Horn In West Picnic To Be Held Next Friday

There's a scene in "Horn in the West" where pioneers of the 1770's welcome new neighbors to the mountains with a bounteous spread of home-cooked food and a "get-acquainted" gathering.

The scene will be re-enacted in real life on Friday, June 19, with the cast and staff of the outdoor drama as the new neighbors and the people of Watauga County demonstrating the hospitality which has been traditional in the mountains since frontier days.

Friday is the day for the second annual cast picnic staged by the Southern Appalachian Historical Association, sponsors of "Horn in the West." All residents of the area are invited to "bring your family, guests, and a bountiful picnic basket—enough for your group and three or four others."

Mrs. E. W. Stallings, member of the Association's board of directors and one of the originators of the idea for an outdoor drama at Boone, is chairman of the picnic committee. Assisting her are Mrs. Virginia Holshouser, Mrs. Lois Chester, Mrs. Grace Moretz, and Mrs. Cieta Harmon, all of Boone.
