

News Of The Week From Blowing Rock

Blowing Rock. — A children's shelf has been added to the Community Library.

This shelf is set up as a memorial to Dr. Mary Cabell Warfield, beloved physician of Blowing Rock.

A great many books have been given to the shelf already and it is hoped there will be many more. Bible Classes To Be Held

A Bible School for children ages 6-14 will be held at St. Mary's of the Hills Monday through Friday from 9 until 12 noon.

The Rev. Thomas Seitz will be in charge and will be assisted by Mr. and Mrs. James Gilmore. Mr. Gilmore is a theological student, and was trained in the conducting of Bible Schools at Valle Crucis Southern Town and Country Church Institute at Valle Crucis. All children in the community are invited to attend.

Art Exhibit
The Blowing Rock Art Association will open an exhibit with a tea in the Community Club Room in the Library on August 6 from 4 to 6 p. m.

The tea will be in the form of a preview to the exhibition, to which the public is invited.

Mayview Bridge Instruction
Mrs. Walter Le Sueur, Master Culbertson and Goren Contract Bridge teacher, is directing bridge activities at Mayview Manor this summer.

The Tuesday evening tournament is proving itself a popular time of entertainment, and winners last Tuesday night were: first, north and south, Mrs. Julius Cone and Mr. Robert Schlesinger; second, Mrs. John Bouligny and Mrs. Gerad King. In the east and west positions, Mrs. Benjamin Brown and Mrs. Wellborn Colquitt of Charlotte placed first, with Mrs. J. C. Montgomery and Mrs. H. B. Larzalere second.

Group instruction in contract bridge is given by Mrs. LeSueur on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings in the annex card-room of the Manor.

Playground Use
The following statement concerning the Blowing Rock Playground has been released by Dr. Walter Keyes, superintendent of the playground.

"The playground park belongs to all the people of Blowing Rock: summer residents, transients, and permanent townspeople. Please use it and enjoy it, and help us make it as attractive as possible."

The following rules have been posted. Please:

1. See that small children have responsible attendants when left at the playground. We cannot furnish babysitters.
2. Use facilities freely but as they were designed to be used. Slides are to be used sitting down, not lying down on stomach or back.
3. Make good use of garbage cans. Others will be furnished if not enough have been supplied.
4. Remember that the new pieces of equipment in the rear of the park are primarily for small children. Other pieces are for all ages, but must be used as they

Blowing Rock Is Solid Leader In County League

By JOHN H. HOLLAR

By taking wins over Lansing on Saturday and Wilkesboro on Sunday, Blowing Rock increased their lead in the Tri-County Baseball League. Large crowds are attending the close games each week as the teams battle for one of the four positions that will enable them to be in the play-offs. A game that should be of interest to the local fans will be Bamboos at Blowing Rock Sunday. Bamboos is the only team to defeat Blowing Rock twice this year.

Results Saturday:
Bamboos 4, Wilkes 0.
Millers Creek 1, Mt. Pleasant 0
Blowing Rock 13, Lansing 5.

Vegetable Week Being Observed

"I am particularly happy to salute the great army of American Vegetable Growers during this special week in their honor. My best wishes go with all of them."

That's what President Eisenhower had to say recently in observing National Vegetable Week, July 29 to August 7. Actually the purpose of this national week is to acquaint more persons with the uses of vegetables.

You, for example, can add sparkle to your health by putting the vegetables in your garden to work. Salads are an excellent way to get your needed servings of vegetables each day.

Virginia Wilson, State College nutritionist, suggests serving crisp salad greens with uncooked fruits and vegetables. "If they're raw," she adds, "so much the better. Cooking destroys some vitamins and washes out minerals."

Getting your family to eat well these hot summer days may be something of a problem, but eyeappeal may do a lot to perk up those lagging appetites. And according to Miss Wilson, one of the easiest ways to get color into your meals is to use green and yellow vegetables—carrots, squash, spinach, beans, peas, and salad greens of all kinds.

And there is a definite connection between the color of some foods and their value to your body. Those deep yellow or green in color have more vitamin A value in the body than the pale colorless ones. Green leaf lettuce, yellow squash, corn or peaches, will furnish your body with more vitamin A than the bleached or white varieties.

RECORD HOME BUILDING
The Government predicts that, on the basis of a new jump in the already booming home-building industry, 1954 production of homes and apartment units placed under construction in June totaled 120,000, a 12 per cent rise over May, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics.
