Mr. Cavalier Visits Boone on Tuesday

"Mr. Cavalier," dressed in original costume, paraded through Boone Tuesday in his musical car, heading a procession of automobiles, bearing Cavalier banners, featuring R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company's new extremely mild king-size Cavalier cigarettes.

After the parade, "Mr. Cavalier" visited with the crowds in the downtown stores, passing out complimentary Cavalier cigarettes.

Tall, dashing and handsome, young "Mr. Cavalier" created quite a sensation, especially among the fair sex.

Cavaliers are now on sale in stores all over town.

Novel Stunts Boost County 4-H Fund

The novel device of charging admission at the rate of one cent per inch of the customer's feet is one of many schemes used by Watauga County 4-H Club boys and girls in their drive to raise funds for building the Waynesville 4-H Club Summer Camp.

Betty R. Matheson, county home agent, said the unusual admission fee was charged at a recent masquerade party held at the community. Entertainment at the party consisted of a short play given by the Beaver Dam Home Demonstration Club, cake walks, a pretty girl contest, an ugly man contest, prizes for the most outstanding costumes and a sheep shearing demonstration by Clint Reese, national 4-H Sheep Shearing Champion.
