FFA convention. R. G. Shipley introduced the guests and gave a brief review of the work of the department.

Another very impressive part of the program was an FFA Torchbearing Ceremony wherein ten chapter members represented the purposes of the organization. They lighted their torches from the main torchbearer and in turn lighted those of all the members. In addition to the above members the following took part in the ceremony: Clint Tester, Roy Mains, Carson Eller, Sherman Bingham, Tommy Greene and Charles Henson.

The meeting was opened and closed with the regular ritual ceremony by the chapter officers, Sherwood Bingham, president; Sherman Bingham, vice president; Jack Billings, secretary; Kenneth Perry, reporter; Clint Tester, treasurer and R. G. Shipley, advisor.

Very excellent music was furnished during the meal and after the program by the Farthing-Thomas band. The delicious meal was prepared and served by the Home Economics girls under the supervision of Mrs. Joyce Davis.

OBITUARY

James Walter Henson

Within the quietness of his own earthly home, James Walter Henson was called to the quietness and peace of his own heavenly home early Wednesday evening. He entered life in this world on April 10, 1879 as the child of Jordan and Martha Henson; he entered into the full joy of the life that he had in Christ on February 16, 1949 as a child of God.

He spent all of his God given life in this community and took a genuine interest in everything that was of importance to the life of it. He became a member of the church at an early age and all through the years he remained a faithful member and an upright citizen.

He was married to Margaret Horton on August 18, 1901, and God blessed their life together with the following children:

Mrs. Inez Upchurch of Johnson City, Tenn.; Mrs. Amy Johnson of Mountain City; Mrs. Mamie Mast of Sherwood; Mrs. Nelle Mast of Sherwood; Don J. Henson of Villas, and Jack Henson of Villas.

Staying longer than he did upon the earth are two brothers, E. C. Henson of Sherwood, B. H. Henson of Villas.

Three sisters, Mrs. J. H. Trivette of Piney Flats, Mrs. S. A. Hollar of Charlotte, Mrs. J. W. Harbin of Toco, Washington. Eleven grandchildren, two great grandchildren and friends so many as to be beyond numbering.

When God took James Walter Henson to his heavenly home it saddened many an earthly heart, but truly the hearts of some in the world to which he went were made to rejoice even more because of his presence there with them.
