Music, Art Club Have Supper

The annual covered dish supper, outstanding social event of the year for the Music and Art Club members and their husbands, was held Thursday evening May 17th at the spacious home of Mrs. Herman Wilcox on Orchard Street.

The president, Mrs. Roy Ruffy presided and gave a hearty welcome to all husbands present. Ralph Winkler, speaking for the husbands responded. It being the birthday of Mrs. Ruffy, "Happy Birthday" was sung and a special welcome given to Mr. and Mrs. Guy Goodman who are just back from Florida.

The speaker of the evening was Mrs. A. E. South who, with the help of her audience, gave a most unusual original address, all in a humorous vein. The husbands were further entertained by an illustrated lecture on Modern Art by Mrs. Wiley Hartzog. The All-Girl Orchestra, directed by Mrs. Clyde Winebarger with Mrs. Esther Boone at the piano and Mrs. B. W. Ellis as soloist, rendered several breath-taking selections. All musical instruments were of original design and consisted of washboard, tin pan drums and cymbals, comb-mouth organs, etc.

Every member of the club was present except one which made 31 people in all. Each and everyone left with the same feeling they always have after such an occasion that surely this is the best supper; the most original entertainment and the finest feeling of fellowship that we have ever had.
