

Peru Student Wins Rotary Scholarship

Mr. Marco Armando Colina Perija, Lima, Peru, recipient of the Chan Gordon Memorial Scholarship for the academic year of 1954-55 has enrolled at Appalachian State College.

Mr. Colina has attended San Marcos University and the Peruvian North American Cultural Institute in Lima, Peru, and has taught English, Spanish, history and geography in the high schools of Peru. He is continuing his studies in geography, education, history, English, and business management at Appalachian.

The Chan Gordon Memorial Scholarship is sponsored by the Rotary Clubs of the 280th District, Rotary International, of which the Boone Rotary Club is a member. The district underwrites a year of education at one of the four-year colleges in the district, Appalachian State, Western Carolina, Lenoir Rhyne, and Queens, for a student from a foreign country selected by the Memorial Scholarship Committee.

Through this program the Rotary Clubs in this district develop a great interest in fostering international good will and understanding. Since the inception of the program, Luiz Lessa of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, attended Lenoir Rhyne College; Hector Soan of La Plata, Argentina, attended Appalachian State Teachers College, Boone; Teresa Herrero of Merida, Mexico, attended Western Carolina College, Cullowhee; Argerie Vega of San Jose, Costa Rica, attended Queens College, Charlotte, and Sylvia Crone of Stratford-on-Avon, Canada, attended Lenoir Rhyne College.

By action of the 1952 District Conference the District Scholarship was named "The Chan Gordon Memorial Scholarship" in memory of Chan Gordon of Asheville who died while serving as district governor of the 280th District.

Commerce Group Hears Guard Plans

(continued from page one) average 3c per pound more on these sales than on other types of sales, Mr. Stallings pointed out. In discussing the new road being built from Boone to Linville, Stanley A. Harris reported that a committee has suggested that "shop in Boone" signs be placed on this road before the Christmas shopping season opens, and that advertising be done by the Chamber of Commerce in the Avery County newspaper.

After outlining these and other matters to be discussed more fully at a later meeting, President H. W. Wilcox adjourned the meeting.
