MRS. JACK SHIEFLER LUTTRELL

Miss Goodman And Mr. Luttrell Are Married In Greensboro Last Saturday

Greensboro, July 9—Miss Carey Lynne Goodman and Jack Shiefler Luttrell, both of Greensboro, were married at 5 p. m. today in Finch Memorial Chapel at Greensboro College here.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Leith Goodman of Greensboro. Mr. Luttrell is the son of Mrs. E. M. Luttrell of Shulls Mills and the late Mr. Luttrell.

Dr. Eugene Cannon Few, pastor of West Market Street Methodist Church, performed the ceremony. Mrs. R. Jordan Sizemore of South Boston, Va., was soloist and Hadley Hunt of Pleasant Garden was organist.

Miss Eugenia Ruth Luttrell of North Wilkesboro, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Clifford Leith Goodman Jr. of Greensboro were honor attendants. The bridesmaids were Mrs. David Livingstone Pierce and Mrs. William D'Arcy Troxler.

The attendants wore dresses of sunset pink taffeta designed with scoop necklines and full skirts of wide unpressed pleats. Their head-dresses were Mary Stuart half hats of taffeta with flowers at the sides, and they carried cascade bouquets of American Beauty roses tied with matching ribbon.

Groomsmen were Clifford Leith Goodman Jr. and Timothy Clarke Goodman of Greensboro, brothers of the bride; Robert Brinkley of Marion, cousin of the groom; James Toney of Caroleen, Charles Younce of Boone and Lloyd Golding of Greensboro. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle over white taffeta designed with a small stand-up collar above a tulle yoke. The skirt, appliqued with lace in a scroll effect, extended into a court train.

Her full-length veil of illusion was attached to a Mary Stuart half-hat of lace trimmed in seed pearls, and she carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

A reception was held in the parlors of Main Building on the campus. After a wedding trip through New York State and Canada the couple will live in Boone, Route 3, until fall when they return to Greensboro to make their home. For travel the bride wore a Dior blue cotton and lace dress with a matching jacket and matching straw hat.

Mrs. Luttrell was graduated from Greensboro College and is a member of the faculty at Gillespie Park Junior High School here.

The bridegroom was graduated from Appalachian State Teachers College and has done graduate work at the University of North Carolina and Union College at Schenectady, N. Y., where he held a General Electric Fellowship during the summer of 1951. He is a chemistry teacher at Greensboro Senior High School.

Recent guests in the home of Dr. and Mrs. G. T. Buckland were Dr. and Mrs. Phillip Vonada of State College, Pa., Mr. Douglas Vonada of Williamsport, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Buckland and children, Ralph and Dorothy Carol, of Monterey, Va. Mrs. Vonada is director of crafts at State College and she made a survey of southern craft shops.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Ward over the holiday week end of July Fourth were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jackson and daughter, Jeanne, of Aberdeen, Md., Mrs. Mollie Jackson of Havre de Grace, Md., Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Ellis and son, Stevie and Jimmie, who are en route from Clarksville, Tenn., to Jacksonville, Fla., where Mr. Ellis is being transferred by the Navy.
