

Appalachian Hi Gives Names Honor Students

Appalachian High School has announced its distinction list for the first grading period. Approximately every two months when actual grades are given to the students a distinction list is made by the homeroom teachers and submitted to the entire faculty for approval. This distinction list is not an honor roll. It is in line with our efforts to build good citizens. In other words, to make the distinction list a student must make acceptable grades and also meet all requirements that the school has set up in relation to good citizenship. The student must have a B average and have no grade lower than a C-. He must not have an unsatisfactory mark in citizenship, record of misconduct, unexcused absences, or tardies. Then he must have final approval of the entire faculty.

United States production of Brussels sprouts is largely concentrated in California and New York, where commercial production for fresh market in 1952 exceeded 4,000 acres with a market value of more than $3,500,000.

Paul Said To Mr. Ed:

TEN LITTLE CHRISTIANS

Ten little Christians standing in a line,
One disliked the preacher; then there were nine.
Nine little Christians stayed up very late,
One slept on Sunday morning; then there were eight.
Eight little Christians on the road to heaven,
One took the lower road; then there were seven.
Seven little Christians got into a fix,
One disliked music, then there were six.
Six little Christians very much alive,
But one lost her interest; then there were five.
Five little Christians wishing there were more,
But they quarreled; then there were four.
Four little Christians, cheerful as could be,
But one lost his temper; then there were three.
Three little Christians knew not what to do,
One joined a sporty crowd; then there were two.
Two little Christians—our rhyme is nearly done—
Differed with each other; then there was one.
One lone Christian wop his neighbor true,
Brought him with him to the church; then there were two.
Two earnest Christians, each won one more,
That doubled their number; then there were four.
Four sincere Christians worked very late,
But each one won another; then there were eight.
Eight splendid Christians, but nothing rhymes with sixteen,
So we simply note that in four more rhymes
There would be 1,042, which would be quite a Church full.

PAUL.
