Sharp Contrasts Between Gold And Green Foliage

By MIRIAM RABE
Sharp contrasts between brilliant hues of autumn and the rich green of summer will be seen by motorists who drive through the Blue Ridge and Great Smoky Mountains of North Carolina during the next two weeks.

of Mount Mitchell, highest peak east of the Mississippi (6,684 feet).
Summer spent September in the North Carolina mountains this year, with the result that there has been no frost to cause premature turning of the leaves. Observers predict that the color peak will occur within the middle two weeks of the month and linger on until November.

NEW CAMP GROUND IS BEING USED

Deep Creek Campground near Bryson City, North Carolina, is the latest addition to recreation areas in the Great Smoky Mountains National Park. Facilities include 61 picnic tables, 30 fireplaces, 12 sites for trailer camping and 17 sites for tent camping.

Reached by hard-topped roads connecting with U. S. 19 at Bryson City, Deep Creek Campground gives access to 45 miles of trout waters and a network of maintained trails through a ruggedly beautiful Park area which includes a 35,000-acre stand of virgin forest and three waterfalls.

App High Homecoming Was Gay Event Here

Appalachian High homecoming began with a parade Friday afternoon. After the parade school was dismissed and everyone went to his respective place. To some this was home to prepare for the game, to some it was the gym to decorate for the dance, to others the football field to decorate it, while still others gathered material for the bon fire which was held with two pep meetings just before the game.

The king and queen are chosen by popular vote of the student body after each homeroom has nominated one king and one queen. The following were nominated for king and queen this year:
King: Randy Madux, Buddy McGuire, Tony Winkler, David McKinney, Jerry West, Richard Greer, Bill Lyons, Roger Cook, and Dean Johnson.

Autumn Theme Woman's Club

Autumn was the theme of the program of the Friday Afternoon Club on Friday, October 8, when Mrs. H. J. Hardin, Mrs. Ronda Hardin, and Mrs. Grady Farthing were hostesses at their home on Wilkesboro Road.

Mrs. J. D. Rankin gave two readings, "How the Old North State Was Made," and "October in Carolina"; Mrs. Frank Payne read a seasonal poem, "Fall Is Getting Mighty Close"; Mrs. D. J. Whitener sang three numbers, "Smiling Through," "Be the Best Whatever You Are," and "Three Little Chestnuts"; and Mrs. James Story gave a most entertaining and informative account of her summer in Denver, Colorado, where Mr. Story did work on his doctorate at the University of Colorado.

Mrs. Austin South presided over the business session, and following the social hour, the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Hooper Hendrix and Mrs. Whitener, served a salad course with hot rolls and coffee, followed by a dessert in the autumn motif.

Fifteen members and one visitor, Mrs. G. K. Moose, were present.
