TELEPHONE FOLKS are setting a New Record DOWN ON THE FARM Southern Bell is putting in farm telephones five times as fast as before the war. Total telephone installations in Southern rural areas this year will set an all-time record! Linking farms scattered over the South to markets and friends in town is a tremendous job that calls for thousands of poles and thousands of miles of telephone wire. It also calls for the know-how, experience, and the kind of equipment that has made America's telephone service the best in the world. Since the war approximately sixty million dollars have been spent to expand and improve telephone service in rural sections. Telephone folks are working hard to extend service as rapidly as possible to all the farmers who want it. And we're making outstanding progress! SOUTHERN BELL TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY
