Freezor-Bolick Vows Are Said

Miss Theresa Freezor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Freezor of Lexington, became the bride of Ernest Benard Bolick, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest B. Bolick, of Southmont, N. C., at 5:30 p. m. Saturday, June 11, in Beck's Lutheran Church, Lexington.

Dr. Forrest Freezor of Dallas, Texas, uncle of the bride, performed the double ring ceremony.

Prior to the ceremony, a thirty minute program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Bob Clod-felter, cousin of the bride, organist, and Mrs. John Sink, soloist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of French Chantilly imported lace over bridal satin, with a yoke of French illusion, the front inserted with French Chantilly lace, featuring the prophetic wedding ring waist and billowing skirt with the traditional full train. The full length veil of French illusion fell from a calot trimmed with orange blossoms and seed pearls. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls. She carried a white Bible, a gift of the groom, showered with phalaenopsis spray orchids topped with large white orchids.

Mrs. Tommy Hedrick, aunt of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a floor length dress of yellow figured organdy over lime taffeta with matching mitts and headress. She carried a bouquet of red carnations centered with large lime frilled-ipped green orchids tied with lime satin ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles B. Seehriest, sister of the groom, Miss Jean Sheets, Miss Sarah Keaton, Miss Faynelle Graham, college roommates, and Mrs. Bryce Daniel, a high school classmate. They were dressed identical to the matron of honor and carried similar bouquets.

Honorary maids were Miss Ann Joy Freezor, Miss Forrestine Freezor, Mrs. Douglas Trogdon and Mrs. Sterling Smith, cousins of the bride.

Jane Owen, cousin of the bride, served as the miniature bride. She wore a floor length dress and head-dress matching that of the bride. She also carried a white Bible identical to the bride. The miniature groom was Martin Luther Bolick, brother of the groom. Little Miss Stephanie Hedrick was her cousin's flower girl. She wore a floor length white organdy dress and carried a basket of summer flowers.

Ernest Bolick, Sr. was his son's best man. Ushers were Maneval Bolick, brother of the groom, Charles B. Seehriest, brother-in-law of the groom, Sterling Smith and O. B. Stokes, cousins of the bride, Spurgeon Trantham and Tommy Hedrick, the bride's uncles.

Junior ushers who lighted the candles were Harold Bolick and Herman Bolick, brothers of the groom.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Freezor, was dressed in a navy dress with navy and white accessories.

Mrs. Bolick, mother of the groom, wore a pink lace and linen dress with navy accessories. Each of the mothers wore an orchid corsage.

The maternal grandmother, Mrs. H. C. Trantham wore a printed voile dress with black accessories. Her corsage was white carnations.

Shower Given For Miss Smith

Miss Reba Smith, who will be married June 26 to Grady Moretz, Jr., was honored Saturday afternoon at a shower at Mrs. Ralph Winkler's by Mrs. A. R. Smith, Mrs. Joe Crawford and Mrs. Winkler.

The house was decorated throughout with arrangements of pink and white peonies, pink and white gladiolus and pink dawn roses.

Mrs. Winkler received the guests and introduced them to the receiving line which included Mrs. W. F. Smith, Miss Reba Smith and Mrs. Grady Moretz, Sr.

Mrs. A. R. Smith, Mrs. Joe Crawford and Miss Barbara Jones presided over the tea table which was covered with a white satin cloth centered with a Terry Lee doll dressed in white lace and holding a white lace and satin umbrella. The doll was on a styrofoam base which was placed on a huge crystal plate, surrounded with baby rambler roses and flanked with pink candles in crystal holders. The cake plate was ruffled with pink moline and imported china roses were used beneath the net.

During the afternoon music was played by Mrs. Graydon Eggers. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. D. J. Whiteper who presided at the register, Mrs. Claude Norris, Mrs. Sam Moir, Mrs. Roy Smith, Mrs. James Winkler, Mrs. Herman Eggers and Mrs. L. T. Tatum.
