Immediately after the ceremony a reception was given at the bride's home. The table was overlaid with a white cloth and centered with the wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Mrs. Clay Verne Greene presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. James Vines assisted in serving the cake.

For the wedding trip to the Smoky Mountains, Mrs. Brown wore a powder blue dress, and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

TARIFF ON BICYCLES

President Eisenhower has ordered an immediate 50 per cent tariff rise on all imported bicycles to protect the American producers from "serious injury." The tariff hike is expected to raise the wholesale cost of imported modcils in the United States by from $1 to $3 if foreign manufacturers add the duty increase to their selling price.

MRS. RONALD CARTER

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Winebarger of 1132 Virginia Avenue, Bristol, Tenn., formerly of Vilas, N. C., announce the marriage of their daughter, Janice, to Mr. Ronald Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Carter of Route 2, Bristol, Tenn.

The wedding took place in Greenville, South Carolina, July 9. The bride is a graduate of Holston Valley High School. The groom is a graduate of Blountville High School and is employed at Roden Electrical Supply Co.

The couple are at home on Windsor Avenue, Bristol.

Kindergarten Data Corrected

Due to information being reported incorrectly by the Junior Woman's Club, the Democrat stated last week that a kindergarten will be conducted in the home of Mrs. Louise DeLima. The statement should have said a nursery school for children ages 3 to 5 will be held in her home.

The Junior Woman's Club is working on plans to open a kindergarten, but so far have been hampered in their efforts because they cannot find a suitable location to hold it. For several years the school has been held in the basement of Boone Methodist Church, but this location is no longer available, according to a spokesman for the club.
