Arthur Smith Talent Show To Be Staged Here

Arthur Smith and the Cracker-Jacks, who are featured on four different television shows weekly on WBTB, Channel 3, Charlotte; will screen local talent here on April 30 at Appalachian High School in their gigantic new "Television Talent Hunt" stage show. The winner will appear on WBTB on Arthur Smith's Tuesday or Wednesday night program. Sponsoring the "Television Talent Hunt" locally will be the Rotary Club. The big show will begin at 8:00 p. m.

The talent to be judged will be both amateur and professional and entry blanks can be obtained by contacting any member of the local sponsoring organization. The top 10 acts will appear on the stage and the popularity winner will be judged by audience applause. The grand winner to be selected by competent member of the show to appear on Arthur's TV program the following week in Charlotte.

"We know that Arthur Smith's Television Talent Hunt Show," said Stacy Eggers, Jr. of the Rotary club, "will be one of the entertainment highlights of the year and we expect a tremendous crowd will be out to applaud for our hometown talent. Let me urge everyone now to purchase advance tickets thus assuring a seat at this exciting new stage show. Don't forget the date is April 30 and the show will be at Appalachian High School and will start promptly at 8 p. m.

FOREIGN AID
 A $3,497,000,000 foreign aid program has been presented to Congress by Harold E. Stassen, director of the Foreign Operations Administration. One-third of the total would be used to support anti-Communist forces in Indo-China. The full amount was more than a billion dollars less than that appropriated last year and the emphasis was shifted to Asia.

INDO-CHINA
 President Eisenhower declares that Communist conquest of Indo-China would result in a chain reaction of disaster with incalculable consequences to the free world. Losses would be figured in terms of politics, economics, human rights and military position.
