

Elementary School Is Pushing Dimes Effort

The faculty and students of the Boone Demonstration School have become intensely interested in raising money for the polo drive. The campaign is now on; and, up until now, we have raised a total of $513.63.

Miss Lanier's First Grade

The Mothers' Club of Miss Lanier's first grade held a tea in the teacher's lounge February 4 at 4:00 p. m. Mrs. T. K. Pease, president; Mrs. Vaught Mast and Mrs. C. C. Wilcox acted as joint hostesses. They served open-faced heart sandwiches, cookies, mints and sherbert to twenty mothers and Miss Lanier.

An informal discussion was held after everyone had been served. One question that came up was, "Should we give our children money to buy candy?" They decided to give them maybe a nickel a week from their allowance for candy to be eaten after lunch. The meeting seemed to have been a profitable one.

Mrs. Clarence Price entertained the first grade children with a birthday party for her daughter, Janie, Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Price served cup-cakes centered with a candle, ice cream and pink lemonade to the thirty-one children present. Balloons on whistles were used as favors.

Mrs. Davis' Second Grade

Our room has $52.50 for the March of Dimes. We have more than any other room except Miss Gibbs' fourth grade.

Tommy Dyer fell from some steps at the school. He is absent from school, but is not seriously injured.

Mrs. Buckland's Fifth Grade

We have had perfect attendance for three days this past week. Our class raised $43.00 for the March of Dimes campaign.

Today we completed our United States History book, and issued North Carolina History books which we will begin studying next week.

We are in sympathy with Margie Ward whose father died last week.

February is one of our busiest months since we study about so many great men and also Valentine's Day.

The following people have been busily planning some of our February activities: Bobby Joe Winkler, Libby Culbreth, Donna Huff, Bobby Yoder, J. D. Dotson, Virginia Brown, Jilda Creed, Johnny Glenn, Raymond Smith, Judy Ashley, Charles Roberts, Margaret Lynn Hagaman, Edsel Church, Carol Pitts, Donna Gilley, Burlee Church and Jimmy Goodnight.

On January 28, we attended the concert presented by Mrs. Erneston's pupils. One of our class members, Rex Greene, participated.

Mr. Cutts' Fifth Grade

Five pupils were recognized for excellence in spelling this week. They were Patsy Gauden, Barbara Edwards, Ray Greene, James Moretz, and Carl Benson.

Class committees for the past week included personal cleanliness—Patsy Ashley, Eori Taylor, and Tommy Crowell; News—Janice Cooke and Vivian Matheison; Bulletin Board—Margaret Rose Brown, Raymond Fletcher, and Marjorie Reynolds; Blackboard—Lennis Coffey and James Moretz; books, tables and chairs, Barbara Edwards and Charles Trivette; Lunchroom captains—Shelby Oxentine and Ray Greene; Clean-up—Mary Fletcher, Betty Jones, and Shelby Oxentine.

Several of the class members are making animals of paper mache. This work will be placed on display as soon as it is finished.

Miss Walker's Sixth Grade

On Tuesday, February 3, Tad Buckland had a birthday party. He was eleven years old. We enjoyed our cookies, candy, and drinks very much.

Wednesday morning we attended the program given by the pupils in Mr. Erneston's orchestra. Three of the members are from our group, Grayson Coffey, Rachel Hampton, and Jack Roark.

KEEPS VOW

Cleveland, O.—A promise made 37 years ago was recently made good when Morris Clark, of Edinburg, Scotland, visited his brother Hyman, 57, who was seriously ill at the Crile Veterans Administration Hospital.
