TENNESSEE PUBLISHER TALKS TO LOCAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Mr. Waddell said that the pe ple of Boone and Watauga County are greatly to be congratulated upon the organization of the Southern Appalachian Historical association and their plans to present a historical drama. He aid that one of the most import ant things in the world today is the preservation of the Ameriway of life. The effort of the iation, he said, will be greater in bringing about an un-derstanding of the American way of life, as portrayed right here these great Appalachian untains. Here, he said, there to make it one of the most important tours and beauty spots

The state and other agencies, dr. Waddell, said, will continue to help this section, but the bigpart of the job will fall to the local people, and rightly so. They stand to benefit by the resources. It is no longer a question as to who will develop this area-we must coordinate every effort to meet the challenge to newspaper, radio station, to show cople of this area what lies ahead in building hotels, motels tourist courts, recreational facilities. "Boone has the climate," he said, "and the attractions to bring tourists here. It is a great, worthwhile challenge, a challenge of modern times. 'Men and women of vision, build.'"

Other guests at the meeting included Mark Goforth of Lenoir division highway commissioner A large number of members and guests attended the lunche

Currently, Mr. Painter is serving his second successive term as President of the Illinois Music Educators' Association.

The program of Saturday night by the clinic orchestra is as follows: Overture to Titus, Mozart: Adagio for Strings, Corelli; Symphony No. 2 in D Major, Haydn; Adoration, Borowsky; Dance of the Rose Maillens, from the "Gayne Ballet," Khachaturian; Chop Sticks; arranged by Evans; and The Enchanted Castle, Overture, by Hadley.

In conjunction with the clinic be a luncheon meeting of the North Carolina chapter of the American String Teachers Association, Mr. George Dickieson, of Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, president. Mr. Painter will conct a discussion concerning string problems with this group. There will also be a lecture on double reed instruments for the directors and students by Mr. Wm. G. Spencer of ASTC. In addition to these features, there will also be a business meeting the North Carolina Music Educa tors Association, Mr. Julian Helms, of Charlotte, presiding.

Representing Appalachian High School in the clinic orchestra will be Harry Farthing, violin; Jimmy Holshouser, clarinet; and Evelyn McCracken, French

The weather for the first two months usually permits the Physical Education program to be play room on the main floor.

A mimeographed activity schedule is planned each week which FOR SALE-6 acres 2 miles west FOR SALE-1 good farm horse by grades and covers activities ranging from creative rhythms to specific game skills such as N. C. throwing and catching.

Boys and girls play together in separated from the fourth up. The reason for this is that the activities for the first three grades are the same for both boys and girls and this allows for social development. Beginning with the fourth they have specific games which sometimes involve bodily contact and are separated. There are activities such as folk games and volleyhall which sometimes include both. Plans are being made to have more activities together to help them over this period when they are so conscious of each other. Time, facilities and equipment will not permit planning a program according to size, age, or skill which would be ideal; therefore, the program is built to fill the needs of the average

A typical daily program would be: First grade, creative rhythms; second grade, fundamental body skills, jumping, balance, hopping, etc; third grade, relays with balls; fourth grade, volleyball; fifth grade, folk games; sixth grade, basketball techniques; seventh grade, basketball

Physical Education is emphasized as a regular class, not a recess, and the students are expected to participate in it as they would a class. The children are becoming more aware of the values and benefits they receive from a planned and directed program, and are very enthused about the regular and extra activities planned for them.

The Physical Education program which is under the full time direction of Miss Dorothy Sie our concrete blocks. Made Floyd, has been hampered by lack of equipment and sufficient funds to purchase equipment, but a budget is to be set up for the coming year which is expected to enrich the program.
