MR. AND MRS. CECIL FARTHING

Miss Mary Carolyn Hayes Becomes Bride of Mr. Cecil Farthing

Miss Mary Carolyn Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hayes of Vilas, became the bride of Cecil Farthing, son of Mr. Ed Farthing and the late Mrs. Wilson, both of Boone, on January 26, in the Mt. Lebanon Church at Vilas.

Rev. Edwin F. Troutman, pastor of the Grace Lutheran Church of Boone, performed the ceremony. Mrs. Edwin F. Troutman, pianist, and Jerry Troutman, soloist, presented the program of wedding music.

The couple entered the church together. The bride wore a winter white street length dress of wool jersey knit with black accessories. She wore a purple-throated orchid corsage. Her only attendant was Mrs. Lawford Critcher of Boone. Rhea Farthing, of Winston-Salem, served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Roger Wilson and J. G. Wilson, both of Boone.

The church was decorated with seven branched candelabra and white gladioli. Mrs. Farthing graduated from the Cove Creek High School of Sugar Grove, and is now employed by the Southern Bell Telephone Co. here.

Mr. Farthing graduated from the Appalachian High School of Boone. He is now employed by the Reins-Sturdivant Funeral Home of Boone.

After a short wedding trip the couple will make their home in Boone.

Mrs. Erneston Named To Voice Tutors Assn.

Word was received here recently that Mrs. Elsie H. D. Erneston, voice instructor and choral director at Appalachian High School, was elected to membership in the National Association of Teachers of Singing. This organization affords prestige to its members; only teachers of widely diversified experience are eligible for membership. Mrs. Erneston is a former voice student of H. Caleb Cushing of the Shenandoah Conservatory of Music, and Harrison Christian, former Metropolitan opera coach. She was a student in choral conducting of John Finley Williamson of Westminster Choir School. She sang as soloist for four years with the Shenandoah A Capella Choir, during which time she appeared as soloist in Carnegie Hall. She was also soloist with the Christ Episcopal Church in Cincinnati, Ohio, under the direction of Parvin Titus, nationally known organist and director. She has sung soprano solos in Handel's "Messiah" and Bach's "St. Matthew Passion" for the past 16 years with various choral groups.

Since coming to Boone in 1948, Mrs. Erneston has directed the three choruses at Appalachian High School, winning ratings of "excellent" each year in the district contests. She also taught voice at A. S. T. C. in 1949 and 1950, and has been Minister of Music at the James I. Vance Presbyterian Church for the past four years.

Mrs. Erneston holds a Bachelor of Music degree in vocal and choral instruction from the Shenandoah Conservatory of Music and will complete Master of Arts degree at A. S. T. C. in February.

Wonderful how VICKS VAPORUB IN STEAM works when coughing colds strike

Special medicated steam brings DEEP-ACTION RELIEF from coughs and stuffiness

Now those raspy, croupy coughs of children's colds can be relieved almost instantly with this home-proved treatment... two heaping spoonfuls of Vicks VapoRub in a vaporizer or bowl of boiling water as directed in package.

It's easy, too! Your little one just breathes in the soothing steam. Every breath carries VapoRub's relief-bringing medications deep into troubled throat and large bronchial tubes. There this wonderful treatment medicated and soothes dry, irritated membranes, eases away coughing, helps restore normal breathing.

Real comfort comes fast! For coughing spells, upper bronchial congestion and that choked-up feeling caused by colds, there's nothing like using Vicks VapoRub in steam.

And always rub it on for continued relief To insure continued action, always rub VapoRub on throat, chest and back. Works for hours—even while your child sleeps—to relieve distress. It's the best-known home remedy you can use when any cold strikes child or grown-up.

Valle Crucis P. T. A. Holds Meeting Friday

The Valle Crucis P. T. A. met Friday night, January 25. The meeting was called to order by the president, Rev. A. C. Moody. After a short business meeting the following program was presented: Rev. Ralph Miller, pastor of Valle Crucis Methodist Church conducted the devotional. His message centered around Christian Activity in Everyday Life. He emphasized the importance of Christian training in the home. Christians must enter into everyday activities and lift them up or else they are guilty of the sin of omission.

An interesting movie "That Boy Joe" was shown. It pointed out that juvenile delinquency in most cases starts in the home. Following the film an interesting and informative talk was given by Mr. Dave Mast, county welfare superintendent. The welfare department aims at continuing and keeping family and home life intact. He closed by saying that the children of today and tomorrow will be carrying us forward, if forward we go.

Rutherford P. T. A.

The Rutherford P. T. A. met January 24 at 7:30 p. m. The president, Mrs. B. D. Clawson called the meeting to order. The group joined in singing, "Onward Christian Soldiers" followed by Bible reading and prayer.

Mr. Jack Idol talked on the March of Dimes now being carried on in our county. An offering was taken for the March of Dimes.

A movie, The Old South and The New South and film strips showing Bible scenes was enjoyed by everyone present.

"SMOKY" GOES TO SCHOOL

Carson City, Nev. — While Mary had a little lamb that followed her to school, Bobby Anderson, 8, has a pet raven, "Smoky" who flies right up to the door and, on occasion, flits right in Bobby's classroom. To the delight of the pupils, "Smoky" is allowed to remain, but is considered a "distracting influence" by the principal.

Party Honors Miss Carolyn Hayes

Mrs. James B. Winkler entertained at a dinner party at her home last Friday evening honoring Miss Carolyn Hayes and Mr. Cecil Farthing, who were married at Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church at Vilas, N. C., Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

A bridal motif was used in the table decorations.

Guests included Miss Carolyn Hayes, Mr. Cecil Farthing, Mr. Ray Farthing, Mrs. Lawford Critcher, Miss Florence Messick of Winston-Salem, Mr. Jerry Troutman, Mr. Ed G. Farthing, and Rev. and Mrs. Edwin F. Troutman.

Green Valley Home Club Meets

The Green Valley Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. Wade Clawson on January 25. Due to the absence of the president, our vice president, Mrs. Troy Norris, presided. The meeting began with the singing of "America," followed by the reading and approval of the minutes. The secretary was asked to write our president, Mrs. Clyde Williams, a letter of encouragement and offer our help to her. Her daughter, Miss Jane Williams, is seriously ill in the Watauga Hospital.

We are sorry to lose four of our club members: Mrs. John Clawson, who has moved away, Mrs. Clint Miller, Mrs. Walter Coffey and Mrs. Ferd Michael, who have joined the new club which has been organized in their community. However, we are happy to have Mrs. Forest Greene join our club.

We filled out our "Year Book" for 1952 and feel that we are going to enjoy every program.

Mrs. Hamp Clawson resigned as treasurer and Mrs. Billy Byers was elected to fill out the remainder of the year.

After the business session the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Betty Edwards who gave us an interesting demonstration on "Quick and Easy Meals." She prepared "Pork Chops with Rice" which was not only delicious but nutritious as well.

A beautiful party dish was served to those present by Mrs. Clawson and daughter, Lois.

Our next meeting will be held with Mrs. A. E. Moretz February 22—Mrs. A. E. Moretz, reporter.
