To The Members Of The 3558th Army Postal Unit

The recent activation of an Army Reserve Unit, with headquarters in Boone, is deemed an asset to our town and community.

We share a mutual objective as you inaugurate your program of expansion. Without doubt, the benefits afforded present members of the Organized Reserve Corps will appeal to many of the former service personnel of our county.

Department of the Army Representatives regard the local organization as the most outstanding unit in the North-western area of North Carolina. We take pride in the ability of our local citizens to develop a unit with these outstanding characteristics.

Present and future members of the Boone unit may be assured of 100% cooperation as you continue to make a worthy contribution to the defense of the country.

We also wish to note the Naval Reserve unit, which has been established here for a long time, and which likewise contributes immensely to the benefit of the naval veterans, the county, and the defense.

Both of these fine organizations deserve the full support of the people of the community and county. We urge veterans to contact their proper unit and cooperate in the valuable programs.
