New Disease Is Found In Plant Beds

There's an extra reason why Tar Heel tobacco growers should spray or dust their plant beds this spring for blue mold control, says H. R. Garriss, plant pathologist for the State College Extension Service.

Garriss says a disease known as anthracnose was found attacking plant beds in a few counties last spring. It appears that the recommended dust and spray treatments for blue mold control will also control the new disease.

Anthracnose was first discovered in North Carolina in the spring of 1951. During the season it was found at seven locations in the counties of Carteret, Columbus, Craven, Johnston, Wake, and Davidson.

Thursday, February 14th, the Women's Missionary Society of Old Mt. Pleasant Lutheran Church will meet with Mrs. Johnson Greene at 2:00 p. m. The Women's Missionary Society of Mt. Pleasant Lutheran Church will meet Wednesday, February 20 at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. N. C. Norris.

"Presumably, with these widely scattered sources of infection, the disease could spread rather rapidly," says Garriss. "On the other hand, no one can predict whether the disease will become a serious problem. It has been quite a problem in some other tobacco-growing areas, especially Maryland."

Mary June Stephens, Marie Hodges, Mrs. Chloe Presnell, Mary Ruth Hicks, Paul Wilmoth, Mrs. Jewell Ward, Mrs. Emma Hicks, Bobby Yoder, Mrs. Luna Millam, Conley Winebarger, Collis Austing, Mrs. Bessie Harmon, Harold Dean Triplett, Mrs. Billie Younce, Mrs. Imogene Barden, Clarence Cole, Ernest Hartley, Charles Millsaps, Shelby Eggers, Floy Millsaps, Donald Harmon, Shirley Rominger, Frank Oxentine, Mrs. Agnes Miller, James Edward Smith, Mrs. Della Combs, Jerry Allred, Mrs. Hettie Coffey.

"We don't want anyone to become alarmed about this disease popping up," says Garriss. "However, in the event it has the possibility of becoming a serious problem, let's be sure to take the proper precautions—which at present seem to be a good dusting or spraying job for controlling blue mold."

GIRDERS

You must have girders to build a skyscraper. Only a mesh-work of steel can endure the weight, strain and atmospheric variations to which such a structure is subject.

And you must have girders to build a man... girders of faith and moral courage that will enable him to stand erect against the pressures and onslaughts of human experience.

The Church builds the girders into a man's life: In childhood it sets in place the mighty "uprights" that will mold his stature later. In youth it reinforces these with "cross-beams" that solidify his moral character. Day by day, all through adulthood, the Church "rivets" into their proper place the truths and ideals and aims that enable him to reach his full stature.

Faithfully, generously give strength to the Church. Faithfully and generously it is building strength into our lives.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
